Stars Rated To Give Globetrotters Test

Not in some years have the famous Harlem Globetrotters of basketball been given the test they are sure to receive from the American Basketball League All-Stars when the two teams clash at Crater High school gym in Central Point Thursday night.

RON SOBIESZCZYK Coaches the Stars

Chosen to coach the stars, and also to play as one of their top aces, was Ron Sobieszczyk. He had served in this dual capacity with the Chicago Majors after several years of stardom in the National Basketball League.

While at DePaul University in Chicago Sobieszczyk gained All-American honors and ranked second only to the great George Mikan in the school's annals.

"Sobie" set to work welding his highly-ranked players into a smooth operating unit and the results have been gratifying. Not only is each man on the squad brilliant individually, but as a team they've hit the jackpot.

Others on the team with their school and 1962 ABL affiliation are John Turner, University of Louisville, Oakland Oaks; Jeff Cohen, William and Mary, Chicago Majors; George Patterson, University of Toledo, Chicago Majors; Bob Wilkinson, University of Indiana, Oakland Oaks; Roger Taylor, University of Illinois, Philadelphia Tapers, and Kelly Coleman, Kentucky Wesleyan, Chicago Majors.

General admission tickets are on sale at Lamport's Sporting Goods store in Medford and at the Crater High school office. There are no reserved seats.

Oregon State Still Tenth In Ratings; Cincinnati 1st Again

New York —UPI— Cincinnati's unbeaten Bearcats topped the United Press International major college basketball ratings for the 11th straight week today with only three weeks left before the crowning of the national champion.

The Bearcats, who extended their season streak to 19 and their over-lapping victory skinned to 37 games, again were named the No. 1 team by all 35 members of the UPI rating board. This marked the eighth week in a row that they had received perfect score of 350 points in the ratings.

Loyola of Chicago, which has won all 20 of its games this season, again was second, receiving that designation this week by 32 coaches. The Ramblers have six games left to play in the regular season, one more than the Bearcats, but both finish up on March 2.

Duke, the Atlantic Coast conference leader with a 17-2 record, again was third, while Illinois, bidding for the Big Ten title with an overall record of 17-2, remained fourth, and Arizona State U., which tops the Western Athletic conference and owns an 18-2 record, held onto fifth place.

There was a bit of shuffling in the lower half of the top 10 this week with Colorado (13-4) moving up from seventh to sixth and Mississippi State (16-4) advancing from ninth to seventh. Stanford (13-5) remained eighth, Georgia Tech

(17-3) slipped from sixth to ninth and Oregon State (13-3) clung to 10th.

The vote for the first five teams this week was so heavy that St. Joseph's (Pa.) managed to make the top 20 with just five points. Points are awarded 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 for votes from first through 10th places.

Utah State headed the second grouping, missing the top 10 by just 11 points. Ohio State, the national champion in the past two seasons, advanced from 14th to 12th and was followed in order by Texas, the UCLA conference leader, the Southwest Conference leaders, UOCLA, Oklahoma A & M State, Colorado State U., Wichita, Bradley, New York U. and St. Joseph's.
