Refreshments in the valentine theme were served after the play by Mrs. Jack Mitchell.

Group to Meet On Wednesday

The Shakespeare Interest group sponsored by Medford branch, American Association of University Women, will meet Wednesday, February 13, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John Strong, 2120 Woodlawn drive.

The play "Henry V" will be discussed by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Nelson, Mrs. James Shoemaker, Mrs. Frank Mee, and Mrs. John Simon. All interested persons are invited to attend. Further information about the group may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Robert Wilcox, 864-1427, the interest group chairman.

Due to conflicts in acquiring the desired speaker, the Antiques Interest group meeting will be postponed until Tuesday, February 26. More details will be announced later.

Leonard B. Smith, Detroit, Mich., professional cornet soloist and band leader, will be featured soloist with the Ashland High school symphonic band in a concert planned for Thursday, February 14, in the school gymnasium. It will begin at 7:30 p.m. Raoul G. Maddox, band director, states that the guest musician, considered by many to be the nation's finest cornetist, will play several cornet solos. The program will also include serious and light band music from all periods of music literature. The public is invited to attend the concert for which a modest charge will be made.

Miss Phyllis Epley

News Received Of Engagement

Hornbrook—Of interest locally is the announcement made recently by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Epley of San Jose, Calif., of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Phyllis Vanetta Epley, to Leonard A. Bear, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank X. Bear of Hornbrook.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Willow Glen High school in San Jose, and is a physical education major at San Jose City college.

Her fiancé is a graduate of O'Dea High school in Seattle, Wash., and has completed two years at Southern Oregon college, Ashland. He has completed his tour of active duty with the Army, and is a farmer in the Hornbrook area.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Return Home

Hornbrook — Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson returned this week to their home in Athabasca, Alberta, Canada, after a visit of two months here with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Johnson. The local couple accompanied their visitors as far north as Oregon City, returning to Hornbrook on Wednesday.

Pythian Official To Visit Local Lodge Tuesday

Members of Talisman lodge, Knight of Pythias, of Medford will gather at the Pythian building Tuesday, to honor Oregon Grand Chancellor Knights of Pythias Marvin A. Emerson, Forest Grove, Chancellor Commander of the local lodge is Charles A. Lasher.

Plans are to be discussed for the international celebration of 100 years of service. The lodge charter was granted by an act of Congress and signed by President Abraham Lincoln on February 19, 1864.

Among the lodge's projects are the annual high school students public speaking contest, highway courtesy and poster contests for grade school children, little league baseball teams, Boy Scouts, the junior order of Knights of Pythias for youth from 13 to 18, and assistance to the Pythian Sister temples who sponsor the order of Sunshine Girls.

Grand Chancellor Emerson will be in Grants Pass Wednesday for an official visit to Thermopylae lodge.

A coffee and social hour will follow both meetings.

Latin American Trip on Program

Miss Irma Barnes of Rogue Valley Manor will speak of a recent trip to Latin America at a meeting of the Women's Fellowship of the Medford Congregational church Thursday, February 14. The session will be held from 12 noon to 3 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Padgham, 2747 Springbrook road.

Once again the plans for the proposed new church will be available for study of those present.

Luncheons Planned By Democrats

The Eleanor Roosevelt league will hold the first of a series of monthly luncheon meetings at the Colony restaurant, Fourth and Front streets, Medford, Thursday, February 14 beginning at 12:30 p.m. according to Mrs. Frank Christian, Talent, president.

The report of the nominating committee and election of officers for this year will be held at the meeting. Mrs. Christian urged members to attend and said any women interested in joining the league are invited to come to the luncheon.

The decorations committee will use the St. Valentine's day motif in table decor and favors, and any one wishing to exchange valentines with members or to leave them to be sent to members who are ill, are welcome to do so, she said.

Mrs. Ralph Poston asks members and all other Democratic women and their friends to save articles for the Eleanor Roosevelt league rummage sale set for Tuesday, March 12 at the Fehll building. Proceeds from the sale will be allocated to the Democratic state quota, she said.

Card Party Announced

Medford Junior Service league is planning a dessert card party at the Girls' Community club on Wednesday, February 20 at 1 p.m.

All interested women are invited to join in this birthday party planned in observance of the founding of the league's kindergarten for the hard of hearing.

Mrs. Henry Boehnke and Mrs. Don McNeil are co-chairmen for the event, and Mrs. Donald McGeary and Mrs. John Weisel are arranging for dessert to be served.

Cards will be available for bridge, canasta, or pinocle. For reservations those interested may call Mrs. Robert Hood, dial 773-2722.

Program Slated

Phoenix-Slides will be shown at a meeting of the Women's association, Phoenix Presbyterian church, Tuesday, February 12, at 10 a.m. at the church.

First of a series of four programs on Asia's rim will be given. Mrs. George Breeze, Medford, will show slides of the rim area. Mrs. Marvin Williams will present a map study of the area and Mrs. Aiko Briles from Japan will also take part in the program.

A potluck luncheon will be served at noon followed by the circle study at 1 p.m. Mrs. William Saladin will lead the circle study with the theme "God Chooses a People." Everyone is invited to attend the entire meeting or any portion.

Mrs. Marvin Williams is serving as missionary chairman for the Phoenix Presbyterian church.

Ladies Day Announced For Shasta Ski Bowl

Medford area and Ashland women are invited to participate in a Ladies Day program at Mount Shasta Ski bowl Wednesday, February 13. A chartered bus will leave the Medford Greyhound bus depot at 8 a.m. A trip planned last Wednesday was cancelled because of inclement weather.

The Ladies Day program is sponsored by the ski bowl management and ski lessons and use of the rope tow are furnished them without charge, it is stated. All women skiers from beginners to experts are invited to take part in the activity. Sightseers also are invited. A nominal charge is made for the bus trip.

Tryouts Announced

Footlighters will have tryouts for a new play, "Five Finger Exercise" by Peter Shaffer, on Monday and Tuesday, February 11 and 12 at 8 p.m. at the Fairgrounds theater.

The play, a drama, will be directed by Frank Buchter. Mr. Buchter has expressed the idea that it would be interesting to cast this play with all new people. Therefore, anyone in Medford or the surrounding area is invited to try out for a role or otherwise help with the play.

Footlighters suggest that "since it is too early for spring housecleaning or yardwork, this is a good time to take part in a play."

For more information please call 772-5096 daytime.

Group Leader Is Librarian

Omar Bacon, librarian of Public Library of Medford and Jackson county, will conduct the Wednesday, February 13, meeting of the Great Decisions program at the First Methodist church.

The session will be on Red China and the USSR, according to Miss Voda Brower, chairman of the series. She said that soup and coffee are furnished and interested persons are invited to take their sandwiches.

The sessions are geared to employed persons who have a limited noon hour. The meeting starts promptly at noon and continues for 50 minutes.
