SCHOOL NEWS

RR High School

Nine senior and junior students from Rogue River High are participating in the county-wide program for able and gifted students, which began Saturday at Southern Oregon college.

Students were selected on the basis of past grade achievement and standardized test scores. After an initial selection was made, the students were contacted and an opportunity to choose subject fields for study. Several students were unable to participate because of prior commitments.

Students who are participating are Beverly Allison, Torry Andrews, Wayne Cook, William Cooper, Elwin Heckert, Becky Irwin, Pat McCarty, Lanny Parson and Joanne Yancey.

Buses furnishing transportation will leave Rogue River High school at 7: a.m. Saturdays and return by 1:30 p.m.

"A Bazaar in India" was presented by William S. Willett at the Rogue River High school recently. It was another in the 1962-63 National School assemblies.

After six years spent in India on construction of a steel mill, Willett reported how he came to know Oriental mysteries and jungle terrors, collecting curios and knowledge of the country's customs and history. These formed basis for his illustrated talk.

Students of the Rogue River district concluded the first semester of the 1962-63 school year last week, winding up with examinations. Report cards will be sent out Jan. 25. The schools have reached new high levels of enrollment. Present high school enrollment is 210, while the elementary school has more than 350.
