

Strong Field To Contend In Oregon Invitational

Portland—The first West Coast indoor track meet since Gen. Douglas MacArthur waded ashore through the stormy waters of the AAU-NCAA feud will draw a strong field here Saturday night for the Oregon Invitational Meet.

The entry list includes such AAU-supervised stars as shot-putter Parry O'Brien, Finnish middle distance runner Olavi Salonen and Bert C. Linder, miler Jim Grelle and Olympic broad jump champion Ralph Boston.

From the colleges come such standouts as seven-foot high jumper Joe Faust, Oregon distance runner Keith Forman and a pair of promising California youngsters, freshman sprinter Forrest Beatty and sophomore quarter-back Dave Archibald.

Gen. MacArthur's mediation of the battle for supremacy between the Amateur Athletic Union and the U.S. Track and Field Federation, backed by the NCAA, also resulted in the appearance of Jim Dupree of Southern Illinois.

Dupree, the NCAA and AAU half-mile champion, was suspended by the AAU for taking part in an unsanctioned meet earlier this season. He was forgiven when the two organizations patched up their differences.

The first event starts at 8 p.m. in the 10,000-seat Memorial Coliseum.

The feature events are expected to be the 1,000-yard run, the two-mile relay, high jump and pole vault.

The 1,000 field includes Grelle, winner of the Los Angeles Invitational mile last week end; Finland's Ohlander; Dupree, the collegiate champion; Oregon transfer Ray Van Asten, the nation's finest junior college half-miler last year; Canadian Olympian Don Bertola of Washington State, and Oregon's Ted Abram.

Van Asten is scheduled to join former Oregon runner Daryl Burleson, George Larson and Sig Ohlemann in an attempt on the unofficial world indoor two-mile relay record.

The high jump field includes Faust and four others who have cleared 6-9, while Ron Morris, Washington's John Crainer and Southern Cal's Mel Hein head the pole vault entries.

Clay Halts Powell In 3rd as Forecast

By DICK FONTANA
Pittsburgh—(UPI)—Cassius Clay, the undisputed "champ of prophesy," sailed home to Louisville on a cloud today with a promise to become the "champ of heavyweights" in 10 months.

Clay, self-proclaimed "Louisville Lip," disposed of former professional football star Charlie Powell in 2:04 of the third round Thursday night to fulfill a predicted knockout victory for the 13th time in 14 kayo wins.

Clay had boasted before the fight that he would "annihilate" Powell in the third round.

Immediately afterward, matchmaker Teddy Brennan of Madison Square Garden announced he will sign the third-ranked Clay to a fight with Doug Jones for March 13 in New York.

"I would like to fight Jones (ranked sixth) and Billy Daniels (ranked seventh) on the same night," Clay confidently asserted in his jubilant dressing room after extending his unbeaten string to 17 straight. "In this way," he added, "I can make greater progress."

Drew Heavy Boos
Clay's easy win over the 214-pound Powell drew heavy boos from a record local indoor crowd of 11,238 which paid a gross of $55,782 and a net of $47,360. Ten per cent of the net, $4,736, will go to a fund for families of 37 men killed in a mine explosion last month.

Art Wall, Jack Cupit Pace Lucky

By HAL WOOD
UPI Sports Writer
San Francisco—(UPI)—There were some strange names among the leaders in the $50,000 Lucky International golf tournament as the second round of play got under way today.

Art Wall, the 39-year-old former Masters king; and Jacky Cupit, 23-year-old 1961 "rookie of the year" were leading the race with four-under-par 67s. Their names are well known.

But did you ever hear of Terry Dill? Jack Bissegger? Bob Barrison or Bill Eggers? They are right up there close, ready to take over if the leaders show any signs of faltering on the overplayed Harding Park public golf course.

The greens are so bumpy the leading professionals refuse to even comment on them. And the lies are so tight that many of the top names are playing like amateurs.

Dill was tied at 68 with Dick Mayer, the former National Open and World Champion; Charley Sifford, the Negro golfing king; long-hitting Bobby Nichols, and Phil Rodgers, a 23-year-old rookie from University of Texas.

