Society Island Tour Slides To Be Shown; Classes Set

Jesse Anderson, Ashland, who made an extensive trip by jet plane last fall to New Zealand and Australia, will show colored slides of the first part of the tour called "Through the Lens" for professional and amateur photographers, on Monday, February 11, at the Senior Activity center starting at 1 p.m.

This show for the Arm Chair Travelers group will cover stops at the Society island group including Tahiti, Bora Bora and Moorea, then westward to the Fiji Islands and south to the Isle of Pines, New Caledonia. Trips between islands were made by plane, motor boat, and native outrigger sailboats and pictures will be shown of native ceremonies, dancing, and festival feasts.

Later in the month, Mr. Anderson will continue the show with pictures of New Zealand and Australia.

These weekly travel shows are open to any senior as the Arm Chair travel group is not a closed group. The Senior center, at 601 East Jackson street, is sponsored by the Rogue Valley Council on Aging, in part of a park building, maintained by the city for the purpose of promoting leisure time programs and classes for all persons over 50 who wish to participate.

There are no charges and the six-day activities from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, except Friday, are planned and carried out by volunteers.

Informal Classes

Classes are informal and may be entered at any time during the year.

The copper tooling, mosaic, and oil painting class members who wish to exhibit their craft and painting at the annual meeting of the Rogue Valley Council on Aging on Thursday, February 21, at the Red Cross auditorium, are asked to complete some work in the next two weeks for this purpose. The time and plans will be announced.

The two newest programs, the bridge lessons on Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Maude Coddling, and the Singing Seniors on Sunday afternoon under the leadership of Kenneth Dorcas Society Event Fetes Longtime Member.

A potluck luncheon honoring Mrs. E. G. Davis Sr., on the occasion of her seventy-ninth birthday was held Wednesday by the Medford Seventh-day Adventist church's Dorcas society at their welfare center headquarters in the church basement.

Mrs. Davis is a longtime member of the society, and has helped in its work of preparing and distributing food, clothing, and furniture to those in need for many years.

A gift was presented to her by the society members in appreciation for her years of service.

Mr. Davis has also assisted by roping and preparing boxes packed by the society for shipping to the Watsonville, Calif., depot, where they are sent to disaster areas in the United States and overseas.

C. C. Weis, pastor of the Medford church, was a guest at the luncheon and spoke to the society members on the object and duties of the welfare organization.

At a short business session Mrs. Ralph Carothers was appointed Dorcas secretary for the current year, and Mrs. William Doidge accepted the position of treasurer.
