

Three Churches List Activities For Coming Week

Central Point — "The Man at the Crossroads" is the sermon topic of Dr. Earl William Benbow on Sunday at 11 a.m. at the First Presbyterian church, Central Point. Dr. Benbow, a retired United Presbyterian minister now living at the Rogue Valley Manor, was appointed as interim pastor by Southwest Oregon Presbytery, and will serve the Central Point church until a new pastor is selected. He was in charge of Presbyterian youth work on the campus of the University of Washington for 18 years. For five years before coming to the Rogue valley, Dr. Benbow was on the staff of the Federated Presbyterian church in Corvallis.

A coffee hour follows the service. Small children are cared for by members of the Women's association.

At 8 a.m. Sunday, the men's group will meet for breakfast in the church fellowship hall, Jacksonville — "Hen-Pecked" will be the title of the second of a series of sermons, "A Light from the Dark Past," which will be given by the Rev. King K. Jones Sunday at 11 a.m. in the First Presbyterian church of Jacksonville.

During the worship service the choir will sing "Gate of Heaven." A service of ordination and installation of the newly elected officers of the church will be held as a part of the total worship service.

At 7 p.m. Sunday the Men's study will meet for Bible study, studying the eleventh chapter of Acts.

Monday at 8 p.m. Dr. John Watson, Medford, will speak and show slides of his trip to Korea during the past summer when he assisted in the medical work of the Australian Presbyterian hospital in Pusan.

At the church's annual meeting last Sunday Dr. Albert A. Griffin and Clarence Williams were elected elders; Mrs. Roy Smith, deaconess; Mrs. Tom Winniford, church school superintendent, and Melvin Hall, treasurer.

Phoenix — Holy communion will be observed Sunday at the Phoenix Presbyterian church during the 11 a.m. worship service. The Rev. William Saladin has chosen for his sermon topic, "Why People Go to Church."

The adult discussion group, which meets at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, will discuss television and its effect on family living.

Beginning Saturday, Feb. 9, at 10:30 a.m. Mr. Saladin will hold communicant classes for the youth.

City-Wide Youth Singspiration Set

A city-wide youth singspiration sponsored by the Medford Ministerial association will be held at 8:30 p.m. Sunday at the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st. Instrumental and vocal numbers will be presented by various churches as well as congregational singing. Refreshments will be served following the time of singing. All young people are invited to attend and take a friend.

Baptismal Service Set by Adventists

"Shadows of the Future" will be the topic of a sermon by Evangelist Duane Corwin at 11 a.m. Saturday in the Medford Seventh-day Adventist church. Mr. Corwin will base his remarks on Bible prophecy found in Revelation 13.

At 3:30 p.m. a baptismal service will be conducted in the church baptistry.

Members of the four Valley Adventist churches, Ashland, Medford, Shady Point and Valley View will meet in the Medford Armory at 6:30 p.m. for a social gathering. Entertainment will be provided for all age groups, and will feature action games in addition to two color films, one portraying the Middle East, and one the story of Tommy, a boy who learns obedience from his experiences in the woods.

Sunday at 7 p.m. the film, "This My Son" will be shown in the Medford church. Following the film Evangelist Corwin will speak on the subject, "Heavenly Reunion." The evening's discourse will be the last in the current series of lectures presented by the It is Written Evangelistic team.

Two Feastdays To Be Observed

Two feastdays will be commemorated in Sacred Heart church, this week end.

Saturday, the feast of the Purification, is also referred to as the feast of the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple and as Candlemas Day.

It is customary for families to obtain candles blessed on this day for use in the home whenever it is necessary for any of the sacraments to be administered there.

Masses on Saturday will be at 7, 8 and 11 a.m. Following the 8 a.m. mass the monthly novena prayers in honor of Our Lady of Fatima will be recited. The 11 a.m. mass is scheduled for the convenience of children attending the Saturday catechism classes at St. Mary's Grade school.

Sunday is the feast of St. Blaise, a third century bishop of the church to whom is attributed the cure of a choking boy. He is now venerated as the patron saint against diseases of the throat.

Know Your Church Month Scheduled

February will be Know Your Church month at the First Advent Christian church on West Jackson and Welch sts. The Sunday school members will attempt to build a church this month. One piece of the church will be put in place for each visitor during the month.

At the close of the Sunday school hour there will be a dedication service for the offering which has been collected the past three Sundays for a missionary project. The money will go toward the salary of a translator for the Advent Christian missionaries in the Philippines.

