

Pedestrian Hurt When Hit By Car

Alta Pearl Morton, 67, of 506 Beatty st., was slightly injured when hit by a car at Beatty st. and Central ave. Friday afternoon, Medford police reported.

A car driven by Wayne Faye Fawcett, 2118 Corona ave., Medford, was driving southwest on Beatty st. She stopped at the stop sign at the North Central ave. intersection, looked to the right at the heavy traffic, started to pull out and stopped again and checked the traffic, she told city police.

The driver saw the pedestrian on the corner, and drove into the intersection, passing the crosswalk area. Then she saw the pedestrian in front of her car. She bumped the woman and knocked her down after braking to a stop.

Mrs. Morton refused treatment and was taken home by her brother. No citations were issued.

Collision—A truck driven by Norman Johnson, Alderwood Manor, Wash., and a car driven by James Albert Rodrick, 4069 South Pacific hwy., collided at 12th st. and Riverside ave. Saturday morning. No citations were issued and no injuries reported, according to Medford police.

Bylaws for Flood Control Group Set

Eagle Point — A set of bylaws will be presented Monday night to residents interested in forming a group to seek flood control measures along Little Butte creek.

The meeting, to start at 8 p.m. in the Eagle Point Grade school gym, has been called by a three-man committee appointed at an earlier meeting to do preliminary work on forming an organization.

Bill Jesse will act as chairman of the meeting. All residents and interested persons are invited to attend.

Local and Personal

Accident Reported—A dog ran in front of a car early Saturday causing it to go into a ditch along Crater Lake highway at Delta Waters rd., state police reported. The car was driven by Nadine Ann Hall, 41, of Eagle Point, police said.

Surgery Patient—Lindell L. Moore, 5428 Independence ave., Klamath Falls, was listed as a surgery patient Saturday at Sacred Heart hospital.

Automobiles Collide—Cars driven by Clifford A. Craft, 49, of 910 Harmony lane, Ashland, and Mrs. Wilma Frances Winkler, 36, of 1480 East Main st., Ashland, collided at the intersection of Wightman and Iowa sts., Ashland, at 8:05 a.m. Friday. There were no injuries and no citations were issued, police said.

Trailers Saved—Quick action by the Hornbrook Volunteer Fire department was credited with extinguishing a potentially serious fire recently at a trailer court owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Phillips at Hornbrook. The fire broke out in a pump-house, apparently from an overheated oil stove, according to reports.

Convalescing—Mrs. Paul Sparks, Prospect, is convalescing at home after major surgery recently at Rogue Valley hospital.

Toastmasters to Meet—Dale Prentice, Jim Taylor, Hans Hess, Tom Roberts and Don Johnson will speak at the 6:30 a.m. Monday meeting of the Jackson Toastmasters at Samba's restaurant in Medford. Bill Diley will be toastmaster.

Named Controller—William F. Wehry, Medford, has been appointed as controller of Harry and David Bear Creek Orchards, David H. Holmes, president, announced last week. Wehry was controller at Columbia River Paper company, Portland. He is now a national director of the National Association of Accountants and was a director in the Portland chapter of the Financial Executives' Institute.

Roundtable Speaker—Mike Miksche, public relations director for Hyspeth Industries, will talk on "Recreation Unlimited" at the Monday noon meeting of the Medford Chamber of Commerce Roundtable. Miksche will discuss the long-range picture of outdoor activities in Oregon. The roundtable meets at North's Chuck Wagon.

Medford Man Hurts Leg in Accident

Ronald Glenn Pippis, 16, of 1251 South Peach st., was reported in fair condition at Rogue Valley hospital yesterday following an accident on Highway 99 south of Medford.

Pippis' left leg was lacerated in a collision at 12:55 p.m. yesterday involving his motorcycle and an auto driven by Edna Marie Lulich, 55, of Mila, Ore.

The Lulich car, southbound on highway 99, attempted to turn onto Charlotte Ann rd. and collided with the motorcycle, which was northbound.