Bissegger who had a 69, is a Canadian with promise. Harrison with 70 has played the winter tour several years from Palm Desert, Calif., and Eggers is playing out of Las Vegas, Nev.

Williams Foe Of Bobo Olson

Eugene, Ore.—(UPI)—Former middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson, now a leading light heavyweight contender, meets Al (Tiger) Williams of Los Angeles in a 10-round bout at the fairgrounds tonight.

The 34-year-old Olson, who says he is seeking a fight with light heavyweight champion Harold Johnson has been fighting out of San Francisco. Unbeaten Bobby Horn of Springfield, Ore., faces Mel Ferguson of Los Angeles in a 10-round middleweight bout.

Welu, Abel Head BPAA Star Meet

Kansas City, Mo.—(UPI)—Billy Welu of St. Louis and Joy Abel of Chicago today headed America's finest bowlers in the pin fight for $100,000 in cash prizes in the 22nd annual All-Star bowling tournament.

Welu fired an 844 four-game series Thursday night to cap a big day which saw him win 8½ of a possible 12 games. Right behind him in this 22nd annual Bowling Proprietors Association of America (BPAA) classic were three other St. Louis kaglers, Ray Bluth, defending champion, Dick Weber, and four-time past champ Don Carter.

223 Average

In the 32 championship round games rolled so far in the men's division, Welu has scattered 7,137 pins for an average of 223 per game. His 290 game Thursday was high for the day.

Bluth has 7,147 pins, but the championship rounds are being scored under the Petersen point system, which gives one point for every 50 points and one point for every game won.

Miss Abel has racked up 3,291 pins in 16 games for an average of 205. Bobbie Shafer of Chicago, who had Thursday's high two-game series of 505—third highest in All-Star history—moved up to second with 3,289 pins.

Marion Ladewig, who was leading going into Thursday night's action, slipped to third. She has a pin total of 3,212.

Night Tiffs At Houston On Sunday

Cincinnati, Ohio—(UPI)—For the first time in major league history, Sunday night games were included in the official 1963 National league schedule which was released today.

Bowing to the intense daytime heat in Houston during the summer, league officials granted the Colts permission to play seven Sunday night games at home this year in a special ruling.

Some Sunday afternoon games have been finished under the lights for one reason or another but this will mark the first time in major league history that a team actually will start a game on Sunday night.

The Colts are scheduled to play their first Sunday night game against the San Francisco Giants on June 9.

All told, the National league clubs are scheduled to play to a total of 419 games, two less than last year.

Houston has scheduled the most night games, 69, the Los Angeles Dodgers follow with 59 and then come the Cincinnati Reds with 52, Philadelphia Phillies, 50, Pittsburgh Pirates, 48, St. Louis Cardinals, 46, Milwaukee Braves, 42, New York Mets, 28, and Giants with 25.

Maintaining their unique tradition, the Chicago Cubs will play all their home games during the daytime.

The Reds officially get the NL season under way April 8—one day earlier than last season—when they play host to the Pirates.

All the other clubs in the league swing into action on April 9, with the Cardinals opening against the Mets in New York; the Braves against the Pirates in Pittsburgh; the Dodgers against the Cubs in Chicago; the Giants against the Colts in Houston, and the Phillies against the Reds in a night game at Philadelphia.

UELSES IN FIELD

New York—(UPI)—John Uelses, formally reinstated as an amateur Thursday, has joined a strong field of pole vaulters for the Millrose AA track and field meet at Madison Square Garden Feb. 1. Uelses was suspended by the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) last year for accepting excessive expenses to compete in a meet in Florida. He later returned the money amounting to $130 and was reinstated by the Florida association of the AAU.

Old "Fast Draw" Bill West will be on duty down here in the valley to put out his famous advice on how, when and where to catch them. When he draws on you, you'll likely be looking into the muzzles of a pair of flatfish. He says he will make you a heck of a good deal on a boat outfit now 'cause he is kind of weak at this low altitude. Take advantage of him this weekend.
