Persons Trampled To Death Sunday

Granadilla, Canary Islands — (UPI) — Twenty-three persons were trampled to death and more than 100 injured Sunday when a crowd of farm men and women stampeded from a building they thought was collapsing.

Eighteen of the dead were women. Most of the victims were crushed in a tremendous jam of writhing human beings trying to get out the main door.

"It looked like a snake pit," said Francisco Delgado Martin, a city policeman who was on duty in the building.

The building was an old wooden structure that once had served as a monastery. The crowd had come in from surrounding farms to get national identity cards.

More than 200 persons were jammed into the structure when it gave a sudden creak and large cracks appeared in the walls. Recent rains had weakened the foundation.