Communion will be observed during the 11 a.m. worship service. "Seeing the Unseen God" will be the morning message by the pastor, the Rev. Fred O. Sapp Jr. The newly organized choir will sing "Break Thou the Bread of Life." The children will go to the Junior Church chapel following the junior sermon.

Sunday the Family Fellowship dinner will begin at 6 p.m. Each family is to take a dish to pass.

Wednesday evening prayer meeting and Bible study will be held at the parsonage at 7 p.m. The 24th and 25th chapters of Ezekiel will be studied.

Activities Slated At Central Church

Sunday activities at Central Church of Christ, 1440 South Oakdale ave., will begin with Bible school at 9:45 a.m. Following classes for all age groups, worship begins at 11 a.m. with a junior worship service at the same hour.

John V. Heberling, minister, will speak on "The Pattern Produced," a message in his series entitled "Practical Persuasion From Peter." Sunday's sermon will be from I Peter 3.

The message at the 7:30 p.m. service will also be a study from the book of First Peter. The title is "Problems From Peter" and Mr. Heberling will again be the speaker.

Youth groups for high schoolers, junior high schoolers and elementary school children meet at 6:30 p.m. each Sunday. This week the Senior High Group will also go as a group to the community youth sing at the First Nazarene church following evening worship.

Evangelist Hunter Continues Meetings

Central Point Meetings by Evangelist J. Q. Hunter at the Community Bible church, Fourth and Alder sts., Central Point, will continue each daily at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 1 through 10 except Saturday. The Feb. 2 service is being cancelled due to the Youth for Christ meeting that evening at the McLoughlin Junior High school in Medford.

Sunday Mr. Hunter will speak at the 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. services.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

100 Windsor Ave., 1 Block South of East Main
"Love"
Church and Sunday School Services at 11:00 a.m.
Wednesday Evening Service, 8 p.m.
You Are Always Welcome
Listen to: "The Bible Speaks To You"
Station K-SHA SUNDAYS-9:00 A.M.

Architect's Plans for New Congregational Church To Be Discussed at Meetings

Two meetings are scheduled for members of the Congregational church this week to give them the opportunity to study and discuss the architect's plans of the proposed new church.

The plans, recommended for approval by the building committee, include a new sanctuary and educational unit.

The first session will be at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. Donald McGeary, 3745 Calhoun rd., Phoenix, at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 5. It is planned particularly for the women of the church who might not have the opportunity to consider the plans at other meetings. Children will be welcome and coffee will be served.

The second meeting will be Thursday, Feb. 7, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Padgham, 2707 Springbrook rd. All adult members of the church are invited to attend this session.

Sunday Services
The members and friends of the Congregational church will meet for worship and study at 11 a.m. Sunday at the Hoover Grade school on Siskiyou blvd., just east of South Modoc rd. This is the temporary location of the church's Sunday program.

The Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the church, will preach a sermon Sunday, entitled, "Prayer — the Key to God's Power in Your Life." This is a requested sequel to the sermon Mr. Tull preached last Sunday which was called, "But Some Prayers Are Not Answered."

The morning service of worship will be held in the school's auditorium. During the worship hour, the classes of the church school will meet in other portions of the school building. Children younger than three years of age will be cared for in the school health room. The three, four and five year olds will meet in the school bandroom. Classes for the first through sixth graders will be held in the school cafeteria. And the new class for seventh, eighth and ninth grade young people will use the lobby of the school office as their meeting place.

Sunday the Pilgrim Fellowship will meet from 8 to 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Harwood, 1109 West 11th st. Mr. Tull will have the plans for the new church at the meeting for the study and discussion of the young people present.

The choir will rehearse Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Teeter, 232 South Modoc rd.

Guest Speakers Are Announced

The Rev. William L. Stephens, Salem, will be guest speaker at Bethel Assembly of God, 1225 East McAndrews rd., Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Stephens, a pastor and evangelist, has spoken at youth conventions and camp meetings. He is the past director of youth and Christian education of the Assemblies of God in Oregon.

At the 11 a.m. service, the pastor, the Rev. Lawrence D. Krause, will speak. The sermon subject will be "Divine and Human Co-operation in Man's Salvation."

Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. the Rev. Jasper Shah, evangelist from the Fiji Islands will speak. Color slides of scenes from the islands will be shown.

