

Devotion Set This Week End At Sacred Heart

Exposition and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will take place in Sacred Heart Catholic church tomorrow beginning at 1 p.m. and continuing until 6 a.m. Sunday. The devotion is held regularly the second Saturday of every month and consists of periods of group vocal prayer alternated with silent prayer and meditation. Groups and leaders change hourly throughout the day and night. All parishioners and other interested persons are invited to spend some time in the church during any of the prescribed hours and join in the prayers of thanksgiving, reparation, adoration and petition to God through Christ in the exposed sacrament. Men in particular are invited to take part in the devotions of the Nocturnal Adoration society whose hours begin at 9 p.m. and continue until 6 a.m.

NAS Meeting Set
According to Perry Rayburn, president of the society, a general meeting of NAS will be held Sunday at 4 p.m. in the activities room of St. Mary's Grade school. On Sunday, the Feast of the Holy Family, it is the custom in Catholic churches for families to attend mass and receive holy communion together, a devotion which is practiced by many families in Sacred Heart parish and will be observed by them again this year. Some will follow mass attendance with family prayers in the home. In some areas Holy Hours for the family are added to the afternoon or evening schedule of the parishes on this feastday.

Three Churches List Schedules

Central Point — Dr. Earl W. Benbow, interim pastor for the Central Point Presbyterian church, will speak Sunday on "Christian Hope, Anchor of the Soul." Installation of new elders and deacons will be observed. Coffee hour will be held at 12 noon. There will be nursery care for children under school age.

Jacksonville — Dr. Clifford Miller will be the guest speaker in the First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville, during the worship service Sunday morning. Dr. Miller is associate professor of social science at Southern Oregon college. Phoenix — The Rev. William Saladin will continue his series of "How To" sermons Sunday with the topic "How To Pray" at the Phoenix Presbyterian church. Following the worship service the congregation will hold its election of officers for the coming year. The Youth Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. with Stuart Vencil leading devotions and Diana Bolz in charge of refreshments. The Adult study group will also meet on Sunday evening at the manse, to discuss, "The Meaning of Faith."

Nazarene Services Listed for Sunday

"The Inevitable Question" is the subject which will be considered by the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st., in the 11 a.m. service. Perry Christiansen, the minister of music and education, has announced that in the 11 a.m. service the sanctuary choir will sing "Like a River Glorious," and Jack Delmonte will sing a tenor solo. The family hour at First Nazarene is held at 6 p.m. with activities for all age groups. These are devotional and training sessions. The evangelistic service begins at 7 p.m. with music being presented by Mrs. Gene Mapes, who will present a vocal solo, and a duet by Mel Johnson and Dean von Stein. The pastor's topic for the evening sermon is "True To Our Heritage."

Author, Teacher To Be in Central Point

Central Point — The Rev. DeVern Fromke, Bible teacher, author and conference speaker, will conduct three services at the Community Bible church, Fourth and Alder sts., Central Point, Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Fromke is known to many in this area having served as minister in Central Point and Grants Pass on several occasions during the past 14 years. For the past few years he has been devoting most of his time to writing and publishing.

St. Luke's Organist Honored; Grant To Be Given Church

The congregation of St. Luke's Methodist church, 2940 Siskiyou blvd., will begin a week of activities Sunday when the pastor, the Rev. Charles R. McDonald, will preach the first in a series of sermons on the Book of Amos. His sermon title will be "Through History to Amos." During the service the youth choir, under the direction of Mrs. Claude Griffin, will sing, "Father Lead Me," based on the Medieval French melody. Mrs. McDonald will accompany the choir.

'Hide, Go Seek' Announced at 1st Christian

The Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans will preach on the subject "Hide and Go Seek" at the First Christian church Sunday morning. At the first service the youth choir will sing "We Would Be True." The chancel choir will sing "Holy One, Divine Redeemer" at the 10:55 a.m. service. Mrs. Herbert Sims and Mrs. Genie Putman will host the coffee hour following the second service.

Trissie Crovette will lead the Chi Rho Fellowship study at their 6 p.m. meeting on "Responsibilities of Freedom." Kathy Taylor is the devotional leader. The Middlers will meet at 6 p.m. with Kathy Christensen giving the study on "Our Responsibilities to the Church." Anne Bannister will give the devotions. The Christian Youth Fellowship will have an installation service for new officers at 6:30 p.m.

