

Shown at a tea following the annual meeting of Rogue Valley Memorial Hospital auxiliary are Mrs. Paul Selby, elected first vice-president of the group this year, Mrs. A. K. Morse, retiring president, and Mrs. Leonard B. Mayfield, the incoming president. Mrs. Selby is also vice president of the State Council of Hospital auxiliaries.

Jacksonville Paintings To Be Benefit Display

One of the more interesting early February events in the valley will be an afternoon benefit for the Rogue Valley Art association. It will be held at the newly remodeled studio of Eugene Bennett, 305 South Oregon street in Jacksonville Sunday, February 3 from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Marriage Announced

Mrs. Marian Voorhies Riegel and Henry Hudson Pringle were married Saturday, January 26, in a ceremony held at the bride's home, Eden Valley orchard, Voorhies road.

The marriage service was read at noon yesterday by the Rev. George R. V. Bolster, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church. Only family members attended. A small reception followed.

The bride wore a traveling costume of jade green. The newlyweds are traveling to southern California for their wedding trip and upon their return will be at home at the Pringle residence, 601 North Modoc avenue.

Here for the ceremony were the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Voorhies, Portland, their sons, Sloan and Peter, and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Anthony Voorhies, who came up from southern California. Also present was Daniel Voorhies, another nephew of the bride, who makes his home at Eden Valley orchard, and Mrs. Voorhies.

Mr. Pringle's daughter, Mrs. Lois Wadsworth, came up from Belvedere, Calif., for the ceremony.

Both the bride and bridegroom have lived in southern Oregon for many years and are widely known. Mrs. Pringle, who lived in Portland and Medford during her girlhood, is a member of the Tow club in Portland and the Colony club here. Mr. Pringle is a member of the University club here.

Mrs. Larry Dean Knudson was Charity Dawn Mesloh before her recent marriage in San Jose, Calif.

Rites Held In San Jose

Eagle Point - Miss Charity Dawn Mesloh and Larry Dean Knudson were married Sunday, January 20 at 2 o'clock in First Immanuel Lutheran church in San Jose, Calif.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Mesloh of Eagle Point.

The bride wore a white satin knee-length sheath dress with lace overskirt and lace covered sleeves. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with a pink rosebud center.

The bride's uncle, Earl Mesloh, San Jose, gave her in marriage, Miss Jerilyn Hansen, Brownsboro, maid of honor, chose a white satin sheath dress with a pink bolero jacket. She carried white carnations centered with pink rosebuds to match the bride's bouquet.

William Russel served as best man. The bride attended school in Eagle Point, graduating from high school in 1962. She has been employed in San Jose.

Mr. Knudson is a Navy carrier man stationed at Moffitt field in San Jose. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Knudson, live in Bode, Iowa.

The couple traveled south for a two week's honeymoon. The bride's mother accompanied Miss Hansen to San Jose for the wedding.

Auxiliary Holds Annual Meeting

Mrs. Leonard B. Mayfield was elected president of Rogue Valley Memorial Hospital auxiliary at the recent annual meeting of the group, held in the auditorium of the hospital. Other officers chosen were Mrs. Paul Selby, first vice president; Mrs. Charles Barnes, second vice president; Mrs. Elwood B. Hedberg, secretary; and Mrs. Eloise Faulkner, treasurer.

Three new cribs for pediatrics have been ordered, at a cost of approximately $1500 to be paid for by the auxiliary. Principal source of revenue for such projects comes from operation of the snack bar and gift shop adjacent to the hospital lobby, the president pointed out.

Appointments for the ensuing year, which were announced at the meeting, included hospital service chairman, Mrs. H. Chandler Dewey; sewing group, Mrs. Bessie Brearcliff and Mrs. R. J. Rinabarger; surgical dressings, Mrs. Curtis Barnes; information desk assistants, Mrs. Ann Finley and Mrs. Blanche Powell; flowers and mail, Mrs. Jack K. James and Mrs. Halbert Deuel.

Coordinating chairman for the gift shop, shop on wheels, snack bar, and hospitality cart is Mrs. Claude McIntyre; gift shop chairmen, Mrs. Jack T. Walker and Mrs. A. K. Morse; snack bar, Mrs. Betty Weiser and Mrs. Joyce Reavis; and hospitality cart, Mrs. Glen Bessonette.

Head of staff services will be Mrs. E. J. DeVoe; publicity, Mrs. Elwood B. Hedberg; administrative assistants, Miss Janie Smith; youth projects, Mrs. Jack Sanborn; youth tours, Mrs. Keith Gordon; memorials, Mrs. Shelby Tuttle; and patients' absentee voting, Mrs. Hedberg. Mrs. J. A. Hoffbuhr is the advisor for the Candy Strippers, or junior auxiliary members.

