SCHOOL NEWS

Crater High School
By KAREN GRIGGS
The championship girls basketball awards were presented recently.
Junior team award winners were Gail Ross, captain; Sharon Isaacs, Loretta Tinker, Yvonne McIvor, Gloria Thompson, Ginny Tomlinson and Elaine Tomlinson.
Winners of two all star team positions were, first team, Claudia Chase, Sue Conway, Sue Cornutt, Doris Dulaney, Jolene Greene, Sharon Isaacs, Yvonne McIvor, Gail Ross, Jan Pfaff, Carol Straus; second team, Glenda Anderson, Joyce Dye, Carol Jackel, Hanne Jacobsen, Jon McGowen, Sally Middlesworth, Gloria Thompson, and Connie Zander.

Representatives of the women's armed services were at Crater High school last week and spoke to the girls in both junior and senior classes. The girls were given the opportunity to ask questions of the representatives on careers in the Army, Air Force and Navy.
Miss Jenny Lou Thompson was awarded the "Girl of the Month" title at the Girls' League meeting recently. Jenny Lou is an active student at Crater, both in studies and activities.

The first girls' Athletic association playnight was held recently at Crater.
The players were chaperoned by Mrs. Barbara Tomlinson, French and English teacher, as GAA advisor, in the absence of Miss Nancy Purviance, who was attending a concert.

Players were Claudia Chase, chairman; Sue Conway, Lillian Colpitts, Judy Juss, Joane Helmer, Sharon Isaacs, Yvonne McIvor, Sally Middlesworth and Gail Ross.

Edited by Mary Ann Carnegie reporters, Stephanie Hollen and Anne Depner.
Representatives of the women's branches of the service spoke to junior and senior girls recently. The program included explanations of women in the armed services, the requirements and advantages a girl has in the service. They answered questions concerning basic training, pay, retirement benefits and uniforms.

An honors assembly was held recently to acknowledge the students attaining first or second honors during the second quarter of the semester.
Seniors realizing first honors were Laura Butzer, Mary Ann Carnegie, Kathy Hout, and MaryLee Lowry. Second honors were received by Mike Stinson, Jim Calhoun, Peter Naumes, Sandra Cook, Linda Lewis, Sara Robinson, Charlotte Sokolowski, Jerry Vakoc, and Annabel Turner.
Juniors Annette Burch, Pat Fellers, and Doug Vakoc received first honors. Second honors in the junior class were made by Mike Latendresse and Mike Soran. Sophomores Michelle Ely, Susie Latendresse, Marilyn Potter, Marilyn Fellers, Mary Carol Leavens, Anne Parsons, Tara Hill, Nanette Sakraida, Mary Ross, and Jeanne Rossi achieved first honors. Making second honors in the sophomore class were Martha Fitzpatrick, Anne Depner, Christine Harrison, Ron Roberts, Stephanie Hollen, Margaret Harmon, Susan Caperna, Susan Gourley, Michael Stevenson, and Joyce Jarmin.

First honors in the freshman class were achieved by Susan Naumes, Mary Louise Harmon, Marily Erb, and Jean Wehrly. Freshman Glenn Stewart, Roberta Potter, David McDonald, Mary Jacobson, Carlye Baker, and Gregory Hull made second honors.

The Challenge Trophy awarded every semester was presented to the Sophomore B class by Father Mai. The trophy is awarded to the class which achieves the highest percentage in scholarship, attendance, and promptness. The class is then engraved on a plaque hung in the office.
The Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary held a general meeting recently after school. Steve Cook gave the spiritual reading. A tentative list of delegates to the Seattle Sodality conference Feb. 23 include Pat Naumes, Tim Sakraida, Anne Depner, Michele Ely, and Dixie Duggan.
Sister Sharon Marie spoke on Sodality as connected with student vocation. This brought in such topics as honesty, truthfulness, and desire to learn. The Sodality then divided into their units and discussed the topics. Each unit made individual resolutions and will strive to carry these out during the next semester.