Mr. Evans will be the dinner guest speaker at the First Christian church in Coquille Sunday evening. He will explain a new type of calling program and assist in setting it up. Both ministers of the church will attend the Preachers' Parliament at Northwest Christian college in Eugene Tuesday and Wednesday. It is a conference of all Christian Church ministers of the entire Northwest area.

Dr. George Breese will conduct the mid-week Bible study Wednesday at 7 p.m. on the subject "Man's Changing Concept of Man." The Loyal Workers' class will resume their dinner meeting and calling program on Thursday at 6:30 p.m. in Fellowship hall.

Christian Science Lesson Topic Told

Communion services will be held Sunday, all in Christian Science branch churches and societies throughout the world. The church tenets will be read and the congregation will be invited to kneel in silent communion. The lesson-sermon at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 100 Windsor ave., will be on "Sacrament," at 11 a.m. Bible readings will be from Matthew 5.

First in Sermon Series Set Sunday

Gold Hill — The first in a series of sermons on the life of Jesus will be given by the Rev. Lochlen L. Gregory, pastor of Gold Hill Community Methodist church, Sunday at 11 a.m. The trio, Mrs. C. Norman Gail, Mrs. Roy Eskew, and Mrs. Paul Molloy will sing. The family hour at First Nazarene is held at 6 p.m. with activities for all age groups. These are devotional and training sessions. The evangelistic service begins at 7 p.m. with music being presented by Mrs. Gene Mapes, who will present a vocal solo, and a duet by Mel Johnson and Dean von Stein. The pastor's topic for the evening sermon is "True To Our Heritage."

Pathfinders Study Copper Tooling Art

O'Brien — The Pathfinders, children's group of the Seventh Day Adventist church of Cave Junction, elected Steve Johnson as captain and Johnny Mellish as scribe at their last meeting in the home of Mrs. Jack Barnes on Lone Mountain rd. Mr. and Mrs. Orin Reagle two new counselors are teaching the Pathfinders the art of copper tooling. Honors will be presented for this craft. Refreshments and singing followed the lessons.

Talent Topic

Talent — A. Clark Smith, pastor of Talent Friends church, will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service on "If Ye Be Risen."

Religious Liberty Film Set Tonight at Church

At 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Medford Seventh-day Adventist church, Lloyd E. Biggs of the North Pacific Union conference, and Harold Peckham of the Oregon Conference of Seventh-day Adventists with headquarters in Portland, will conduct a meeting and show a film on religious liberty. Elder Biggs, who held the position of president of the Oregon conference until his retirement in 1959, will address church members during the 11 a.m. worship hour Saturday morning. James Kempster, tenor soloist, will present "The Blind Plowman" during the service. Medford Pathfinders will sponsor the Walt Disney film, "Third Man on the Mountain" at 7 p.m. Saturday in the Medford armory. Subject Announced: Reuben A. Hubbard will speak on the subject, "The Anti-Christ of Prophecy," at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Medford church, following a color film entitled "Under the Southern Cross."

Bible Beliefs Series Continues

The Rev. G. O. Skaar, pastor of First Southern Baptist church, will again preach on basic Bible beliefs at the Sunday morning service. His topic will be "A Believer Must Persevere." The adult choir will sing with Dennis Sampels directing. For the evening service, Mr. Skaar will speak on "On to Maturity." The youth choir will sing.

This evening will be the last evening of the Bible study of Matthew. The classes were held each Monday through Friday. Each year the first week of January is used by the Southern Baptist convention throughout the nation to supplement the week by week Bible teaching with a concentrated study of one book of the Bible. Last year more than 375,000 students participated in a study of the book of Jeremiah.

Unity Activities Are Listed for Week

The Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of the Unity Church of Medford, Holly and Haven sts., will have for the subject of her lesson, at the 11:15 a.m. Sunday service, "Feeling Is the Key." The text is taken from Proverbs 23:7. This is the second of a series called "A New and Living Way." Miss Sandra Myers will be at the organ, and Mrs. H. H. Breese will sing "Melody Divine," by Kerr.

Brethren Church Events Announced

The Rev. William Wash, minister of Medford Church of the Brethren, 343 North Mary st., will speak Sunday at the morning worship service on "What Must I Do?" The junior choir will sing, "Take Time To Be Holy." Communion will be served during the service. At the Youth Fellowship meeting at 7 p.m. Jim Evenden will lead the discussion on "What Is Evangelism?" The deacon commission of the church will have a potluck dinner following the church services and their quarterly business meeting will be held.

