

Mr. and Mrs. David Michael Patterson (Landis photo)

Patterson-Smith Rites Held at Catholic Church

Miss Linda Marie Smith and David Michael Patterson were married in 11 o'clock morning rites December 22 in Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. Gilbert Lulay celebrated the mass.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril A. Smith, Route 2, Box 442, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Patterson, Oakridge, Ore.

Miss Mary Ann Olsen attended the bride and Richard Patterson, Oakridge, was best man for his brother, Walter Harvey, Grants Pass, a fraternal brother of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

Mr. Smith escorted his daughter to the altar.

For her wedding the bride chose a white tissue wool suit with white mink wedding ring collar, and a white fur circle headpiece held her veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and baby chrysanthemums.

Miss Olsen was dressed in a full skirted frock of red brocade. A red band held her veil and her corsage was of red and white carnations.

The altar was decorated with red and white carnations with white stock.

Home Reception Held
About 50 guests attended the ceremony and about 30 were at the reception held at the home of the bride's parents on Old Stage road. Mrs. James Berggreen, Roseburg, sister of the bride, served the wedding cake and Miss Sue Ann Rutherford poured the punch.

The Smith home was decorated with red carnations and white chrysanthemums.

For her daughter's wedding and reception, Mrs. Smith wore a royal blue knit suit with bone colored accessories and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in teal blue silk. Both had corsages of white flowers.

The couple made their wedding trip to the coast. For traveling the bride wore a grey and beige knit suit with beige accessories.

They are living at 420 North Grape street, Apartment 4, in Medford.

The bride attended Medford High school, Marylhurst

Reports Given For Association

Asland - At the first meeting of the new year the Presbyterian Women's association heard reports during the morning business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Lindsay Phillips.

Luncheon was served by the Mesdames Robert Witt, Charles May, O. L. Wright, Marcus Woods, Glenn Revel and George Beck.

The afternoon program was presented by Mrs. Stanley Jobe and Mrs. Elden Corthell followed by a film, "The Gift," and concluding with a discussion of the church and its mission in the world.

Next month the Women's association will hold a joint meeting with the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Beehive Club
Secret pal names will be revealed and new names drawn for the year by members of Beehive club of Olive Rebeah lodge Monday, January 14. The group will meet for a potluck luncheon in the home of Mrs. Esther Coleman, 1975 Grand avenue.

college and Southern Oregon college. She has been active in various musical groups both orchestra and vocal in Medford, Oswego and Ashland. She is employed as an International Business Machine operator in the offices of Bear Creek orchards.

Is Student
The bridegroom is a student in engineering at Southern Oregon college and he is employed at Jim's Shell Service station. He attended Oakridge High school, and is a member of Delta Phi Delta, a social fraternity; Alpha Phi Omega, a service fraternity and Theta Delta Phi, a scholastic honorary fraternity.

Others from out of town included the bridegroom's father, and the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. Berggreen and children, Jimmy and Susan.

Navy Mothers Plan Luncheon Meeting

A noon potluck luncheon is planned by Medford Navy Mothers club for Tuesday, January 15 in the home of Mrs. Carl Ludwig, 511 Austin street.

All mothers of sons or daughters in the Navy, Marine corps or Coast Guard are invited to the group's meetings.

Public Invited To Park Lecture

The public is invited to attend a slide-illustrated lecture on Crater Lake National park to be given by David Dame, assistant park naturalist Thursday, January 17 at 8 p.m., in Girls Community club, 226 North Bartlett st.

No admission will be charged and refreshments will be served.

The Welcome Wagon Club of Medford will sponsor the lecture.

WCTU Program Is Announced

A panel discussion on the United States constitution will make up the program for the Women's Christian Temperance union Thursday, January 17 at 1:30 p.m.

The meeting will be held in the fireplace room of First Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Gene Parker will furnish music accompanied by Mrs. Clifford Iverson. Mrs. Robert Bridge will lead the devotions. Her subject will be "Gains and Losses."

Refreshments will be served during the social hour.

Public Invited To Park Lecture

The public is invited to attend a slide-illustrated lecture on Crater Lake National park to be given by David Dame, assistant park naturalist Thursday, January 17 at 8 p.m., in Girls Community club, 226 North Bartlett st.