He will also speak at the Phoenix Assembly of God, Second and F sts., Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. The church pastor is the Rev. Harold D. McDonald.

Classes Slated At 1st Nazarene

Mrs. Lowell Shepard, director of Christian service training for the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st., has announced two classes will be given at the church during the coming weeks.

Beginning Sunday at 9:45 a.m. a class in training for Sunday school teachers will be given. Mrs. Shepard will be the instructor.

Starting Wednesday, Feb. 6, at 7:30 p.m., and running for six consecutive Wednesday nights, one hour sessions will be given on stewardship. The text is a new one written by the former manager of the Nazarene Publishing House located in Kansas City, Mo., Dr. M. Lunn, entitled "Treasures in Heaven."

The pastor, the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, will speak in the 11 a.m. service Sunday on "Now Let's Live It!" His message for the 7 p.m. service will be "Grace to Stand."

Perry Christiansen, minister of music, announced that the sanctuary choir will sing "Face to Face" during the morning service. There will also be a number by the male quartet including Rod Newman, John Finkbeiner, Walter Vail and Mr. Christiansen.

During the evening service music will include a trio by Mrs. Christiansen, Mrs. Newman, and Mrs. Cliff Shafer. Mr. and Mrs. Finkbeiner will sing a duet.

Youth Hobby Night Set at Friends

Medford Friends church will hold a Youth Hobby night program Tuesday, Feb. 5, from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

Open to junior high and teenagers, five projects are developed simultaneously: ceramics, wood carving, electronics, driver training and oil painting. Following the 45 minute period, the "hobby-nights" gather in the church fireplace room for refreshments and a brief Christian training session led by the pastor, Jack L. Willcutts.

Youth Hobby nights began last November and are held on alternating Tuesday evenings.

The Hobby Night program is one of six emphasis of the Medford Friends Youth department. Other activities are: the Sunday school young people's department, the Christian Endeavor hour, church orchestra which meets at 3 p.m. on Sundays, athletic programs, and a youth counseling program conducted by the pastor and various youth leaders of the church.

The third session of a new Bible study class will be held Sunday at 6:30 p.m. in the church fireplace room. More than 40 adults are enrolled in the informal study program which precedes the evening service.

A panoramic study of the entire Bible will be made between New Year's and Easter, according to the pastor, who teaches the class. Each of the 26 Sunday school teachers is to attend at least eight of the sessions as part of a teacher training program.

Servicemen Sunday Observance Set

Servicemen's Sunday will be observed at the Free Methodist church Feb. 3, in cooperation with other churches throughout the United States and Canada. This occasion is sponsored annually by the servicemen's department of the church.

Through this department, which Robert A. Crandall is director, the church sends the church and youth literature to service personnel who wish to receive it. In addition, hundreds of personal letters of counsel are written by the servicemen's director.

During the morning worship service the pastor, the Rev. Roland Stewart will speak on the subject "The Most Valuable Virtue." Four members of the youth group, Ron Calkins, Royal Harger, Alice May Harger and Merrie Marsh will present a mixed quartet number.

UNITARIAN FELLOWSHIP

The Rogue Valley Unitarian Fellowship, which meets each Sunday at the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne ave., at 11 a.m., will hear an address Sunday by Harlan P. Bosworth Jr. His topic will be "The Crucial Test of Humanity-Atoms for Annihilation or Atoms for Peace."

UNITY
Corner Holly and Haven Streets
Affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo.
REV. KATHARINE BOSWORTH, Minister
Worship Hour — 11:15 a.m.
"All Sufficiency in All Things"
2 Corinthians 9:8
Sunday School, Youth of Unity, Adult Bible Class 9:45 a.m.
Office open daily, Monday thru Friday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
995 S. Oakdale Ave. — Phone 772-6902 — Everyone Welcome

1957 Award of Merit Winner

Minister's Father Is Guest Speaker

The Rev. B. Ross Evans will be the guest speaker at the First Christian church Sunday morning. His sermon subject is "The Impressive Response."

Mr. Evans who is the father of the minister of the church, was the state evangelist for Christian churches in Oregon for 17 years. Since his retirement he has held many ad interim pastorates throughout the state. He is in Medford to conduct an all-church calling program which will begin Feb. 11 and continue for eight weeks.

At the first service the youth choir will sing "Draw Thou My Soul, O Christ." The combined chancel and carillon choirs will sing "Come Christian, Join To Sing" at the 10:55 a.m. service.