UNITARIAN FELLOWSHIP

The Rogue Valley Unitarian Fellowship will hear a talk Sunday by Mrs. H. P. Bosworth Jr. Her topic will be "The United Nations." Mrs. Bosworth is a past president of the local chapter of the United Nations association and has taken an active part in national and civic affairs. The fellowship meets at the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne ave. at 11 a.m.

MIDWEEK SERVICE

The midweek service of the Medford Christian and Missionary Alliance church will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Richard Olson, 95 Crater lane, Central Point.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

100 Windsor Ave., 1 Block South of East Main
"Sacrament"
Church and Sunday School Services at 11:00 a.m.
Wednesday Evening Service, 8 p.m.
You Are Always Welcome
Listen to "The Bible Speaks to You"
Station K-SHA SUNDAYS-9:00 A.M.

1957 Award of Merit Winner CHURCH NEWS National Religious Publicity Council

Religious Liberty Film Set Tonight at Church

At 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Medford Seventh-day Adventist church, Lloyd E. Biggs of the North Pacific Union conference, and Harold Peckham of the Oregon Conference of Seventh-day Adventists with headquarters in Portland, will conduct a meeting and show a film on religious liberty. Elder Biggs, who held the position of president of the Oregon conference until his retirement in 1959, will address church members during the 11 a.m. worship hour Saturday morning. James Kempster, tenor soloist, will present "The Blind Plowman" during the service. Medford Pathfinders will sponsor the Walt Disney film, "Third Man on the Mountain" at 7 p.m. Saturday in the Medford armory. Subject Announced: Reuben A. Hubbard will speak on the subject, "The Anti-Christ of Prophecy," at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Medford church, following a color film entitled "Under the Southern Cross."

Bible Beliefs Series Continues

The Rev. G. O. Skaar, pastor of First Southern Baptist church, will again preach on basic Bible beliefs at the Sunday morning service. His topic will be "A Believer Must Persevere." The adult choir will sing with Dennis Sampels directing. For the evening service, Mr. Skaar will speak on "On to Maturity." The youth choir will sing.

This evening will be the last evening of the Bible study of Matthew. The classes were held each Monday through Friday. Each year the first week of January is used by the Southern Baptist convention throughout the nation to supplement the week by week Bible teaching with a concentrated study of one book of the Bible. Last year more than 375,000 students participated in a study of the book of Jeremiah.

Unity Activities Are Listed for Week

The Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of the Unity Church of Medford, Holly and Haven sts., will have for the subject of her lesson, at the 11:15 a.m. Sunday service, "Feeling Is the Key." The text is taken from Proverbs 23:7. This is the second of a series called "A New and Living Way." Miss Sandra Myers will be at the organ, and Mrs. H. H. Breese will sing "Melody Divine," by Kerr.

Brethren Church Events Announced

The Rev. William Wash, minister of Medford Church of the Brethren, 343 North Mary st., will speak Sunday at the morning worship service on "What Must I Do?" The junior choir will sing, "Take Time To Be Holy." Communion will be served during the service. At the Youth Fellowship meeting at 7 p.m. Jim Evenden will lead the discussion on "What Is Evangelism?" The deacon commission of the church will have a potluck dinner following the church services and their quarterly business meeting will be held.

UNITARIAN FELLOWSHIP

The Rogue Valley Unitarian Fellowship will hear a talk Sunday by Mrs. H. P. Bosworth Jr. Her topic will be "The United Nations." Mrs. Bosworth is a past president of the local chapter of the United Nations association and has taken an active part in national and civic affairs. The fellowship meets at the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne ave. at 11 a.m.

MIDWEEK SERVICE

The midweek service of the Medford Christian and Missionary Alliance church will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Richard Olson, 95 Crater lane, Central Point.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

100 Windsor Ave., 1 Block South of East Main
"Sacrament"
Church and Sunday School Services at 11:00 a.m.
Wednesday Evening Service, 8 p.m.
You Are Always Welcome
Listen to "The Bible Speaks to You"
Station K-SHA SUNDAYS-9:00 A.M.

School of Missions Set by Methodists

The theme this year for the annual School of Missions at First Methodist church will be "The Christian Mission on the Rim of East Asia." A great interest and concern today is being evidenced in the U.S. and Canada by a study of the Christian Mission among the people of islands and areas along the eastern rim of Asia — Korea, Okinawa, Taiwan, and Hong Kong, according to Dr. George G. Roseberry, minister. Missions of Protestant churches have long been at work in these islands, in some places for as much as a century, and strong churches now exist. For this reason "The Rim of East Asia" has been chosen as this year's mission study.

