

Mrs. James Richard Barnard

Barnards to Visit Newlyweds

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Barnard plan to leave soon for California and while south will visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Richard Barnard, Downey, Calif., whose marriage was a recent event in Pittsford, N.Y.

The bride is the former Miss Ann Neena Bridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Bridge of Pittsford.

The couple made their wedding trip to Mexico. The bride is a first grade teacher in the Norwalk, Calif., public school system and is a graduate of New York State University College of Education at Cortland, N. Y. The bridegroom was graduated from Medford High school and the University of Oregon. He now is a recruitment officer for the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power.

Church Rites Held
The wedding ceremony was read December 21 in Christ Episcopal church by the Rev. Ernest F. Scott.

Stevens-Gamble Rites Held in Ashland Church

Ashland - Miss Judith Ann Gamble became the bride of Bernal Avery Stevens in 4 o'clock afternoon rites held December 29.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren D. Lomax, 620 Ray lane, Ashland, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew E. Stevens, 5055 Pacific Highway south, Medford.

The Rev. Paul E. Otte read the rites in the Ashland Congregational church. Over 100 persons attended the ceremony and reception given by the bride's parents.

Bride Wears Satin

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her stepfather. She wore a satin gown with fitted bodice styled with long pointed sleeves, a sweetheart neckline and an insert of tulle accented by pearls and rhinestones. The full hooped skirt was designed with inverted pleats and a long train. Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a crown decorated with teardrop and seed pearls with iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of rosebuds and carnations.

The bridesmaids wore matching short red formal gowns with scarf squares of chiffon making an uneven hemline over taffeta sheath lining. Their hats were of white feathers with veiling and they carried colonial white carnation bouquets.

Ladies of Elks Plan Luncheon

Ladies of Elks will meet Tuesday, January 15, for a twelve o'clock luncheon in the Elks club downstairs lounge. Canasta, pinocle and bridge will be played during the afternoon.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Orrin L. Brown, Mrs. Frank De Costa, Mrs. John W. Henson, Mrs. M. M. Herman and Mrs. Loren P. Soots.

Mothers, wives and widows of Elks are eligible to become members and are invited to all events given by Ladies of Elks.

The women are requested to notice the 12 noon starting time for Tuesday's luncheon.

Miss Margaret Ramsay furnished the organ music.

Reception Follows
Mrs. Richard Westerberg of the Evening guild was in charge of the reception which was held in Fellowship hall of the church. Cutting the cake was Mrs. Jack R. Kieling, assisted by Mrs. Virgil Neuschwander, also guild members.

Miss Carol Jueden was in charge of the guest book and gift table.

Miss Sharon Inghram and Miss Mary K. Olson served the punch, coffee and tea. A friend of the bride, Mrs. Arlie Sessions made and decorated the bride's cake.

The bride's mother wore a green grape colored sheath dress with jacket and beige accessories and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a dark green paisley wool jacket dress with fur trimming, and her accessories were black. Both wore corsages of white gardenias with pink rosebuds.

The bride is a 1961 Ashland High school graduate and the bridegroom, a graduate of Phoenix High school, served four years in the submarine branch of the Navy. He is self-employed in farming. The bride is employed by the Ben Franklin store.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernal Avery Stevens (James photo)

Past Presidents Honored by Club In Eagle Point

Eagle Point - Mrs. I. D. Fitzgerald, 3488 New Ray road, Central Point, Mrs. Irma Cushman of Elk-Trail, and Mrs. Charles C. Hoover, Gregory road, were presented corsages and honored as past presidents of the Eagle Point Garden club at their meeting Wednesday after noon.

Mrs. Ted Flury, president of the club, made and presented the corsages to the honored guests.

During a discussion by the members, it was pointed out that no records were actually kept of the club when it first organized but Mrs. Gertrude Haak believes she was the first president of the organization.

Mrs. A. Wattenberg was appointed chairman of the spring flower show to be held in April.

Mrs. Jack James lectured and gave the group pointers

Public Ceremony Slated by Lodges
A public joint installation of officers for the Olive Rebekah and Odd Fellows lodges of Medford is scheduled for Tuesday, January 15 at 8 p.m., in the IOOF building, on Sixth street.

Mrs. K. G. Stockoff, district deputy president, and the Jacksonville installing team, will conduct the ceremonies.

on care and growing of house plants. Mrs. Betty Claus and Mrs. Ray Harnish were co-hostesses for the meeting with Mrs. Theima Short, Mrs. Elbert Hetley, Mrs. Bennie Hetley and Mrs. Fitzgerald attending as guests.

DANGER
YOUR CHILDREN'S
Back-to-School
SHOES MAY BE TOO
SMALL
HAVE THE CHECKED FOR SIZE
BY A QUALIFIED SHOEMAN SOON!
This important message brought to you by
Johnston-Stewart JUNIOR BOOT SHOP 211 East Main
Edwards
FOR SHOE FOR CHILDREN

PENNEY'S - SENSATIONAL SWEATER, SKIRT, SLACK SPECIAL!

ALWAYS FIRST QUALITY DOWNTOWN MEDFORD

SKIRT, SLACK

SPECIAL!

$5 Each

ALL DYED TO MATCH!

PERFECT QUALITY

Fine imported knits and woollens made to Penney's own specifications.

Sweaters knit of fine lambs-wool—angora rabbit nylon blend.

Skirts-slacks made of rich 100% wool flannel.

...all perfectly matched in new, light, bright, 1963 colors!

(Left) Tab-trimmed cardigan. 34 to 42. Proportion-fit skirt. (Center) 3-ply knit cardigan. Proportion fitted ankle pants. (Right) Collared slipon invites fashion accessories. Hip-stitch flannel, flare pleats.

Penney's exciting Counterpart Collection, lets you start the New Year now . . . and in the best of fashion! Cloud soft sweaters knit in fine lambswool-angora rabbit-nylon blend. Wool flannel skirts and slacks, exquisitely tailored for a flattering fit. Count on Penney's for a perfect match every time!

Penney's Mezzanine Floor

jean hart's
semi-annual Clearance

Wend your way to Jean Hart's (both Medford and Ashland stores) for the most fabulous values of all! It's Jean's Annual Winter Clearance of Fall and Winter name-brand fashions at great savings to you. Why not drop in and browse at Jean Hart's where a sale is a sale!

At both locations:

617 Est Main, Medford Ph. 772-8992

180 East Main, Ashland Ph. 482-3965