Ehrhearts Return From Trip East

Shady Cove—Trail—Many local residents have recently entertained out-of-town guests or have taken trips to visit friends and relatives.

One of the most extensive trips was taken by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ehrheart and son, Floyd, Jr., Shady Cove, who went to their former home in Pennsylvania to visit relatives and friends. En route home they were in Los Angeles as guests of another son and family. They were gone a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Rodgers, Trail, went to Salem where they visited with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steeves. Another son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Steeves, Hood River, were also at Salem making the event in the nature of a family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Field, El Monte, Calif., were here to visit Mr. and Mrs. George Field, Trail.

Douglas Vincent, Salem, was a house guest for several days at the home of his uncle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Vincent, Shady Cove.

Three Relatives Visit O'Brien

O'Brien—Recent visitors here were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ten Eyck, Grants Pass, and Mrs. Ten Eyck's sister, Miss Carrie Kim, Los Angeles. The three then went to Los Angeles to see Bruce Ten Eyck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ten Eyck, O'Brien, and brother of Richard.

Six Nurses Honored; Group Installs Officers

Ashland—Fog in the lower valley Tuesday evening kept some members from attending the annual dinner meeting of District 4, Oregon Nurses Association, and prevented a guest singer from making the trip to Ashland from Grants Pass. Some 50 registered nurses, however, met in the Mark Antony hotel Caesar room for a buffet dinner.

Miss Jane Anders presided during the evening's business session and awards presentation before turning over the presidential gavel to her successor, Mrs. Joan Bass. In a talk based upon recent action and purposes of the American Nurses association, the retiring president urged a greater sense of personal responsibility for high standards in the nursing profession and a continued improvement in the quality of nursing care. At the conclusion of her remarks she was presented with an engraved piece of silver in recognition of her service during the past year.

Slim, Trim Class Open For Women

Mrs. Lanell Wilkes, women's program director for the Medford YMCA, announced today that the ladies "Slim and Trim" program will be open to the public one day, Monday, January 14, from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon, without charge. Women of the area are invited to bring their gym clothing, sneakers and swim suits and participate in this regular Y program on this date.

They will have a choice of callisthenics, work on the exercise machines, volleyball, badminton, paddle-ball or swimming. Qualified instructors will be available to assist. An experienced baby sitter will be available during the program for a nominal fee so mothers may bring their preschool children with them.

A special feature of this session will be a life-saving demonstration in the pool. Mrs. Wilkes will demonstrate the mouth to mouth method of artificial respiration and very simple life saving and assist techniques which anyone can perform. Life jackets for children will also be discussed and demonstrated. Mrs. Wilkes urges mothers to bring their tots into the pool with their jackets for this demonstration as time will be allowed for practice.

Additional information about the program may be obtained by calling the Medford YMCA office, 772-6295.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Nesheim are pictured during the annual installation banquet and ceremonies of Medford Kiwanis club at Rogue Valley Country club. Mr. Nesheim was installed president of the service club.
