Ashland Man Plans To Attend Meeting

Ashland—Don Cowan, secretary of the Ashland YMCA, will be in Fresno, Calif., this week end to attend the 26th national convention of YMCA Indian Guides. The three-day session will include workshops on family life led by Dr. Gerald White, head of the social science division of San Francisco State college. The Ashland Y now has three Indian Guide groups made up of boys between 6 and 9 years old and their fathers. The movement affords a closer relationship between fathers and sons and has been proved one of the most popular and successful of all YMCA activities.

AUTO GARAGE

Sacramento, Calif. — (UPI) — Assemblyman Frank Belotti has introduced a bill in the state legislature to have abandoned autos classified as garbage. Belotti said he understood that state law allowed any person to wreck three personal cars a year if he wishes — and they are not prohibited from strewing them on public domain. Scattering garbage is unlawful.

SEXY TWIST

Beverly, Mass. — (UPI) — The Beverly Licensing Commission, which last fall banned belly dancers at night clubs, Wednesday outlawed all floor shows except for dance orchestras and dancing. "If you ban belly dancers, how can you ignore a sexy girl doing a twist?" a spokesman asked.

Committee Tours Eastern Oregon

Salem — (UPI) — Most of the members of the Ways and Means Committee left here today for a two-day tour of Eastern Oregon. The powerful budget committee planned to visit several spots, including the State Hospital at Pendleton, Pendleton Community College, Mid-Columbia Home at The Dalles, Eastern Oregon College, and the proposed Boardman Industrial Park area. Committee members planned to stay Friday and Saturday nights at Pendleton. Rep. Jack Smith (D-Condor) accompanied the group to his district.

4-H NEWS

Lake Creek Club
The second meeting of the Lake Creek Eyes and Knives 4-H club was held at the home of Mrs. Ed Armitage. Twelve members attended. New members are Linda and Marie Chastain. Laura Mae Noble, Linda Armitage and Sue Harper gave a cooking demonstration on "measuring utensils and how to use them." Elaine Meyer, Cheryl Stanley, and Becky Waich gave a demonstration on "sewing equipment and what it is used for." Mrs. Wilma Armitage and Mrs. Velma Noble told us what our project requirements will be. Mary Ann Gardner read a letter from the grandparents of Mary Jane Imperatrice thanking our club for its thoughtfulness in their time of sorrow. The next meeting will be held at the home of Elaine and Gloria Meyer Feb. 9, at 1 p.m. Gail Perry, Reporter

Drill Team Plans Demonstration in GP

Grants Pass — Grants Pass residents will get a preview of San Francisco's Chinese New Year parade tonight when the Seattle Chinese Community Drill Team will stage a demonstration on a downtown street here. The team, composed of 42 girls between 14 and 17 years old, took first honors in drill team exhibition at the Seattle World's Fair. They are en route to San Francisco to take part in the New Year's parade Saturday and to honor the new Miss Chinatown. The group will spend Thursday night in Grants Pass under the auspices of the Grants Pass Kiwanis club, with local restaurateur Kee Ng as host. The demonstration will be at 8 p.m. on 6th st. between D and E sts. here.

LOSE DIGIT BATTLE
Los Angeles — (UPI) — A band of citizens lost another round Wednesday in their battle against all-digit telephone dialing. The state Public Utilities Commission turned down the group's move to prevent the Pacific Telephone Co. from distributing a San Fernando Valley directory which lists subscribers by digits without a letter prefix. The PUC said the plaintiffs failed to show they would "suffer real and substantial injury."

DONATE WOOLENS
New Delhi — (UPI) — The Greek army today gave one thousand each of woolen sweaters, mufflers and socks to the Indian army for use on the Himalayan frontier with China.