No admission will be charged and refreshments will be served.

The Welcome Wagon Club of Medford will sponsor the lecture.

WCTU Program Is Announced

A panel discussion on the United States constitution will make up the program for the Women's Christian Temperance union Thursday, January 17 at 1:30 p.m.

'Carnival' Next League Attraction

"Carnival," a Lee Guber, Frank Ford and Shelly Gross production by arrangement with David Merrick, will be the next Broadway Theater league production in Medford. The musical is scheduled for January 19 in the Holly theater.

The show, open to members of the league, has won the New York Drama Critics Circle award as the best musical of the year.

In its original form "Carnival" was a short story by Paul Gallico, about a lonely waif befriended by some puppets. Scenarist Helen Deutsch shifted the locale of the tale to France and converted the story into an enchanting film play for a rising young French star, Leslie Caron.

Elaine Malbin, well-known young soprano, will star in the role of Lili. She has won wide acclaim in the title roles of such notable NBC opera television productions as "Madame Butterfly," "Salome" and "La Traviata," and recently scored in London in a BBC production of "Il Tabarro." She also appears regularly in such popular television shows as the Voice of Firestone and the Ed Sullivan show. Miss Malbin also has been soloist with many principal symphony orchestras including the New York Philharmonic and Philadelphia orchestra.

The crippled puppet-master Paul will be played by David Daniels, baritone. He has appeared in such popular musicals as "Plain and Fancy" and "Call Me Madam." In summer stock he has played in the "Pajama Game," "Brigadoon," the "Great Waltz" and "Damn Yankees."

Gamma Rhos Set Style, Variety Show for March

Phoenix-Gamma Rho chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority held their first meeting of the new year at the home of Mrs. Elbert Lowry in Phoenix on January 9.

A style and variety show was planned. Mrs. Jack Wheeler was elected chairman and Mrs. Darrel Hughes will serve as cochairman.

The chapter plans to make the style and variety show an annual event for the Phoenix-Talent community. It will be held Saturday evening, March 30 at the Phoenix Community club.

Committees were selected and reports will be made at the January 23 meeting.

The chapter's tickets are in charge of tickets and reservations for the Valentine ball which will be given by all the local chapters of Beta Sigma Phi sorority February 9 in the Rogue Valley Country club Starlite room. Mrs. Wheeler, city council representative, announced at the meeting that the tickets are available. Mrs. William Knips was selected to be in charge of reservations.

Mrs. Hughes presented the cultural program on music and drama. A tape of this year's Miss America contest was played as the main interest for her subject.

Miss Marty Wyatt, Miss Oregon for 1962, will be a guest of the chapter at the next meeting.

Mrs. William Kidson, cohostess assisted Mrs. Lowry in serving refreshments.

The last event for the chapter was the Christmas party held at the home of Mrs. Wayne Woodard. Mrs. Knips and Mrs. Richard White were in charge.

Increase in Activities At Senior Center Noted

Dan Patch, 561 Beall lane, will show colored slides Monday of hunting trips he has taken when the Arm Chair Travel group meets at the Senior Activity center, 601 East Jackson street, at 1 p.m.

These trips took Mr. Patch into wilderness areas in British Columbia where his group made a pack trip to the Gang ranch in Lost valley, northwest of Clinton, B.C.

Some of the travel was into mountains in Canada, north-east Oregon, the Siskiyou and the Klamath region. The slides will include hunting of bear, moose, elk and deer.

Activities Scheduled
Last week the breaking of the fog cloud over the valley brought out many seniors to the activities scheduled. Saturday the newest program of the center was started, a class in contract bridge at 1 p.m.

Beginners as well as many who wanted to brush up on their bridge attended the first session and new members may enter during the January 19 session. The group is taught by Mrs. Maude Coddington and the Goren system is used.

The Spanish and knitting classes are also held Mondays.

Several mosaic pictures and craft articles are now exhibited in the center as well as the work of the copper tooling class.

Newcomers to the center and to Rogue valley may enter these classes in mosaic, copper tooling, oil painting, Spanish and knitting at any time and programs will be available next week. For information seniors may drop in during any activity between the hours of 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. any day but Friday when the center is being cleaned.

