1963 marks 100 years of American Commercial banking ...and 22 years that banks have served the nation in the sale of U.S. Savings Bonds. On this important Anniversary the President of the American Bankers Association states:

"U.S. Savings Bonds have helped the American people to become a nation of savers.

"In their contribution to America's economic and military strength, Savings Bonds have had an important part in preserving a way of life which rewards individual initiative and makes possible the kind of progress typified in our own observance of this Centennial year.

"But in addition to this role in the national economy, Savings Bonds have made it easy for tens of millions of Americans to save for the important things in their lives. And Savings Bonds have helped the American people to become strong through savings in all forms.

"These are the reasons why bankers everywhere are proud of their part in the Savings Bonds Program and why the American Bankers Association pledges its continued support."