Research Study Dr. Otto Emig, who has undertaken a research study at Rogue Valley hospital, explained briefly the purposes of such projects and how they fit into smaller private hospitals. Dr. Emig is certified in two specialties, obstetrics and gynecology and in pathology. He explained that his investigation is concerned with the transfer of infections during pregnancy, from mother to infant. His talk was illustrated with picture slides.

At the conclusion of the meeting, members and guests were invited to have tea in the auxiliary room. The table was decorated with an arrangement of early spring flowers including violets, acacia and pussywillows. Mrs. E. J. DeVoe and Mrs. Morjorie Olds were chairmen for the tea, and pouring were Mrs. McIntyre and Mrs. Rinabarger.

Traveler, Visitor In Montague News Montague - Mrs. Henrietta Terwilliger is making an extended visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Brabham in Susanville, Calif., and with other relatives in the vicinity.

Mrs. Mabel McGuire, formerly of Yreka and now living in Rock Springs, Wyo., is visiting in this vicinity. She is a houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. James Dow in Montague.

Delta Gamma Sorority Plans Annual Benefit The annual dessert-card party, sponsored by Rogue Valley Alumnae chapter, Delta Gamma sorority, will be held Wednesday, January 30, at the Girls Community club at 1 p.m.

The event will raise funds for the purchase of a set of drums to be presented to the State School for the Blind in Salem. The drums will be on display at the party.

Last year the chapter arranged for the shooting and mounting of a deer for the School for the Blind. It was announced that additional drum sticks are needed by the school and they will be on sale at the party for members who wish to purchase them for the School for the Blind.

Parking arrangements are being made by the chapter to aid guests.

Mrs. Kenneth Brown is in charge of the dessert; Mrs. J. Kenneth Bartlett, Ashland, decorations; Mrs. T. J. Tinsley, tickets; and Mrs. Sally Lausman.

Tickets are available from Mrs. Tinsley and other chapter members.

Scholarship Is Awarded

Miss Julia Gandt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Gandt, 1248 Eureka circle, Medford, has been selected the winner of the first Lotta Carll Memorial scholarship for Phi Beta national professional fraternity for music and speech. The newly established scholarship award was announced January 14 at the University of Oregon where Miss Gandt is a sophomore music major student.

The scholarship is for members of the collegiate chapter of Phi Beta, Pi Delta alumnae chapter. The award provides a practice room as well as applied music fees. It is provided by the son-in-law and daughter of the late Mrs. Frank D. (Lotta) Carll, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Winter of Portland. Mrs. Carll was former national president of Phi Beta and member and one of the founders of the collegiate chapter.

Miss Gandt received her encouragement in music study at Medford High school where she was graduated. She also was a student of Caroline Andrews Werner, Medford voice instructor. At the university her teacher is Mrs. Exine Bailey.

Art Group Meeting Set

Proposed events for the year will be considered by Rogue Valley Art association members during the annual meeting Wednesday, January 30 at 8 p.m. in the Red Cross building auditorium.

New board members are to be elected. An amendment to the by-laws will be presented to the general membership and reports will be made on a membership drive now in progress.

The group maintains the Rogue gallery at 220 West Main street, which is open to the public.

Artist to Hold Exhibit At Fontaine's Gallery

Victoria (Mrs. Tom) Staley, valley artist, will hold an exhibit of her paintings at Fontaine's gallery, 329 South Grape street, during February. Fontaine's gallery is the former location of Eugene Bennett's studio.

Mrs. Staley states that 43 new and original oil paintings will make up the exhibit. Some of these were painted last year during a stay of several months in southern California. Mrs. Staley spent considerable time on the beaches, finding inspiration from the sand and water, and also was intrigued with the beauty and artistic values of the palms and other southern vegetation. Several weeks ago the Staleys returned to their home, Genelec lodge, on the Rogue river above Eagle Point.

Mrs. Staley began painting a number of years ago as a hobby, as have so many other Americans, and gradually developed it into a major interest.

She is a member of both the Southern Oregon Society of Artists and Rogue Valley Art association. She has displayed her works in the shows sponsored by the artists' society, and with her

Art Group Meeting Set

Proposed events for the year will be considered by Rogue Valley Art association members during the annual meeting Wednesday, January 30 at 8 p.m. in the Red Cross building auditorium.