Items Donated
The square dancing class which meets each Thursday morning has recently been given a three speed record player to be used by the center. The city has furnished a new electric heater for the center to take the place of two small used heaters which had been donated to the center when it started in 1948 and were no longer usable.

An electric grill on which to make coffee is also needed, center committee officials said.

The Singing Seniors will meet today at the center at 3 o'clock under the direction of Kenneth Thurston. Any one who likes to sing or to listen is welcome to attend.

Thursday at 3 p.m. immediately following the orchestra practice, the executive board of the Rogue Valley Council on Aging will meet at the center.

WCTU Program Is Announced

A panel discussion on the United States constitution will make up the program for the Women's Christian Temperance union Thursday, January 17 at 1:30 p.m.

The meeting will be held in the fireplace room of First Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Gene Parker will furnish music accompanied by Mrs. Clifford Iverson. Mrs. Robert Bridge will lead the devotions. Her subject will be "Gains and Losses."

Refreshments will be served during the social hour.

Public Invited To Park Lecture

The public is invited to attend a slide-illustrated lecture on Crater Lake National park to be given by David Dame, assistant park naturalist Thursday, January 17 at 8 p.m., in Girls Community club, 226 North Bartlett st.

No admission will be charged and refreshments will be served.

The Welcome Wagon Club of Medford will sponsor the lecture.

Extension Units Set Meetings

Several Jackson county home extension unit meetings are planned for the week. Line and design of women's clothing will be the lesson.

Sams Valley
The Sams Valley unit meeting will begin at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, January 15 in the home of Mrs. Vince Hunt, in the Meadows district.

Mrs. George Bush and Mrs. Dalton Straus will give the lesson. Potluck luncheon will be served. Table service will be required.

Central Point
Mrs. R. E. Ekdahl, 40 South Second street, Central Point, will be the hostess for the Central Point unit Wednesday, January 16 at 10:30 a.m.

West Side
Mrs. Arthur Backlund and Mrs. William Butler will be program chairmen for the West Side unit meeting Tuesday, January 15 at 10:30 a.m., in the home of Mrs. Al

Schmitt, 1027 Winchester avenue.

Lone Pine
Mrs. Kenneth Phillips will give the project lesson for Lone Pine unit when the women meet in her home at 1909 Roberts road, at 10:30 a.m., Thursday, January 17.

Mrs. Earl Richardson and Mrs. William Brogan will be the hostesses for the noon luncheon.

Child care for the unit meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Don Herron, 2368 Crater Lake avenue.

Past Matrons
Jacksonville - A dessert luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m., for members of the Adarel Past Matrons club when they meet Monday, January 14 in the home of Mrs. Joe E. Crawford, 103 South Holly street. Mrs. Ina Huson will assist the hostess.

Among those seated at the head table for the recent installation banquet given by Medford Kiwanis club were Dr. Merle Foland, new lieutenant governor of District 13A; Mrs. Billy Blackstone, Dr. Blackstone, retiring president of the Medford club and Mrs. Edward Barnett, whose husband served as master of ceremonies. Mrs. Barnett is a past president of Medford Kiwanian Dames.

Extension Units Set Meetings

Several Jackson county home extension unit meetings are planned for the week. Line and design of women's clothing will be the lesson.

Sams Valley
The Sams Valley unit meeting will begin at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, January 15 in the home of Mrs. Vince Hunt, in the Meadows district.

Mrs. George Bush and Mrs. Dalton Straus will give the lesson. Potluck luncheon will be served. Table service will be required.

Central Point
Mrs. R. E. Ekdahl, 40 South Second street, Central Point, will be the hostess for the Central Point unit Wednesday, January 16 at 10:30 a.m.

West Side
Mrs. Arthur Backlund and Mrs. William Butler will be program chairmen for the West Side unit meeting Tuesday, January 15 at 10:30 a.m., in the home of Mrs. Al

Schmitt, 1027 Winchester avenue.

Lone Pine
Mrs. Kenneth Phillips will give the project lesson for Lone Pine unit when the women meet in her home at 1909 Roberts road, at 10:30 a.m., Thursday, January 17.

