Henley Expected To Sew Up Title

Henley high's Hornets aim to sew up the unshared Rogue league basketball championship this week.

The Hornets (11-0) are figured a shoo-in for the lone possession of the conference banner.

Rest of Friday's slate is Phoenix at Eagle Point, Illinois Valley at Rogue River and Lakeview at St. Mary's.

On the Saturday docket are Lakeview at Henley, St. Mary's at Rogue River and Phoenix at Sacred Heart.

St. Mary's (4-6) harbors only an outside hope to tie for second place.

Going into this week end of contention Eagle Point and Lakeview are still in the running for league co-championship.

Each may run into rugged opposition on Friday night. Phoenix (2-9) and out of the race particularly may be fired for the Eagles after out of action indefinitely. Gill is likely to start Jim Kraus, Frank Peters, Mel Counts, Jim Jarvis and Steve Pauly if Baker isn't ready.

If Terry can go, it probably will be in place of Pauly, who is geared to handle sub chores at any one of four spots on the floor.

Oregon State faces a tough defensive assignment against Glenn Moore, Jim Johnson and Steve Jones, and Jerry Anderson also is capable of having big nights. It also will mark first competition towards winning the new Chancellor's trophy, given for the first time this year by Dr. Roy conference basketball scoring manently retired the original Chancellor's trophy given by Dr. Charles D. Byrne by winning nine of 10 series since 1953.

In overall victories in that time, OSU holds a 27-12 edge.

Raiders Entertain Portland Staters

Ashtland - Suffering from illness and injuries Southern Oregon college's basket ball squad will return to its home court Friday and Saturday night to meet the Vikings of Portland State College in the final 1963 game between the two teams.

In the last meeting of the two opponents they split in two games. The Raiders downed PSC 66-50 as the home team had a slow night from the floor.

The Raiders will meet Portland without the full time assistance of two of their starters. Jerry Shults is still recovering from a sprained ankle and will not play his usual entire game. Suffering from a bad cold is senior captain Brad Flanary. He hopes to see a little action but won't be able to go the full distance.

The Raiders will play their final game of the season next Tuesday night in Ashtland against Oregon Technical Institute.

In the last meeting of the two opponents they split in two games. The Raiders downed PSC 66-50 as the home team had a slow night from the floor.

Seven members of the championship rifle team of the 2nd Battalion, 414th Regiment (BCT), were to leave for Ft. Lewis, Wash., today to vie in competition with active Army and Army Reserve men in the annual 10th Corps matches. Matches are set for Feb. 16 and 17.

Team members are 1st Lt. Donald W. Johnson and S/Sgt. Douglas C. Ustgard, Company E. Grants Pass; Capt. James E. Straus, Headquarters and Headquarters company, and 1st Lt. Robert D. Murphy, Company E, Central Point and 2nd Lt. Jack D. Pfeifer and S/Sgt. Richard J. Swinney, Company E, and Specialist Four Norman L. Hooper, Company G, Medford.

The team won the General's matches 104 Training Division competition at Camp Roberts, Calif., during last summer's encampment. Lieutenant Johnson was third high in individual scoring in his class.

Wittenberg Retains Top Place in Ratings

New York—(UPI)—The pressure was all on Wittenberg today in the race for the national small college basketball championship.

The Ohio Tigers, who topped the United Press International Board of Coaches ratings for the fifth straight week, have only one more regular-season game left to play before competing in the Ohio Conference tournament.

A mis-step now would throw the national title up for grabs because Grambling of Louisiana and Southeast Missouri, ranked second and third, respectively, are close enough to make it a three-way tussle.

New York—(UPI)—The United Press International small college basketball ratings (with first-place votes and won-lost records in parentheses) Team Points

Wittenberg 24 (16-1) 322
Grambling 2 (19-2) 251

Others (5 or more points)—Washington (Mo.) 8; Valparaiso, Jacksonville and Arkansas State 6 each; Pacific Lutheran, Stetson and Chapman 5 each.

TOE TESTED
Corvallis—(UPI)—Terry Baker tested his sore toe in a basketball workout for the first time in 12 days Wednesday and is expected to be ready to play against Oregon this week end. However, Coach Slat's Gill indicated Baker may not be in his Oregon State starting lineup when the teams meet here Friday night in the first of a two-game series. They play Saturday night at Eugene.

BAKER GETS AWARD
Corvallis—(UPI)—Terry Baker has won another award. The Oregon State athlete will be presented tonight with the National Youth Fitness award by the American Dairy Association. The trophy will be presented by Sandra Tibau of Auburn, Wash., national dairy princess, at a Memorial Union building banquet.

COACH RESIGNING
Redmond—(UPI)—Redmond High school football coach Gale Davis said Wednesday he was resigning at the end of the school year and planned to take a coaching job in the Portland area. He will be succeeded by Lorence (Doc) Savage, now track coach.

OSU Host To Oregon On Friday

Oregon State University, Corvallis - It's "Civil War" time once again in basketball, as Oregon State and Oregon square off in the first of their four-game series here Friday night. The teams play at Eugene on Saturday.

Slat's Gill's Beavers are favored to win, but Oregon State isn't likely to be caught napping this time - following last week's upset by the University of Portland Pilots.

Biggest question - mark at OSU this week is whether or not Capt. Terry Baker will be able to play against the Webfoots. He missed both of last week's games with Portland because of a toe infection, and spent three days in the college infirmary this week. Baker hasn't practiced basketball for 10 days.

Part-Time, Perhaps
Chances are he'll see at least part-time service this week end, which would serve as a big boost to Beaver hopes. Reserve center Tim Campbell won't be so fortunate, however. He wrecked his foot last week in practice and is out of action indefinitely. Gill is likely to start Jim Kraus, Frank Peters, Mel Counts, Jim Jarvis and Steve Pauly if Baker isn't ready.

If Terry can go, it probably will be in place of Pauly, who is geared to handle sub chores at any one of four spots on the floor.

Oregon State faces a tough defensive assignment against Glenn Moore, Jim Johnson and Steve Jones, and Jerry Anderson also is capable of having big nights. It also will mark first competition towards winning the new Chancellor's trophy, given for the first time this year by Dr. Roy conference basketball scoring manently retired the original Chancellor's trophy given by Dr. Charles D. Byrne by winning nine of 10 series since 1953.

Score Lead Maintained By Forde

Jack Forde, of the Medford Black Tornado, strengthened his lead in Southern Oregon conference basketball scoring with 33 points in two games last week.

He now has a total of 242 for 16 contests, 17 more than Lou Alvarez, Crater, who is in second place with 225 for 15 games. Forde has a 15.1 points per game average and Alvarez 15 even.

Third high scorer is Howard Tomlinson, Crater, with 219, and fourth is Mike Glines, Crater, with 210. Jim Pippin, Grants Pass, with 174. Forde leads in field goals with 95 while Alvarez has 92. Tomlinson still paces free shooting with 87.

Statistics are compiled by Jerry Acklen, Grants Pass Courier sports editor.