At 12:30 p.m. following the second worship service, there will be an all-church fellowship dinner. A presentation of the United Outreach program of the State of Oregon will be given by Dr. Ward Rice and Miss Hattie Mitchell. Dr. Rice, a former minister here, is a professor at Northwest Christian college in Eugene. Miss Mitchell is a retired missionary, having served in Africa for many years.

Raymond North will lead the Chi Rho Fellowship study at 6 p.m. on an evaluation of their series of studies on the responsibilities of freedom. Pat Evans has charge of the worship period.

The Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans will speak at the Middlers Fellowship meeting at 6 p.m. Mary Bannister will give the devotions. Saturday the Middlers will sponsor a baked food sale at the Piggly Wiggly Market.

Charles Williams will lead the Christian Youth Fellowship study at 6:30 p.m. Monte Cook will give devotions. Saturday the CYF will have a Valentine snow party.

THE REV. B. ROSS EVANS Retired Evangelist

Unity Subject Is Announced

The Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of the Unity church of Medford, Holly and Haven sts., will have for the subject of her lesson, at the 11:15 a.m. Sunday service, "All Sufficiency in All Things." The text is taken from 2 Corinthians 9:8.

This is the first of a series of four lessons on Prosperity. Steve Whipple will be guest organist. Mrs. H. H. Bresse will sing "If I Gained the World" by Olander.

The prayer ministry will meet Wednesday, Feb. 6 at 11 a.m. at the Unity church. Those attending are to take their lunch. At 1 p.m. the study class will meet.

Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Unity center, a study class will begin lessons in the Unity book "How to Live a Prosperous Life" by Catherine Ponder.

Grants Pass class will meet Tuesday, Feb. 5, at 7:30 p.m. at 200 Lewis st. The Ashland class will meet Thursday, Feb. 7, at 2 p.m. in the Ashland Women's Civic clubhouse, Winburn Way.

Unity church of Medford is an affiliate of the Unity School of Christianity at Lee's Summit, Mo.

Baptist Subject Noted for Sunday

"Divorce Is Not the Answer" is the message to be brought at the 11 a.m. service of the First Baptist church Sunday, according to the pastor, the Rev. Bernard E. Andrews. The services of the church are held in the auditorium of the Wilson school, Grand and Corona aves. The chapel choir will sing and Maynard Hadley will be soloist.

A complete Sunday school program is conducted at 9:40 a.m. with Fred Landers as superintendent. A family hour is held at 6 p.m. at which time various groups of young people meet for training and inspiration. An adult class in teaching techniques is also taught at this hour.

At the 7 p.m. service the pastor will speak on the subject, "Servant of Jehovah." A cello solo will be presented by Caroline Grant.

Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Andrews will lead the congregation in a study of the Gospel of Mark. A complete study of the New Testament is being made through this year.

The youth of the church will participate in a Valentine banquet at Kim's restaurant on Friday evening with the youth from First Baptist church, Ashland.

Theme for Months Noted by Witnesses

The theme for the month of February for Jehovah's Witnesses, "Proving Ourselves Approved By Accepting Responsibility," will be highlighted at the Friday evening service meeting and ministry school by talks given dealing with this theme. Meetings will begin at 7:30 p.m.

A public Bible lecture will be given Sunday at 4 p.m. and will be followed by a study in the Watchtower entitled "To Preserve Your Souls Alive. Have Faith!" showing examples of faithful men in Bible history.

Tuesday at 8 p.m. Joe F. Nixon will speak on "War in Heaven Brings Peace to the Earth."

Christian Science Topic To Be 'Love'

The answer to humanity's most perplexing problems will be stressed in a lesson-sermon on "Love," Sunday at 11 a.m. at First Church of Christ, Scientists, 100 Windsor ave.

The Bible readings will be from I John 4:7.

Persons up to the age of 20 are invited to attend Sunday school. All are welcome to the services.

The MEDFORD ALLIANCE CHURCH Welcomes You
Lincoln School Auditorium—608 N. Bartlett
SERVICES:
Sunday School 9:45 A.M.
Morning Worship 11:00 A.M.
Youth Service 6:00 P.M.
Evening Service 7:00 P.M.
Mid-week Service—7:30 P.M. Wednesday
(Place announced each week)
"There is a real and positive help for your every problem"

Presbyterians Note Events At Two Medford Churches

For the next few weeks Dr. D. Kirkland West will present a sermon series on the Gospel of Luke at the First Presbyterian church, using as his theme this week, "Temptations and How To Meet Them."

