Newlyweds Make Home In Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Angvald Vickoren are making their home at 129 Mistletoe avenue, Apartment 1, following their wedding at St. Anne's Episcopal church in Myrtle Creek. The Rev. Robert W. Bunnage, Roseburg, officiated at the 7:30 o'clock evening ceremony.

The bride, is the former Linda Carol Ulam, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo W. Ulam, Myrtle Creek. Mr. Vickoren, who made his home at 902 Maple Park drive, Medford, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harper, Ogden, Utah.

Some 30 relatives and friends attended the double ring rites, held December 22.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin styled on princess lines and fashioned with scoop neckline and elbow length sleeves. Her shoulder length veil fell from a pearl crown and she carried a white orchid on a satin covered testament which originally was owned by the late Mrs. Norman Clark, her grandmother.

Wears Red Satin

Mrs. Keith Ulam, Klamath Falls, served as honor attendant for her sister-in-law. She wore a red satin frock with red headdress. Mrs. Richard Ulam, Myrtle Creek, another sister-in-law, was bridesmatron. She wore a green wool sheath dress. Her short white veil was held by a circlet of green satin and they both carried white carnations.

David Goss, Canyonville, served as best man and seating the guests was Neil Gibson, Riddle.

Miss Barbara Meirs was in charge of the guest book.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride attended Myrtle Creek High school and Southern Oregon college. The bridegroom attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college and is employed by Medford Concrete Construction company.

Newlyweds Visit Here; Will Live in Portland

The Rev. and Mrs. Ted Weston Landers, who were married January 12 in Portland, were to leave today after being week end guests of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Landers, 840 Marshall avenue. They are enroute to their home in Portland from San Francisco where they made their wedding trip.

The bride, the former Miss Merrilyn Christie Peterson, is a daughter of Willie Peterson, Eugene.

The two o'clock afternoon ceremony was performed in the Burlingame Baptist church, Portland. Officiating were Dr. Ralph Isensee, minister of the church, and the Rev. Glenn Frye II of the Barton Baptist church.

Mrs. David Whitehead was matron of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were the Misses Marcene Eaden and Marilyn Eaden, both her foster sisters, and Joan Kinkade, Seattle. Junior bridesmaid was Alice Ellen Eaden, another foster sister.

Brother Attends

The Rev. Ned S. Landers, also Portland, was best man for his twin brother.

Ushers were Ray Holder, Ray Westeren, Seattle, and David Turner, Silverton. Randy Bristlin, Estacada, was junior usher.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown, with scalloped V neckline and lace bodice trimmed with sequins. The full net skirt was covered with tiers of lace. The bride carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a corsage of yellow rosebuds. For something old she carried a Mexican lace handkerchief which the bridegroom's mother had carried at her wedding, and wore a gold and ruby locket, an heirloom of the bride's family. Her fingertip veil was held by a sequin crown.

The attendants wore corduroy suits with soft pleated skirts. They were of varied shades of brown and yellow with the maid of honor wearing gold. Their bouquets were of yellow chrysanthemums.

The candlelighters, Miss Joan Anderson and Miss Cecelia Paine, wore yellow corduroy frocks with brown accessories.

Yellow and brown chrysanthemums decorated the church. Don Clausen sang the wedding songs and Mrs. Hugh Weber furnished the organ music.

Mother Wears Lame

For the wedding and reception the bridegroom's mother wore a yellow and gold lame dress with matching accessories. Her flowers were yellow chrysanthemums.

For traveling the bride chose a brown suit with bone colored accessories.

They will live at 3141 Southwest Barbur boulevard, Portland.

The bride, an employee of Montgomery Ward and company, attended Judson Baptist college. The bridegroom, who is Christian education director at the Burlingame Baptist church, attended Southern Oregon college and Weston Conservative Baptist seminary.

Among out-of-town guests for the ceremony were the bridegroom's father; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gandt and daughter, Miss Julie Gandt, Medford; Glen Lamb, Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Blum, Corvallis, all former Medford residents.

In Hawaii

Ashland – Mr. and Mrs. Dom Provost flew to Hawaii recently where they will spend their customary winter vacation.

Orientation Event Set

The Jackson County chapter of the American Red Cross will conduct an orientation program in the chapter house, 60 Hawthorne avenue Tuesday, January 22, from 9 a.m. until 12 noon.

This is an annual program to familiarize volunteers, board members and persons interested in the Red Cross with the scope of activities performed. Mrs. Frank Fairweather, local volunteer field consultant, will be in charge of the orientation. Local chairmen for the various services will participate and give background on their particular service and its function within the community.

Volunteers are always needed. This program offers anyone wishing to volunteer some time an opportunity to get acquaointed with local workers and decide in what field they would like to serve.

Board members and current volunteers, who have not had this course of instruction, are required to attend, Red Cross officials said. Mrs. O. A. Eden, chairman of volunteers, indicated that anyone interested in Red Cross service will be welcomed at the orientation program.

Leave

Illinois Valley – Mrs. Nomia Rutledge of Des Moines, Iowa, who has been visiting relatives in the valley, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Nellie Wilbur, left recently for Des Moines. They went by way of Sunset, Ariz., where they will visit relatives before continuing to Mrs. Rutledge's home. Mrs. Wilbur, who recently observed her eighty-eighth birthday, will remain for about two months before returning here.
