

Chief Tutor Hands Over Resignation

Seattle - (UPI) - Vince Cazzetta, popular and successful basketball coach at Seattle University, kept his eyes on an NCAA tournament bid for his team today despite the furor over his sudden resignation.

"I'm sure we'll continue our winning ways the rest of the year and we plan to make it to the tournament," he said Wednesday shortly after announcing his resignation. "I know the boys will battle hard."

"After that, I can't foretell the future. But I wish the school only the very best of success in the future."

Cazzetta in his statement charged the school's athletic director, Eddie O'Brien, a former Chief team star, with "interference" in the operation of the school's basketball program.

Hardest Thing
Before sending his letter of resignation to The Very Rev. A. S. Lemieux, S.J., president of the school, Cazzetta broke the news to his team.

"It was the hardest thing I ever had to do," he said.

Cazzetta's letter said in part that "O'Brien repeatedly erected roadblocks, either by accident or design, that have had a stifling effect and made my position both untenable and uncomfortable."

University officials denied such interference had taken place. O'Brien, who teamed with his twin brother Johnny to catapult the Chiefs into national basketball prominence, denied he had interfered in basketball recruiting and said scheduling always has been the coach's job, subject to the approval of the athletic director.

O'Brien said the basic problem was that Cazzetta had given the university "an ultimatum" to change its policies and set up the basketball coach separate from the athletic director.

Great Field At Phoenix

Phoenix, Ariz. - (UPI) - One of the greatest fields in the 28-year history of the Phoenix Open Golf tournament teed off today with defending champion Arnold Palmer, National Open champion Jack Nicklaus and PGA king Gary Player rated as the men to beat.

It was the first round of a 72-hole tournament, played on one course, the flat, tree-lined Arizona Country club.

The pros aren't beefing, because they are used to all types of courses. But there will be some trouble on the greens here. Because of a plant disease, most of the greens were lost during the winter and these have been brought along in the last two months to a playable condition.

Ashland, Medford Cagers Vie Friday

Coach George Keil and, perhaps, his Ashland Grizzlies, too, would prefer to be playing someone else this Friday night. But, since the schedule calls for the Ashlanders to come to Medford, the Bruins will content themselves with an effort to make it two in a row in basketball over the Black Tornado.

The two teams clash at 8:15 p.m. at the Hedrick gym. It will be the first of two Southern Oregon conference assignments on the week end for each team. Medford will go to Grants Pass on Saturday while Ashland will entertain Klamath Falls.

"We'd like to beat Medford twice in a row to prove a point . . . that the first one was no fluke," said Keil. "We'll be there Friday," he added.

The Ashland mentor said that it appears his Bruins will be a lot stronger physically this week - and mentally, too - than they were for last Saturday's game with Medford.

While the triumph over the Tornado, Ashland's first conference win in 58 games, left the Grizzlies somewhat mentally tired, Keil noted a lot more poise and confidence this week - and Bruin shooting has picked up.

The Grizzlies, 1-7 in league play, took it easy on Monday but had hard drills on Tuesday and Wednesday. Ashlanders are working against a full court press and against zone defense "trying to be ready for any eventuality."

"Run of the mill" practices have been reported this week by Medford mentor Frank Roelandt. They are in between the tough ones of a couple of weeks ago and the easy ones of last week.

Roelandt said that he has been working Rich Benner, still wearing a cast on his left arm, in as the third big man or in place of the third little man. "He may even start this week, I don't know," said the skipper.

Benner will still have the cast on at least through this week end.

Mike Barnes has missed practices this week because of a cold and Darryl Stockton missed drills through yesterday because of being in Portland for Naval reserve officer training corps exams.

Medford, 3-5 in the loop.

Tripleheader Boxing Bargain

Los Angeles - (UPI) - The Olympic Boxing Club's triple championship fight card, set March 16 at Dodger Stadium, shapes up as the year's best boxing bargain, but one not without precedent.

The card, announced Wednesday by promoters Cal and Aileen Eaton and matchmaker George Parnassus, will pit welterweight champion Emile Griffith and feather king Davey Moore against their leading contenders, and former junior welterweight titleholder Eddie Perkins against Raymond (Batling) Torres for the vacant 140-pound crown.

Griffith will face Cuban Luis Rodriguez in the nationally televised feature and Moore will tangle with knock-out-artist Ultintino (Sugar) Ramos, another Cuban.

Back on September 23, 1957, in New York's Polo Grounds, Mike Jacobs presented boxing's greatest extravaganza and one of its most disappointing financial flops - the carnival of champions.

Jacobs' promotion had three world championship bouts, and a fourth - between middleweights Fred Apostoli and France's Marcel Thil - received European recognition as a title fight.

EX-CHAMP IMPROVES
El Centro, Calif. - (UPI) - Former world bantam weight champion Manuel Ortiz will have to remain in the hospital a while longer although he said Thursday that he was feeling fine and "ready to go home." The 46-year-old ex-champ almost died following abdominal surgery for a gastric hemorrhage Jan. 25.

University of Oregon, Eugene - Oregon's dangerous Ducks, fresh from a two-game split with powerful California at Berkeley, invade Moscow Friday and Saturday to battle Idaho and fabled Gus Johnson.

The Webfoots head into the two-game series with a 7-9 record, while the Vandals are 13-3, the best mark of any Northwest independent.

Duck coach Steve Belko hasn't disclosed his starting lineup for the series opener, but most experts are guessing he'll stick with the same group which pulled out the 60-55 win over California last week.

That unit lists 6-5 Steve Jones and 6-4 Jerry Anderson at forwards, 6-7 Glenn Moore at center and 5-11 Bob Yates and 6-2 Elliott Gleason at guards.

Probable Idaho starters are the fantastic Johnson at center, Tom Whitfield and Chuck White at forwards and Rich Porter and Lyle Parks at guards.

Gill Names OSU Crew
Corvallis - (UPI) - Coach Slat Gill of Oregon State indicated today he would start Terry Baker, Jim Kraus, Mel Counts, Frank Peters and Jim Jarvis against the Portland Pilots in Portland Friday night.

Steve Pauly would be the top-line reserve. These six players went all the way in last week's 66-60 win over Seattle.

Baker is expected to be able to play despite a sore toe. The Beavers and Pilots meet here Saturday night.

Joe DiMaggio Named in Suit
Indio, Calif. - (UPI) - Joe DiMaggio, former New York Yankee baseball great, has been named in a $30,000 damage suit charging him with issuing a bad check.

The suit was filed by Sherman Harris, owner of a steak house in nearby Palm Springs, at Riverside County superior court Friday. The suit stated DiMaggio signed a $7,000 check at the restaurant Jan. 10 and it was returned by a New York bank because of insufficient funds.

Harris maintained the check was made out to DiMaggio's friend, B. H. Bryn, who cashed the check, and that the former Yankee star "intentionally misrepresented the check . . . to deceive and defraud."

In the suit, Harris said both men were informed of the returned check "but they refused and neglected to pay."