Missionary to Speak Sunday in Gold Hill Church

Gold Hill — Kenneth Davis, Portland, who is a missionary to New Guinea, sponsored by Wycliffe Bible Translators, will speak at both the morning and evening worship hours at Gold Hill Christian church, Sunday, according to Dewey V. Jeffrey, minister of the church. Missionary Evangelism will be the subject of Mr. Davis' talk at 11 a.m. During the 7:30 p.m. service he will show slides of his jungle training in missionary work in Mexico. His missionary work to New Guinea is a future assignment.

Mr. Davis is a graduate of the same college that Mr. Jeffrey attended, the Central Washington School of the Bible, at Selah, Wash. Mr. Davis, his wife, Donna Jean and their two youngsters, Bryan Dean and Joanna will be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey this week end. A promotional contest among people of the Sunday school has begun and will continue for five weeks. The group has been divided in two sides, the Red Blanket and Green Mountain Indian Tribes. The losers will sponsor a Buffalo Berger feed. The youth group, directed by Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey each Sunday at 6:30 p.m. at the church, has also started a promotional contest between the boys and girls. The meeting Sunday will be conducted by all boys, Mr. Jeffrey said. While the contest continues boys and girls will alternate. The following week all girls will conduct the session.

Symposium Planned Sunday Evening

Sunday at 7:30 p.m. a symposium on the subject, "What's New in Medford Missions" will be held at Trinity Baptist church. Sunday during the 11 a.m. worship service, Pastor Bruce O. Rogers will speak on the subject, "The Effective Christian Home." This will be the fourth in a series of messages from the book of Nehemiah on the "Effective Christian Home." Mrs. Herb Hunter will sing "My Yesterdays" at this service. Trinity Baptist church is located at Griffin Creek and South Stage rds. An attended nursery is provided for infants and pre-school children during the Sunday school and morning worship service.

Youth Leader Talks To Young People

Richard W. Schwartz, youth leader for the Oregon Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, addressed young people of the Rogue valley and surrounding area at an Adventist church, Jan. 8, in the Medford church. Purpose of the meeting was to acquaint members of the Missionary Volunteer society, the church's youth organization, and their officers with the program planned by the conference for increasing the scope of youth activities in 1963. Suggestions were given to aid local leaders in conducting meetings in their own churches, and the goal set for the Adventist young people was a closer acquaintance with God through the study of His Word.

Activities Planned At Phoenix Church

Phoenix — The Rev. Jack D. Qualls, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, Third and Pine sts., Phoenix, will give the message from the Bible Sunday at the 11 a.m. service. He will also speak at 7 p.m. Plans are now under way for the annual Youth week in the Phoenix church. It will be held the last week of January. A different activity each night of the week, except Tuesday and Thursday, will be held. The highlight of the week will be a semi-formal banquet on Friday, Feb. 1, in the Phoenix Community club.

Eastwood Baptists Announce Events

Sunday at Eastwood Baptist morning worship, the Rev. Clifford J. Young, pastor, will speak on "The Temptations of Jesus," based on Mark 1:10-11. The children's story-sermon will be "Message From a Postage Stamp." The chancel choir will sing, "Eternal God." The Junior Baptist Youth Fellowship meeting at 6 p.m. will complete plans for entertaining the Yreka Junior BYF at a skating party on Jan. 18. The Senior BYF, which meets at 8:30 p.m., has for its January theme, "Let's Take Root and Grow in the New Year." At the 7:30 p.m. service the pastor will speak on "Calling Four Disciples," based on Mark 1:16.

Religious Liberty Film Set Tonight at Church

At 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Medford Seventh-day Adventist church, Lloyd E. Biggs of the North Pacific Union conference, and Harold Peckham of the Oregon Conference of Seventh-day Adventists with headquarters in Portland, will conduct a meeting and show a film on religious liberty. Elder Biggs, who held the position of president of the Oregon conference until his retirement in 1959, will address church members during the 11 a.m. worship hour Saturday morning. James Kempster, tenor soloist, will present "The Blind Plowman" during the service. Medford Pathfinders will sponsor the Walt Disney film, "Third Man on the Mountain" at 7 p.m. Saturday in the Medford armory. Subject Announced: Reuben A. Hubbard will speak on the subject, "The Anti-Christ of Prophecy," at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Medford church, following a color film entitled "Under the Southern Cross."

