

Presbyterian Ceremony Weds Couple

A wedding of interest to valley residents was held in Boise, Idaho, recently when Miss Darlene Hvall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Hvall, 2555 Connell avenue, became the bride of Keith S. Garner, Boise, Idaho.

Dr. Frank L. Rearick officiated at the December 30 rites held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at First United Presbyterian church. The bridegroom is a son of E. S. Garner, Weiser, Idaho, and the late Mrs. Garner.

The bride wore a white peau de sole sheath dress in afternoon length with matching overskirt. Her flowers were red and white carnations with holly.

Miss Lyla Jean Bailey attended the bride. She wore a red velvet sheath dress with white fur hat and muff. William Dickerson served as best man and Eddy Gifford acted as the officiant.

A reception was held at the church following the ceremony attended by 75 relatives and friends. Assisting with the serving were the Misses Lori Crowley, Jean Agnew, Christy Garner, Linda Agnew and Peg Tillotson and Mrs. Dickerson.

The newlyweds traveled to San Francisco on their wedding trip, and are making their home at 3322 Plant drive, Boise.

The bride is a graduate of Grants Pass High school. Mr. Garner attended Weiser High school and Idaho State college.

Among the relatives of the bride who attended from southern Oregon were Mr. and Mrs. David Hvall, her parents; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hvall, Applegate, an uncle and aunt.

Groups to Hold Monthly Dinner

The monthly potluck dinner of the Oregon chapter, Royal Arch Masons and the Royal Arch widows, will be held Tuesday, January 15, at 6:30 p.m. at the Jacksonville Masonic temple.

Committee for the evening will be Mrs. Rcy Picard, Mrs. Robert McNeil, Mrs. Albert Johnson and Mrs. Arthur Carroll.

Twelfth Night Observed By Catholic Daughters

Mrs. Paul Newcomb was crowned queen of the annual Twelfth Night observance of Catholic Daughters of America, Court St. Mary's, during the January 9 meeting in Knights of Columbus hall. Plans for the January 6 observance were cancelled because of foggy weather conditions.

Each year the women gather for the event which closes the holiday season. The large loaf of Italian panetone bread used in the observance was baked this year by Mrs. Frank Horton, and according to custom was filled with small trinkets and a bean. The custom calls for the woman who finds the bean to be crowned queen. Others who find the trinkets are given prizes.

The group's chaplain, the Very Rev. Carl Mal, closed the evening's event with songs.

During the meeting it was announced that a state conference will be held April 19 through 21 in Tillamook, Ore. Mrs. Anna M. Baxter, DuBuque, Iowa, second vice supreme regent of Catholic Daughters of America, will attend.

Duncan-Bateman Rites Held

Miss Linda Annette Bateman, daughter of Mrs. Sam W. Bateman, 250 Beatty street, and the late Mr. Bateman, became the bride of Richard Allen Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan, Duggan road, Central Point, in a ceremony held at First Methodist church.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the double ring ceremony held at 8 o'clock in the evening December 29. Some 175 relatives and friends attended.

The bride wore a floor length gown styled on princess lines of white silk over tulle. It was fashioned with scalloped Sabrina neckline outlined with lace, lace sleeves and panels of Alençon lace on the skirt. The full skirt ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip length veil of imported silk net was held by a seed pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of gardenias, baby pink carnations and white carnations encircling a white orchid.

Joseph Bateman, Berkeley, Calif., escorted his niece to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Miss Rita Bateman was honor attendant for his sister. Other attendants were Mrs. Donald Bawling, Miss Martha Simpson and Miss Sharon Laing. Flower girls were Cindy Marie Bateman, niece of the bride, and Lisa Gae Schoolfield. They all wore floor length pink frocks. The attendants' frocks were fashioned with scalloped necklines, three-quarter length sleeves and bell skirts. Their hats were in matching pink with short veils. They carried lighted pink candles encircled by contrasting pink carnations.

Candlelighters were Lynn Marie Duncan, who also wore a floor length pink frock, and William Duncan, sister and brother of the bridegroom. Ring-bearers were Kenneth Duncan, brother of the bridegroom, and Kimbo Schoolfield.

Thomas Bateman, Portland, cousin of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were Michael Duggan, Central Point, Gary Fields, and Donald Bowling.

Mrs. John Mansfield, chairman for the committee serving the Veterans Domiciliary hospital, was in charge of the committee which wrapped Christmas gifts at the domiciliary. Others who took part were Mrs. George Davy and Mrs. Edith Devaney. Mrs. Devaney also is in charge of altar linens for the chapel at White City.

The organization also is making preparations to cater to wedding receptions to be held in the new Knights of Columbus hall. General chairman of this project is Mrs. Hugh Friel, assisted by Mrs. Everett Gosch and Mrs. Herbert Seitz.

Mrs. Ned Holmes and Mrs. Joe Fleigel cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Larry Anderson, Portland, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. William Bateman, sister-in-law of the bride, poured coffee. Miss Kathy Grubo was in charge of the guest book and the Misses Judy Sims and Beverly Gebhard were at the gift table.

The couple traveled to southern California and San Francisco on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a black and white checked wool suit with black accessories and white orchid corsage. They are making their home on Wheeler road.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and attended Southern Oregon college. Mr. Duncan is a graduate of Eagle Point High school and is a carpenter for C. W. Duggan of the Land of Many Oaks subdivision.

Among the out of town guests attending were Mrs. Joseph Bateman, Berkeley, Calif., aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bateman, Portland, uncle and aunt of the bride; Larry Bateman, Portland, cousin; Thomas Bateman, Portland, another cousin; Mrs. Robert Stonne, Sacramento, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Stuy, Corvallis, uncle and aunt of the bride.
