Civic Music Membership Drive Opens Here April 1

The Jackson County Civic Music association membership drive, to be held in the spring rather than the fall this year, will open April 1 and continue through April 6. Mrs. Darrel Huson, president of the unit has announced.

Decision on the final date was made at a board meeting in the Huson home Thursday night.

Jay Foster, Evanston, Ill., national Civic Music representative will arrive March 30 in Medford to attend a "kick-off" luncheon at the Rogue Valley Country club. Participants in the drive will be invited to attend.

Discussion at the recent meeting centered around the selection of the concert series for the next season. Selections made in the spring are considered better as the choice of artists is greater, board members point out. Heading the attractions will be the Vienna Boys choir.

Heading the membership drive will be Mrs. John Lusk. Divisional chairmen will be Mrs. John McLaughlin, Mrs. Lloyd Bishop, Mrs. Dan Hull, Mrs. R. B. Stuart, Mrs. Fred Lorch and Mrs. Robert Kazy.

Mrs. Herbert Cecil and Miss Audrey Brist will head the drive in Ashland.

Anyone desiring further information or wishing a membership reserved may call Mrs. Kenneth Brown, telephone, 772-5992.
