Portland Will Host Cattlemen's Meeting

Las Vegas, Nev. –UPI– Portland was named Thursday as the site for the 1965 American National Cattlemen's Association convention.

Exams for Post Office Jobs Noted

Examinations for two substitute positions at the Medford post office have been announced by the post office board of the U.S. civil service examiners.

One is for substitute clerk and the other for substitute carrier, each with a beginning wage of $2.26 an hou.. The examinations will be held Feb. 4, 11 and 18.

Applicants must reside within the delivery area of the Medford post office or be patrons or employees of the post office.

Postal employees receive regular pay increases and liberal employee benefits, including paid vacation, L. B. Nelson, local examiner for the civil service commission, pointed out in announcing the examinations.

Anyone wishing additional information regarding the examinations and the positions to be filled is asked to telephone Nelson or to call in person at the Medford post office.

Former Oregon Army Man Retires

Ft. Monroe, Va. –UPI– Gen. Herbert C. Powell, Oregonborn commander of the U.S. Continental Army Command, retired from the Army Thursday in ceremonies at this coastal military post.

A 17-gun artillery salute boomed a military farewell as Powell and his wife rode in a horse-drawn carriage from the headquarters of the Army's largest training command to the post's main gate.

The fife and drum corps of the 1st battle group, 3rd infantry, Ft. Myer, Va., dressed in Revolutionary war costume, beat a final tattoo for Powell, retiring after 43 years service.

Powell, a native of Monmouth, Ore., said he and his wife would spend some time at the Georgia resort of Jekyll Island on "our first real vacation in 15 years."

Powell, at 16, enlisted as a private in the Oregon National Guard in 1919.

Powell once was a reporter for the Bend Bulletin.

Wernmark Files Suit In Circuit Court

K. C. Wernmark, Central Point, is seeking $10,000 general damages and $1,500 special damages from Dr. Paul T. Rutter, osteopathic physician, Phoenix, and Dr. Max Flowers, Central Point, of the Medford Osteopathic clinic and the Crater Osteopathic hospital, as a result of an operation performed Feb. 1, 1961.

Wernmark claims in a complaint filed in Jackson county circuit court that an unnecessary operation was performed on his abdomen, the incisions were improperly repaired and he failed to receive proper nursing care.

Wernmark said in his complaint it has been necessary to have a second operation as a result of the first operation, that he has experienced considerable pain and suffering and expects further medical expenses besides being unable to carry on his normal business.

Alhambra, Calif. –UPI– Two chivalrous bandits robbed a bartender and six male patrons of $1,350 Thursday night, but refused to take money from four women in the bar.
