

Nuptial Mass Weds Pair

Miss Marsha Ann O'Sullivan became the bride of Robert J. Weber in a nuptial mass celebrated at noon February 9 in the Sacred Heart Catholic church. The bridegroom's brother, the Rev. Gabriel M. Weber, Air Force chaplain, officiated.

The bride, who has lived in Portland for the past year, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. O'Sullivan, 518 North Barneburg road, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Andrew Weber, Portland, and the late Mr. Weber.

About 150 guests attended the ceremony.

Miss Janet O'Sullivan, a sister of the bride, was the honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Rose Mary Smith, Portland, and the Misses Judy Christensen and Jacqueline Creager, both Medford, who came from the University of Oregon where they are students.

Charles Weber, Portland, another brother of the bridegroom was best man, and seating the guests were Edward Weber and James Weber, Portland, also brothers; Merlin Wald, Portland, and Terry O'Sullivan, a brother of the bride, also from the University of Oregon.

Wears Lace
Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin and Chantilly lace. Her headdress was a crowns of satin and pearls which held her veil. Her only jewelry was a diamond and pearl pendant, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and freesia, centered with a white orchid.

The attendants wore emerald green satin dresses with matching veiled satin crowns, trimmed with lilies-of-the-valley which also were repeated in their nosegays of white carnations.

Each altar was decorated with white flowers and at the main altar also were baskets of white chrysanthemums and stock.

Organ music was furnished by Bruno Pellegrini.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. O'Sullivan wore a silk print jacket dress in shades of aquamarine with matching hat and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in beige brocade also with matching hat. Both wore gardenia corsages.

Reception Given
The Starlight room at the Rogue Valley Country club was scene of the wedding reception given by the bride's parents. Table decorations in green and white were arranged by Mrs. Richard Rementeria, and Mrs. Francis Olds, grandmother of the bride, from Rogue Valley Manor, who also served the wedding cake.

Miss Stephanie Shaw, Eugene, a cousin of the bride, registered the guests, and Miss Ann Rementeria, passed rice to the guests. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Dennis Barr, and presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. Robert L. Gallagher, Portland, and Mrs. Robert D. Shaw, aunts of the bride. About 100 guests attended.

Several pieces of a set of china given to the bride's great great grandmother as a wedding gift in 1838 were used on the reception tables.

The couple left for a 10-day wedding trip to San Francisco and other California cities, or traveling the bride chose a gold-colored wool suit with black patent leather accessories. Her corsage was the white orchid from her wedding bouquet.

The couple will be at home after February 23 in Cedar Hills, Beaverton, Ore.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of Medford High school and attended Marylhurst college at Oswego. The bridegroom attended the University of Oregon and is self employed as a gasoline dealer.

The bridegroom's mother will be hostess at a reception in her home in Portland for the newly married couple Sunday, February 24.

The Rev. Gabriel M. Weber, OSM, read the nuptial mass which married his brother, Robert J. Weber, to Marsha Ann O'Sullivan. The ceremony was held February 9 at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. Father Weber is a chaplain with the United States Air Force and came from the East to celebrate the nuptial mass. (Landis photo)

Miss Wanda Davis

Knife-Fork Books Actor

Philip Hanson, Ashland actor, who recently completed a tour of Canada and Alaska, will present his one-man performance of "My Name Is Aram" at the next meeting of the Rogue River Valley Knife and Fork club.

The dinner meeting is scheduled Tuesday, March 5, at the Rogue Valley Country club, at 7 p.m. Reservations must be made with Mrs. R. J. House, 15 Corning Court, prior to March 2.

The program is based on a collection of short stories by William Saroyan about an Armenian-American boy growing up in California's San Joaquin valley.

Kiwanian Dames Meeting Date Rescheduled

The meeting date of the Kiwanian Dames has been moved up one week for February only, officers have announced. The session is scheduled for 12 noon Tuesday, February 19 in the home of Mrs. Adam Richter, 2509 Argonne street, Medford.

Guests will be Dr. Douglas Phillips, chairman for the coming Kiwanian Kapers, and the director of the show, B. Louis Gregory of the John B. Rogers Producing company.

Wives of Kiwanian club members are invited to attend and to become members. Those who have not been contacted are asked to call Mrs. Robert Collins, telephone 772-9020 for a reservation.

Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Chester Hubbard, Mrs. Max Milhollin and Mrs. Dale Hearrell.

Wives of Kiwanian members were entertained by their husbands at a regular weekly meeting of the Kiwanian club February 13. This has become an annual event for the week of St. Valentine's day. Entertainment was furnished by the Medford High school music department.

At that meeting a tentative cast was named for the Kapers and that evening final casting was done at a party at the high school.

Directors Schedule Session

Members of the board of directors of the first district, Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, will hold an all-day session Wednesday, February 20 beginning at 10 a.m.