Feb. 10 the title will be, "The Cost of Discipleship" and on Feb. 17, "Are You a Fruitful Christian?"

The junior high choir will sing, "My God and King" for the 9:30 a.m. service. Mrs. Victor Birdseye will direct the choir with Greg Smith, at the organ. The chancel choir will sing for the second service.

Junior High Fellowship meets each Tuesday after school for church school, dinner and fellowship. The Senior High Fellowship will return from a winter retreat to Santiam lodge at 10:30 a.m. Sunday.

The public is invited to attend a Sunday evening vesper service at the church at 5 p.m. presented by Westminster Guild, Jason Grable of Southern Oregon college will be at the organ and Mrs. Rose Ellen Uhren will be heard in a contralto solo. A film, "Time To Act," will be shown. Mrs. Robert Brewer will give the welcoming address and Mrs. Eloise Winkelbleck the Scripture.

School Plans To Be Made Sunday

The Eastwood Baptist school of missions committee, headed by Dan Little, met recently to complete plans for the school to be held Sunday evenings, Feb. 24 to March 24. The theme will be "The Church's Mission to Persons of Special Need." Each church group will be asked to adopt an individual or group whom they can help.

At Eastwood's Sunday morning worship service, the pastor, the Rev. Clifford J. Young, will speak on: "The Paralytic," using Mark 2:1-2, as his scriptural background. The chancel choir will sing "Come, Ye Disconsolate," by Thomas Moore. Communion will be served.

The Junior High Baptist Youth Fellowship will meet at 6 p.m. President David White announced that plans will be made to take a day's outing to Mt. Shasta on Feb. 18. The Senior High BYF plans to leave after the morning service to go ice skating at Hyatt lake.

At the 7:30 p.m. service the pastor's message will be "Matthew" based on Mark 2:13-16. At 4 p.m. Wednesday the Senior Highs meet for Study 'n Sup. I Corinthians 12 will be studied at the Wednesday mid-week service.

Okinawa To Be Discussion Topic

The Asian Study group at St. Luke's Methodist church will turn to a discussion of Okinawa and the problems of the Ryukyus when the group meets at the church Sunday at 7 p.m.

The discussion leader for the evening will be Robert Kyle, Arrangements for the study are under the direction of Mrs. Clarence Byrd, chairman of the commission on missions and social concerns.

Sunday morning the Rev. Charles R. McDonald, pastor, will continue his series of sermons on the Book of Amos. He will preach on the theme "Amos: Prophet to the End."

During the week the members of the youth choir met to elect officers and choose a name for their choir. The name selected was Altar choir.

Elected were Linda Reed, president; Susan Shepard, vice president; Bill Beardsley, secretary; Ron Gressett, librarian; and Monte Williams, telephone chairman.

The altar choir sings at morning worship on the second Sunday of each month. Mrs. Claude Griffin is the director and Mrs. McDonald serves as organist.

Lord's Supper To Be Observed Sunday

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed Sunday at the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, under the direction of Pastor Harley J. Davidson, at the 11 a.m. service.

The church follows the practice of close communion but, while this is true, anyone may attend the service.

The 9:45 a.m. adult class will begin a new lesson series Sunday, continuing their studies of the book of Mormon for our day. Harvey Gabberry is teaching "the class."

The Zion's League (Youth organization of the church) have a snow party scheduled for Sunday afternoon. Leader Tom Schuyler will chaperone the group to Union Creek.

D. Blair Jensen, an apostle for the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, will visit the Medford congregation next week. The Apostolic Quorum is the leading missionary arm of the church. The Apostle will continue on to Eugene for the Spring conference, Feb. 9 and 10, where he will conduct classes and preside over the district business meeting.

New Members for Valley View Church

Five new members were added to the Valley View Seventh-day church, by baptism Saturday.

Arvin Winkle, pastor, officiated at the baptism, assisted by Evangelist Duane Corwin and Elder Reuben Hubbard.

Mr. Corwin said, 27 new members have been added to the Seventh-day Adventist churches in the valley, since the start of his evangelistic campaign, and that about the same number are preparing for baptism in the future.

Southern Baptists Announce Sermons

"Father, Lord of Nature," will be the topic that the Rev. G. O. Skaar, pastor of First Southern Baptist church, will have for his sermon Sunday morning. The adult choir, directed by Dennis Sampels, will sing.

