Samperts Announce Marriage

News of the marriage of Miss Penelope Lynn Sampert and Jerry Dale Scribner was received in the valley last week. The bride and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sampert, 2605 Ridge road, Berkeley, Calif., formerly were Medford residents. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Scribner of the Tachikawa Air base in Japan.

The ceremony was read at 12 noon, December 9 by Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb, of the Corvallis First Methodist church in the Berkeley, Calif., Trinity Methodist church. Dr. Balcomb formerly was a minister of the Medford First Methodist church and is a friend of the Sampert family. He was serving as a guest minister in the Berkeley church at the time of the ceremony. The bride chose her wedding date to coincide with Dr. Balcomb's visit to the Berkeley church, and the rites were read immediately following the morning worship.

Mr. Sampert gave his daughter in marriage. Mrs. Scribner flew from Tokyo, Japan, to be present for the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and the bridegroom was graduated from the Yamato High school in Tachikawa, Japan. He also attended the University of Florida at Gainesville, Fla. Both are students at the University of California, Berkeley, and plan to continue their education there. The bride is a major in art studies and the bridegroom is a political science major.

They are living at 2525 LeConte, Berkeley, Calif.

Christensen-Harbolt Ceremony in Kentucky

A wedding of interest in Medford was held January 27 in Elizabethtown, Ky., when Miss Beverly LaVon Harbolt of that city became the bride of Richard Leon Christensen, Fort Knox, Ky. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin D. Christensen, 125 Clover lane, Medford, who traveled east for the ceremony.

The service was held in the Seventh-day Adventist church at four o'clock in the afternoon. Officiating was Elder A. D. McKee, Portland, Tenn., chaplain of the Highland Sanatorium and hospital. Some 125 relatives and friends attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Harbolt, Elizabethtown.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of Alencon lace over taffeta fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves, sweetheart neckline and cummerbund of silk organza. A silk organza overskirt formed a chapel train and her veil of French illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls and sequins.

Carries Orchid Her bouquet was a white orchid with purple throat encircled by white carnations and greenery.

Mrs. Doran Harbolt, Elizabethtown, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. James Tillman, Collegedale, Tenn., and Miss Gloria McComb, Hamilton, Ga. They wore frocks of aquamarine peau de fran styled as the bride's. Their headresses were of silk organza with tulle veils and they carried cascade bouquets of yellow carnations and greenery.

Flower girls were Nancy Clair and Shirley Ann Harbolt, nieces of the bride. Candelights were Miss Connie Sue Buckles and Miss Brenda Lou Vertrees, cousins of the bride.

Wesley E. Meyers served as best man. Seating the guests were Gilbert Wilks, Fort Knox, Ky., and James E. Tillman, Collegedale, Tenn.

Miss Patricia Ricks, Tallahassee, Fla., was organist and Miss Frances McKee, Portland, Tenn., and Miss Montience Dillard, Rineyville, Ky., were soloists. White gladioli and greenery and white candles in candelabra decorated the church.

Gowns Described

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at the Brown-Pusey House, Mrs. Harbolt wore a silver-gray brocade sheath dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Christensen chose a beige brocade sheath dress with brown accessories. Their corsages were pink carnations.

Mrs. William Asher and Mrs. Frank Meyers cut and served the wedding cake at the reception and Mrs. Gilbert Wilks presided at the punch