Mrs. Earl Richardson and Mrs. William Brogan will be the hostesses for the noon luncheon.

Child care for the unit meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Don Herron, 2368 Crater Lake avenue.

Past Matrons
Jacksonville - A dessert luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m., for members of the Adarel Past Matrons club when they meet Monday, January 14 in the home of Mrs. Joe E. Crawford, 103 South Holly street. Mrs. Ina Huson will assist the hostess.

Now In Progress! Our Annual January SALE

Infants' & Children's Wear

SPECIAL!
1/2 Price

Rack of miscellaneous items—don't miss these terrific values.

BABY CORNER

Infants' and Children's Wear
Downstairs at Medford Pharmacy
6th and Central Phone 772-6253

Many Other Fine Values

Come In and Browse

The bride sent Art Point wedding invitations.

Make your wedding a success too—send Art Point wedding invitations; you will be so glad you did.

Come in and see the complete selection of wedding invitations and wedding accessories styled for you by Art Point Studios, "The House of Weddings."

$14.95 for 100 and up; double envelopes; footnotes no extra charge.

Free! with our compliments, Virginia Courtenay's etiquette booklet. Ask for your copy.

We've Everything For Your WEDDING...

- Announcements
- Imprinted Wedding Napkins
- Punch Bowl Rentals

Shop All Three Floors

Swem's
BOOKS · GIFTS · RECORDS
217 EAST MAIN MEDFORD, OREGON

San Francisco Is Home Of Newly Married Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Howard Morse, whose marriage was an event of December 30 in Arcata, Calif., are living at 952 Sutter street in San Francisco, Calif. The bride, the former Miss Nancy Ruth Dean, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Benjamin Dean, 1324 Morrow road, Medford. She has been living in San Francisco where she is a personnel clerk in the San Francisco district office of the Internal Revenue service.

The bridegroom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Allen Morse, Arcata, is employed by the Bethlehem Steel corporation of San Francisco, as an air conditioning tester.

The ceremony was read at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Michael P. Petrillo performed the double ring rites in the First Baptist church.

Holiday decorations were used in the church with arrangements of holly and pine.

Gown of Brocade
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a satin brocade gown with bateau neckline and bell-shaped skirt. The floor length skirt was made with a bow train and the fitted bodice was trimmed with a bow at the front. Her French illusion veil was elbow length and was held from a headpiece formed of the same material as the gown. She carried a white orchid encircled with white spider chrysanthemums and silvered holly leaves which she carried on a white

Bible given her by her father.

Miss Fannie Chow, San Francisco, the honor attendant, wore a green satin brocade frock with bell-shaped skirt and a matching green net headpiece. She carried a nosegay of chrysanthemums with tinted green centers.

Bryan Rieke was best man and James Payne, Eureka, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was usher.

Mrs. Raymond Marsh, a friend of the bride from Medford, furnished the organ music.

Mother Wears Green
For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a green woolen dress and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a coral woolen frock. Their corsages were of holly.

During the reception given by the bride's parents in the fireplace room of the church Mrs. Payne and Mrs. Harry Roberts presided at the gift table and registered the guests. Mrs. Forrest Dean cut and served the cake. The reception table was decorated with holly.

The couple made their wedding trip to southern California. For traveling the bride chose a brown wool knit suit with black accessories and she wore the orchid from her bouquet.

The bride attended Medford High school and both she and the bridegroom attended Humboldt State college at Arcata. He attended Arcata High school.

1000 PAIRS of WOMEN'S DRESS AND CASUAL SHOES! BUY ONE PAIR AT REGULAR PRICE... GET ANOTHER PAIR OF EQUAL VALUE FOR JUST

$1

SELECTED GROUP OF 6.95 TO 22.95 SHOES

Yes—buy one pair of shoes at the regular price... and get a second pair of equal value or less for $1. Included in this special sale group are dress shoes, and flats by famous makers taken from our regular stock! You'll find high and low heels, open and closed styles in dressy and walking shoes, and a wonderful selection of casual shoes in straps, step-ins and ties. Colors include red, black, brown, and some bone white in casual shoes.

Open Mondays and Fridays Till 9:00

La Pointe's SHOE SALON

IN THE MEDFORD SHOPPING CENTER