Bible Beliefs Series Continues

The Rev. G. O. Skaar, pastor of First Southern Baptist church, will again preach on basic Bible beliefs at the Sunday morning service. His topic will be "A Believer Must Persevere." The adult choir will sing with Dennis Sampels directing. For the evening service, Mr. Skaar will speak on "On to Maturity." The youth choir will sing.

This evening will be the last evening of the Bible study of Matthew. The classes were held each Monday through Friday. Each year the first week of January is used by the Southern Baptist convention throughout the nation to supplement the week by week Bible teaching with a concentrated study of one book of the Bible. Last year more than 375,000 students participated in a study of the book of Jeremiah.

Unity Activities Are Listed for Week

The Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of the Unity Church of Medford, Holly and Haven sts., will have for the subject of her lesson, at the 11:15 a.m. Sunday service, "Feeling Is the Key." The text is taken from Proverbs 23:7. This is the second of a series called "A New and Living Way." Miss Sandra Myers will be at the organ, and Mrs. H. H. Breese will sing "Melody Divine," by Kerr.

Brethren Church Events Announced

The Rev. William Wash, minister of Medford Church of the Brethren, 343 North Mary st., will speak Sunday at the morning worship service on "What Must I Do?" The junior choir will sing, "Take Time To Be Holy." Communion will be served during the service. At the Youth Fellowship meeting at 7 p.m. Jim Evenden will lead the discussion on "What Is Evangelism?" The deacon commission of the church will have a potluck dinner following the church services and their quarterly business meeting will be held.

UNITARIAN FELLOWSHIP

The Rogue Valley Unitarian Fellowship will hear a talk Sunday by Mrs. H. P. Bosworth Jr. Her topic will be "The United Nations." Mrs. Bosworth is a past president of the local chapter of the United Nations association and has taken an active part in national and civic affairs. The fellowship meets at the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne ave. at 11 a.m.

MIDWEEK SERVICE

The midweek service of the Medford Christian and Missionary Alliance church will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Richard Olson, 95 Crater lane, Central Point.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

100 Windsor Ave., 1 Block South of East Main
"Sacrament"
Church and Sunday School Services at 11:00 a.m.
Wednesday Evening Service, 8 p.m.
You Are Always Welcome
Listen to "The Bible Speaks to You"
Station K-SHA SUNDAYS-9:00 A.M.

School of Missions Set by Methodists

The theme this year for the annual School of Missions at First Methodist church will be "The Christian Mission on the Rim of East Asia." A great interest and concern today is being evidenced in the U.S. and Canada by a study of the Christian Mission among the people of islands and areas along the eastern rim of Asia — Korea, Okinawa, Taiwan, and Hong Kong, according to Dr. George G. Roseberry, minister. Missions of Protestant churches have long been at work in these islands, in some places for as much as a century, and strong churches now exist. For this reason "The Rim of East Asia" has been chosen as this year's mission study.

Missionary to Speak Sunday in Gold Hill Church

Gold Hill — Kenneth Davis, Portland, who is a missionary to New Guinea, sponsored by Wycliffe Bible Translators, will speak at both the morning and evening worship hours at Gold Hill Christian church, Sunday, according to Dewey V. Jeffrey, minister of the church. Missionary Evangelism will be the subject of Mr. Davis' talk at 11 a.m. During the 7:30 p.m. service he will show slides of his jungle training in missionary work in Mexico. His missionary work to New Guinea is a future assignment.

Mr. Davis is a graduate of the same college that Mr. Jeffrey attended, the Central Washington School of the Bible, at Selah, Wash. Mr. Davis, his wife, Donna Jean and their two youngsters, Bryan Dean and Joanna will be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey this week end. A promotional contest among people of the Sunday school has begun and will continue for five weeks. The group has been divided in two sides, the Red Blanket and Green Mountain Indian Tribes. The losers will sponsor a Buffalo Berger feed. The youth group, directed by Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey each Sunday at 6:30 p.m. at the church, has also started a promotional contest between the boys and girls. The meeting Sunday will be conducted by all boys, Mr. Jeffrey said. While the contest continues boys and girls will alternate. The following week all girls will conduct the session.