The session is to be held in the Riverside restaurant at Grants Pass and presiding will be Mrs. William Harms, district president, from that city. A coffee hour will be conducted from 9 a.m., and a host-a la carte luncheon will be served at noon. Club members as well as officers are invited to attend.

Plans for the annual district convention to be held April 3 in Talent will be made. The Talent Federated Women's club will be hostess group.

Officers have pointed out that those going from the Medford area may more easily reach the Riverside restaurant by leaving the freeway at the city of Rogue River and traveling on the old highway, now the Rogue River highway, into Grants Pass.

News Received Of Engagement

News has been received here of the engagement of Miss Georgia Louise Lemkuil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Lemkuil of Escalon, Calif., and Walter O. Peterson, formerly of Medford and now of San Francisco.

The bridegroom-elect, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Peterson, 709 Alder street, Medford, lived here the most of his life.

The announcement was made recently at a family gathering in the bride-elect's home.

Miss Lemkuil is a graduate of Escalon Union High school where she earned a life membership in the California Scholarship federation and she also was active in the music department, Girls Athletic association and Girls league. She received her bachelors degree in music at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music and there studied with the famed Egon Petri.

She continued studying piano with Miss Claire James, formerly of Medford and now assistant director of the conservatory. The bride-elect now is teaching private piano lessons in the Bay area and will continue after her March 23 wedding in the Escalon Presbyterian church.

The bridegroom-elect is a Medford High school graduate and served four years in the Air Force. He now is in his fourth year in the O'Connell Trade school in San Francisco where he is studying carpentry and is employed by Balliet brothers of San Francisco.

Luncheon Meeting

Reames Social club will hold a luncheon at the Medford Masonic Temple Wednesday, February 20 at 12 noon.

Those on the committee with the chairman, Mrs. Don Ashpole, are Mrs. Nellie Jackson, Mrs. Glenn Hall and Mrs. E. E. Setzler. Mrs. H. E. Nulton will conduct a business meeting, which will be followed by cards.

Members of the Order of the Eastern Star are invited to attend.

Donna Kaye Hill

Parents Tell Of Engagement

The engagement of Miss Donna Kaye Hill to Jerald Brown has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hill, 2541 Howard avenue, Medford. The bridegroom-elect is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Orshal Brown, 340 Freeman road, Central Point.

Miss Hill is employed as an International Business Machines key punch operator at Harry and David Bear Creek orchards. Mr. Brown, an airman second class in the United States Air Force, who now is home on leave, is to be stationed in Germany for the next two years. He is a mechanic on the Mace missile project. Both are Crater High school graduates. Miss Hill being graduated in 1962 and Mr. Brown in 1961.

No wedding date has been set.

WCTU Founder To Be Honored

A skit commemorating Frances E. Willard, organizer of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, will be given Thursday, February 21 at a meeting of the Medford union. The meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m., in the fireplace room of the First Presbyterian church.

Music will be furnished by a women's trio, and devotions will be led by Mrs. Ira McDonald. Refreshments will be served.

Winchester-Kingslien Marriage Rites Held

Miss Jo Ann Kingslien and Jack Winchester were married in 2 o'clock afternoon rites February 9 in the First Church of God. The Rev. W. E. Martin performed the ceremony attended by members of the couple's family.

Immediately following the reception the couple left for Corvallis, where they will live at 445 South Ninth street. The bridegroom is a sophomore engineering student at Oregon State university.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Kingslien, 147 Highland drive, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. LeRoy Winchester, 813 West Eleventh street, and Mr. Winchester, also of Medford.

Miss Patricia Brown was the bride's only attendant and Hal Kingslien, a brother of the bride, served as best man. For her wedding the bride chose an aquamarine and silver brocade frock with white net overskirt. She wore a veil and her flowers were a nosegay of white carnations and pink roses.

The bride's attendant wore a silver brocade sheath dress and her corsage was of pink and white carnations.

About 50 guests attended the reception held at the bride's home following the ceremony. Decorations were in pink and aquamarine. Miss Cheryl Taylor cut and served the cake and the Misses Brown and Carolyn Knoll poured. Miss Elizabeth Underhill assisted for the reception.

The bride's traveling suit was of grey and gold knit which she wore with black accessories.

Until her marriage the bride was employed by the Medford school district. She attended Southern Oregon college and both the bride and bridegroom attended Medford High school.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Weber (Landis photo)

jean hart's

The "Kepwick Hall"

The crisp approach to Spring. Triple tabs slant to emphasize the gentle shaping of the jacket and in Davidow's hands it becomes one of the most feminine suits of the season. In exclusive imported pique tweed.

Regular sizes 8 to 20. In custom sizes 12 1/2 to 22 1/2.

Where you find the clothes you love to live in

Jean
617 East Main, Medford Phone 772-8992
180 East Main, Ashland Phone 482-3965

June Wedding Plan of Pair

Central Point — A June 8 wedding is planned by Miss Wanda Davis and Edward Eugene Graham, whose engagement has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Davis, 230 Gibbon road, Central Point.