At 6:30 p.m. the pastor will continue his series of sermons on basic Bible beliefs. "Forgiveness of Sins" will be his topic. The youth choir will sing.

The February theme for the Adult Training Union classes will be to learn of the history, basic doctrines and the meaning of, and justification for the denominations in America. Classes convene at 3:30 p.m. Mrs. Mary Margaret House is adult assembly leader. A nursery is provided for children under the age of four years at all services.

ST. LUKE'S METHODIST CHURCH
Rev. Charles McDonald
Pastor
CHURCH SCHOOL 9:45 a.m.
CHURCH 11:00 a.m.
2940 SISKIYOU Blvd.

CHURCH NEWS
National Religious Publicity Council

ST. LUKE'S METHODIST CHURCH
Rev. Charles McDonald
Pastor
CHURCH SCHOOL 9:45 a.m.
CHURCH 11:00 a.m.
2940 SISKIYOU Blvd.

STUDY TO SHOW YOURSELF APPROVED
2nd Tim. 2:15

Pick Up Your 1963 LESSON COMMENTARY Now!
EVANGEL CENTER
230 So. Central

SUNDAY February 3rd 1963
9:30 & 11:00 a.m.
Sermons: "Temptations and How To Meet Them"
Dr. D. Kirkland West

First PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Eighth and Holly
DR. D. KIRKLAND WEST, Pastor

'Christian Faith' To Be Subject

"Christian Faith-1963" will be the subject of Dr. George Roseberry's sermon Sunday at First Methodist church.

Mrs. D. G. MacDougall will sing "O Lord Most Holy" by Franck at both morning worship services. The youth choir will sing "Praise Ye the Father" at 9:30 a.m. and the chancel choir will sing "Sing Alleluia Forth" at 11 a.m.

The School of Missions, in its fourth week, will be led by Omar Bacon on "Taiwan" from "On the Rim of East Asia". The snack supper will be served by the Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship group and the devotions will be by Mrs. George L. Watson and Miss Voda Brower.

The Rev. Gerald Nelson will start a Youth Bible study class for Senior High students on the book of Romans Wednesday at 5 p.m. It will be followed by a snack supper. All youth of high school age are invited to attend.

Boy Scout Troop 7 will have a father-son venison dinner Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. It will be cooked by the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

The chancel and youth choirs will present the Oratorio by A. R. Gaul, "The Holy City," on Palm Sunday evening. Rehearsals will be each Wednesday. All singers interested are welcome to join. For information contact Mrs. Adamson at 772-2934.

Camp Meeting Slated for Ashland

Ashland — A camp meeting is scheduled at the Faith Tabernacle, Highway 99 one mile south of Ashland, Feb. 3 through 17, according to the Rev. Leo C. Wine.

Three services will be held daily at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 and 7:30 p.m.

On Sundays the evening service is at 7 o'clock. Two meals will be provided, those attending are to take their own bedding or sleeping bag.

Speakers will be the Rev. Kenneth Win, Tieton, Wash., Feb. 3 through 17; Evangelist Alfred Gronan, Norwegian evangelist, Feb. 3 and 4; the Rev. Joe Morse, Sacramento, Calif., Feb. 5 and 6; the Rev. David du Plessis, Feb. 7 through 9; the Rev. Wayne Butchart, Y a k i m a, Wash., Feb. 9 through 12; the Rev. Gerald Derstine, Sarasota, Fla., Feb. 13 through 17; and the Rev. Gordon Lindsay, editor of the Voice of Healing magazine, Feb. 17.

Others who will speak during the two week meeting will be Mrs. Ben Peters, the Rev. Henry Katz, the Rev. E. J. Wine, and the Rev. V. K. Wine.

First Baptist Church

Conservative-Fundamental
On the Air KBOY 11 a.m.

B. E. Andrews, Pastor
Byron Evans, Youth Dir.
Meeting Temporarily at WILSON SCHOOL Grand & Corona
SUNDAY, JAN. 20
9:40 A.M.
Sunday School for All
11:00 A.M.
"Divorce Is Not the Answer"
7:00 P.M.
"The Servant of Jehovah"
Wednesday
"Through the New Testament in 1963"

Let Us Worship Together

YOU will like the reverent atmosphere of our church, the friendly spirit of our people.
VISITORS ALWAYS WELCOME