New board members are to be elected. An amendment to the by-laws will be presented to the general membership and reports will be made on a membership drive now in progress.

The group maintains the Rogue gallery at 220 West Main street, which is open to the public.

Artist to Hold Exhibit At Fontaine's Gallery

Victoria (Mrs. Tom) Staley, valley artist, will hold an exhibit of her paintings at Fontaine's gallery, 329 South Grape street, during February. Fontaine's gallery is the former location of Eugene Bennett's studio.

Mrs. Staley states that 43 new and original oil paintings will make up the exhibit. Some of these were painted last year during a stay of several months in southern California. Mrs. Staley spent considerable time on the beaches, finding inspiration from the sand and water, and also was intrigued with the beauty and artistic values of the palms and other southern vegetation. Several weeks ago the Staleys returned to their home, Genelec lodge, on the Rogue river above Eagle Point.

Mrs. Staley began painting a number of years ago as a hobby, as have so many other Americans, and gradually developed it into a major interest.

She is a member of both the Southern Oregon Society of Artists and Rogue Valley Art association. She has displayed her works in the shows sponsored by the artists' society, and with her

March Rites Plan of Pair

The forthcoming marriage of Miss Margaret Louise Moir, and Carl Allen Luchterhand, both of Medford, has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Edgar Moir, former Medford residents now of Amador City, Calif.

The bridegroom-elect is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spencer Luchterhand, Griffin Creek road.

The wedding is set for March 17 in the Medford St. Mark's Episcopal church.

The bride is a 1962 graduate of Medford High school and is employed in Swem's Book and Gift shop. Her fiancé was graduated here in 1961 and is attending Oregon Technical Institute, Klamath Falls.

Meeting Announced For Grandmothers

Rogue chapter, Grandmother Clubs of America, will meet Monday, January 28 at 12:30 p.m. at the Girls Community club. Dessert will be served by the committee in charge with Mrs. Martha Bittle, chairman. Mrs. Otto Gaston will preside at the business meeting.

117 S. Central Phone 773-7301

EASY CARE
UNIFORM FAVORITE FOR JUNIOR, HALF SIZES

5⁹⁸

Fashion's most popular style is on-the-go in crisp white cotton. Such feminine details, too, in the softly pleated skirt, tab pocket and cuffs. Easy-care uniform, easy-priced at Wards. Sizes 5-15, 14½-24½.

Art Group Meeting Set

Proposed events for the year will be considered by Rogue Valley Art association members during the annual meeting Wednesday, January 30 at 8 p.m. in the Red Cross building auditorium.

Artist to Hold Exhibit At Fontaine's Gallery

Victoria (Mrs. Tom) Staley, valley artist, will hold an exhibit of her paintings at Fontaine's gallery, 329 South Grape street, during February.

Delta Gamma Sorority Plans Annual Benefit

The annual dessert-card party, sponsored by Rogue Valley Alumnae chapter, Delta Gamma sorority, will be held Wednesday, January 30, at the Girls Community club at 1 p.m.

Scholarship Is Awarded

Miss Julia Gandt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Gandt, 1248 Eureka circle, Medford, has been selected the winner of the first Lotta Carll Memorial scholarship for Phi Beta national professional fraternity for music and speech.

Art Group Meeting Set

Proposed events for the year will be considered by Rogue Valley Art association members during the annual meeting Wednesday, January 30 at 8 p.m. in the Red Cross building auditorium.

Artist to Hold Exhibit At Fontaine's Gallery

Victoria (Mrs. Tom) Staley, valley artist, will hold an exhibit of her paintings at Fontaine's gallery, 329 South Grape street, during February.

WHAT DO YOU PAY for 100 years' reputation?
Another hard-headed reason for choosing

Will you be proud of the diamond you buy? If it carries the name Artcarved, it's backed by more than 100 years' reputation for fine quality, famous throughout America. Yet you pay nothing extra for all the skill, workmanship and tradition the name Artcarved represents. So don't risk lifetime disappointment—learn all the facts that make Artcarved your best diamond value. Visit us soon.

Lawrence's
21 N CENTRAL Est 1908
Convenient Terms If Desired!

117 SOUTH CENTRAL PHONE 773-7301

FAMOUS FOR FASHION, QUALITY, VALUE

Brentshire easy-care separates

WARDS EXCLUSIVE LABEL

BUYS FOR SPRING

Wards trio of instant mixers for your casual way of life... at our famous thrifty prices.

3⁹⁸ SHIRT

5⁹⁸ EACH SKIRT, PANTS

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED or your money back!