Symposium Planned Sunday Evening

Sunday at 7:30 p.m. a symposium on the subject, "What's New in Medford Missions" will be held at Trinity Baptist church. Sunday during the 11 a.m. worship service, Pastor Bruce O. Rogers will speak on the subject, "The Effective Christian Home." This will be the fourth in a series of messages from the book of Nehemiah on the "Effective Christian Home." Mrs. Herb Hunter will sing "My Yesterdays" at this service. Trinity Baptist church is located at Griffin Creek and South Stage rds. An attended nursery is provided for infants and pre-school children during the Sunday school and morning worship service.

Youth Leader Talks To Young People

Richard W. Schwartz, youth leader for the Oregon Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, addressed young people of the Rogue valley and surrounding area at an Adventist church, Jan. 8, in the Medford church. Purpose of the meeting was to acquaint members of the Missionary Volunteer society, the church's youth organization, and their officers with the program planned by the conference for increasing the scope of youth activities in 1963. Suggestions were given to aid local leaders in conducting meetings in their own churches, and the goal set for the Adventist young people was a closer acquaintance with God through the study of His Word.

Activities Planned At Phoenix Church

Phoenix — The Rev. Jack D. Qualls, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, Third and Pine sts., Phoenix, will give the message from the Bible Sunday at the 11 a.m. service. He will also speak at 7 p.m. Plans are now under way for the annual Youth week in the Phoenix church. It will be held the last week of January. A different activity each night of the week, except Tuesday and Thursday, will be held. The highlight of the week will be a semi-formal banquet on Friday, Feb. 1, in the Phoenix Community club.

Eastwood Baptists Announce Events

Sunday at Eastwood Baptist morning worship, the Rev. Clifford J. Young, pastor, will speak on "The Temptations of Jesus," based on Mark 1:10-11. The children's story-sermon will be "Message From a Postage Stamp." The chancel choir will sing, "Eternal God." The Junior Baptist Youth Fellowship meeting at 6 p.m. will complete plans for entertaining the Yreka Junior BYF at a skating party on Jan. 18. The Senior BYF, which meets at 8:30 p.m., has for its January theme, "Let's Take Root and Grow in the New Year." At the 7:30 p.m. service the pastor will speak on "Calling Four Disciples," based on Mark 1:16.

BILL HARMON Scheduled Here

Gospel Singer to Appear at Churches

Bill Harmon, gospel singer of Kansas City, Mo., will be the guest of two Assembly of God churches in the area next week. He will be at the Country Church Assembly of God Tuesday at 7 p.m. The church is located at 5255 Table Rock rd., Central Point, and the pastor is the Rev. Ernest E. Ralls. Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Harmon will be back at the Jacksonville Assembly of God, Fifth and Blackstone sts. The Rev. O. E. Summers is pastor.

Witnesses to Review Preaching Abroad

Tonight's service meeting and ministry school of Jehovah's Witnesses will review the experiences of the preaching in foreign lands. Speaker will be Joe F. Nixon of the Medford congregation. The theme of the meeting is "Serving The Ruler Out of the House of Bread." Sunday the Bible discourse will be entitled "Can There Be A World Without War?" The guest speaker is A. Long of Ashland. A study in the Watchtower will follow entitled "Benefiting By Subjection To Authorities." Tuesday, Jan. 15, the weekly Bible study will be held and Chapter 16, "The Promised Forerunner Prepares the Way," will be considered.

Free Methodist Class Raises Funds

The fifth grade class of the Free Methodist Sunday school under the direction of Roland Johnson has just completed raising funds for purchasing floor tile for their class room. The floor tile project for the Sunday school addition, under the leadership of Mrs. LeRoy Calkins, has thus far raised funds for two adult classrooms, and the primary auditorium. The adult department of the Sunday school is dispensing with the general assembly period and is going directly to their classes during the month of January. The pastor, the Rev. Roland Stewart, will conduct a membership class during the family hour on Sunday evening beginning Jan. 13. The classes cover the Christian life, the Christian faith, our church at work and the history of our church. The subject of the morning worship service will be "To Believe or Not to Believe."