The bridegroom-elect is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Graham, Cottage Grove.

Miss Davis, a Crater High school graduate, is employed in Portland as a Pacific Northwest Bell telephone long distance operator. Both she and her fiancé attended the Multnomah School of the Bible. He is a Creswell Union High school graduate and attended Linfield college at McMinnville. He is employed as a salesman for Standard Printers of Portland.

Ladies of Elks Luncheon Set; Attend Event

Ladies of Elks will meet Tuesday, February 19 in the Elks club downstairs lounge. A salad luncheon will be served at 1 p.m., followed by bridge, canasta and pinocle.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be, Mrs. A. P. Collins, Mrs. I. F. Bittle and Mrs. L. Pete Soots.

Mothers, wives and widows of Elks are cordially invited to these events for which pre-arranged foursomes are not necessary.

On Wednesday, February 13, the Medford ladies were guests of the Ashland ladies at the Ashland Elks club. Forty-three Medford women attended.

Those winning prizes at pinocle were Mrs. Mary Papworth, Mrs. Sam L. Jones and Mrs. Soots.

Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Edith G. Grisby, Mrs. Dwight L. Seely and Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel.

A special prize was won by Mrs. M. M. Morris.

Chapter Host To Newcomers

Two newcomers to this area were guests at the February 12 meeting of the Alpha Beta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority held in the home of Mrs. Charles Tucker, 1018 Reddy avenue. The new Medford residents are Mrs. Richard Dady, formerly of Astoria, Ore., and Mrs. Norman Lankford who moved here from Merced, Calif.

Mrs. George Polski, president, reported on a recent convention committee meeting and stated that the chapter will have charge of the ball and exhibits to be displayed during a state convention to be held this year in Medford. Mrs. Richard Card and Mrs. Tucker are chairmen of the exhibits division. The cultural program on art was presented by Mrs. Dalton Gresselt who displayed Currier and Ives prints. Mrs. Card and Mrs. H. H. Patterson served refreshments. The next meeting will be held February 26 in the home of Mrs. Dale Waltermire, 3335 Forest drive.

Sets Guest Day

Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold a guest day at the Girls Community club at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, February 23.

"Keep America Singing" is the theme for the afternoon program of music, to be followed by a tea.

Hostesses are to be the Mesdames R. M. Spencer, J. L. Houck, R. E. Green, H. S. Chirgwin and G. N. Riddle.

MONARCH MONARCH MONARCH

DOIN' ANY GARDENING!

When you need GARDEN SUPPLIES—go to the garden store where you can get what you want . . . in the quantity and quality you want. Shop at MONARCH SEED & FEED when you need such items as . . .

- SEED FLATS
- FERTILIZER
- JIFFY POTS
- VERMICULITE
- PLANT BANDS
- PEAT MOSS
- PRUNING SHEARS
- LAWN SEED
- FLOWER & GARDEN SEED
- GARDEN GLOVES
- QUALITY ROSE BUSHES (Both Bush and Climbers)
- GRAPE VINES, RHUBARB
- ROOTS, BERRY PLANTS
- QUALITY GARDEN TOOLS

Plus Many, Many Other Items!

Shop at the Garden Store That Has "Everything for Your Garden but the Rain." It's . . .

Monarch
SEED & FEED CO.

You Can STILL Buy a Package of Vegetable or Flower Seeds for ONLY 10c at Monarch!

2 Stores:
• 10th and South Fir
• Corner 6th and Bartlett

Your Seedsman Since 1910 • STORE HOURS: 8:00 A.M. TO 5:30 P.M.

MONARCH MONARCH MONARCH

Brophy's

Serving Southern Oregon and Northern California for Over 35 Years

Twelve round-cuts;
two baguettes $240

Mounting with two diamonds $100

Watch cases for your diamonds from $150

Prices Include Fed. Tax

White Gold with ten diamonds $75

Old Diamonds Never Die

they just fade away in dingy, dated mountings. While diamonds are timeless in their beauty, settings do grow old and become obsolete in the world of fashion. If you haven't enjoyed wearing the diamond you received twenty or so years ago (or the ones you inherited, perhaps), it is a very simple matter to have the jewelry redesigned. Diamonds in a modern mounting will not show their age. They will become new again.

PRICES QUOTED INCLUDE THE SMALL DIAMONDS IN THE PIECES SHOWN (EXCEPT THE WATCH). IF YOU HAVE SMALL DIAMONDS, HOWEVER, THEY MAY BE UTILIZED TO REDUCE THE COST

All Diamonds Set in Our Own Shop

For the Gifts You'll Give With Pride . . . Let Brophy's Be Your Guide

Brophy's
JEWELERS
MEDFORD, OREGON

Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced
Ph. 772-6206 209 E. Main