

Rogue River Club To Meet Friday; Funds Are Raised

Rogue River - The Rogue River Civic Improvement club, member of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, will hold a program meeting at the club house on Oak street, Friday afternoon, January 25 at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. William Harms, president of the federation's first district, will be guest speaker and will talk on Federation.

The first meeting of the new year was held January 14 with the president, Mrs. Robert Rowilson, presiding. Mrs. Rowilson gave a summary of the work done by the club in 1962 and named the projects for future planning. Mrs. Beryl Ingle and Mrs. William White, chairmen of the Christmas party, expressed appreciation to club members for their cooperation. Mrs. Lynabel Deck, community service chairman, thanked the club members who assisted Mrs. Phil Ingle, chairman of the Christmas seal drive in Rogue River.

Several coffee hours have been held to raise funds for repairs on the club house. A new tile floor has been laid in the kitchen. The materials were purchased with money collected by Mrs. Jerusha Moore's birthday apron project. Mrs. Elizabeth McGrath was hostess for a card party at her home on West Evans road and the proceeds added to the building fund.

Mrs. H. J. Stephens and Mrs. Lulu Trotter were hostesses for the day.

Anyone interested in hearing Mrs. Harms is invited to the dessert luncheon which will be served at 1:30 preceding the program.

Assisting in the program arrangements and costumes are Mrs. William Frost, Mrs. Gene Breceda, Mrs. Raymond Callahan, Mrs. Gill Gessler and Mrs. Betty Lightie.

Anyone who wishes to enter in the talent acts is invited to do so. Deadline for entries will be Friday, January 25.

Program Schedule Listed For Senior Activity Center

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Castillo, 714 West Tenth street, will show what they call a "Scrap Book" movie to the Arm Chair Travelers at the Senior Activity center, 601 East Jackson street, Monday, January 21 at 1 p.m.

The movie was taken of many different places, some taken by telephoto lens during several years of traveling along the Pacific coast. The pictures include films of a flower opening, bees in a garden, deer in the woods, and similar objects and scenes.

Mrs. Castillo, an artist in both water color and oils, will narrate the movie.

New programs for the winter and spring are now available at the center, the public library and the city recreation department in the city hall. The schedule now lists 11 different activities carried on each week by volunteer teachers and leaders. The center is open every day but Friday, when the room is cleaned.

Four new teachers have been added to ten who have been giving their time all year, some for four years, to lead classes in their own specialty. The new teachers are Mrs. Charles Whitecher, who is conducting the mosaic workshop on Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to noon; Mrs. Maude Coddling, who is teaching contract bridge on Saturdays from 1 to 4 p.m.; and Kenneth Thurston and Mrs. Merle Stone, who lead the Singing Senior program each Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m.

The ten teachers or leaders, whose programs are continuing are, Mrs. F. E. Stevens and Walter Hatch, who teach beginning Spanish each Monday from 10 a.m. to noon; Dr. Frank Roberts, who arranges the Arm Chair Travel programs each Monday from 1 to 3 p.m.; Mrs. Edward Barnett, who teaches knitting each Monday from 3 to 5 p.m.; Mrs. Gene Williams, who teaches the oil painting class each Tuesday from 1 to 3 p.m.; William Jones, who leads the shuffleboard teams each Wednesday from 10 a.m. to noon; Robert Africa, who teaches copper tooling the same day from 1 to 3 p.m.; Mrs. Gene Chamberlain, who teaches the square and circle dancing class Thursdays from 10 a.m. to noon and William Pickell and his assistant, Mrs. Maude Arnold, who direct the Senior Center orchestra Thursdays from 1 to 3 p.m.

The center can accommodate only one group at a time, so the small room must be rearranged after each class to make ready for the next activity. The volunteer host and hostess, chosen from each group of seniors using the center, are in charge during class hours.

They assume the responsibility of registering members, arranging the room, attend to the lighting and heating and general care of facilities, answer the telephone and give information on the program.

Serving in this capacity are Frank Gray, Mrs. Judd Greenman, William Jones, Mrs. Nellie George, Mrs. Helen Dillman, Mrs. W. H. Walwyn, Mrs. Hermine Beukema, Walter Townsend, Mrs. Betnice Brabs, Mrs. Pearl Spackman, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Middlebush, and Mrs. Nellie Poling.