Free Methodist Class Raises Funds

The fifth grade class of the Free Methodist Sunday school under the direction of Roland Johnson has just completed raising funds for purchasing floor tile for their class room. The floor tile project for the Sunday school addition, under the leadership of Mrs. LeRoy Calkins, has thus far raised funds for two adult classrooms, and the primary auditorium. The adult department of the Sunday school is dispensing with the general assembly period and is going directly to their classes during the month of January. The pastor, the Rev. Roland Stewart, will conduct a membership class during the family hour on Sunday evening beginning Jan. 13. The classes cover the Christian life, the Christian faith, our church at work and the history of our church. The subject of the morning worship service will be "To Believe or Not to Believe."

Free Methodist Class Raises Funds

The fifth grade class of the Free Methodist Sunday school under the direction of Roland Johnson has just completed raising funds for purchasing floor tile for their class room. The floor tile project for the Sunday school addition, under the leadership of Mrs. LeRoy Calkins, has thus far raised funds for two adult classrooms, and the primary auditorium. The adult department of the Sunday school is dispensing with the general assembly period and is going directly to their classes during the month of January. The pastor, the Rev. Roland Stewart, will conduct a membership class during the family hour on Sunday evening beginning Jan. 13. The classes cover the Christian life, the Christian faith, our church at work and the history of our church. The subject of the morning worship service will be "To Believe or Not to Believe."

Free Methodist Class Raises Funds

The fifth grade class of the Free Methodist Sunday school under the direction of Roland Johnson has just completed raising funds for purchasing floor tile for their class room. The floor tile project for the Sunday school addition, under the leadership of Mrs. LeRoy Calkins, has thus far raised funds for two adult classrooms, and the primary auditorium. The adult department of the Sunday school is dispensing with the general assembly period and is going directly to their classes during the month of January. The pastor, the Rev. Roland Stewart, will conduct a membership class during the family hour on Sunday evening beginning Jan. 13. The classes cover the Christian life, the Christian faith, our church at work and the history of our church. The subject of the morning worship service will be "To Believe or Not to Believe."

Free Methodist Class Raises Funds

The fifth grade class of the Free Methodist Sunday school under the direction of Roland Johnson has just completed raising funds for purchasing floor tile for their class room. The floor tile project for the Sunday school addition, under the leadership of Mrs. LeRoy Calkins, has thus far raised funds for two adult classrooms, and the primary auditorium. The adult department of the Sunday school is dispensing with the general assembly period and is going directly to their classes during the month of January. The pastor, the Rev. Roland Stewart, will conduct a membership class during the family hour on Sunday evening beginning Jan. 13. The classes cover the Christian life, the Christian faith, our church at work and the history of our church. The subject of the morning worship service will be "To Believe or Not to Believe."

Presbyterians Announce Topics, Events, Music

At the First Presbyterian church Sunday, Dr. D. Kirkland West will preach on, "Moses — God's Unwilling Leader" with the Rev. David Brown assisting in the service. The youth choir will sing, "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" for the early service and the chancel choir will present the anthem for the 11 a.m. service. Mrs. D. G. MacDougall will sing, "A Song of Praise" by Luzzi for both services.

At 5 p.m. Sunday the senior high choir will meet to practice for the program to be presented at the Rogue Valley Manor at 7 p.m. Junior High Fellowship meets each Tuesday after school for choir practice, church school, dinner and fellowship. Wednesday evening at the congregational and corporation meeting of the First Presbyterian Church the Rev. John Adams of Roseburg will be the speaker. Mr. Adams was born of missionary parents in Korea and has just returned from an extensive trip in the Far East. The public will be invited to hear him as he will speak at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday, following the family night dinner at 6:30 p.m.

Westminster

"Do Not Lose Heart" will be the sermon to be preached by the Rev. John O. Reynolds at the Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday at 11 a.m. The church choir will sing the anthem "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God," and children's sermon will be given for boys and girls from 5 to 10 years of age who attend children's church. Nursery care is provided for pre-school children. The adult class has begun a new series of studies on "The Reformation Then and Now" at 9:45 a.m. each Sunday. Parents who take children to church school at that hour are invited to attend the class. The Junior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 5 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Sleetor, 39 South Berkeley Way. There will be a brief discussion followed by recreation and refreshments. The Senior High Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. for an informal Bible study led by the pastor. There will be no fire-side.

Westminster church is located on Oakwood dr. between Barneburg and Groveland aves.

Westminster church is located on Oakwood dr. between Barneburg and Groveland aves.

Westminster church is located on Oakwood dr. between Barneburg and Groveland aves.

Westminster church is located on Oakwood dr. between Barneburg and Groveland aves.

Westminster church is located on Oakwood dr. between Barneburg and Groveland aves.