Anniversary Observed At Gazelle

Gazelle, Calif.—Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Flock observed their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary at a recent reception in their home in Gazelle.

The couple's daughter, Miss Sandra Flock, a student at Chico State college was home especially for the occasion. She was accompanied by her roommate, Miss Jacqueline Ellis of Tulare.

The wedding cake served for refreshments had been baked by Mr. Flock's mother, Mrs. George Flock, and it was decorated by Mrs. Joe Burch Jr., a sister of Mrs. Leslie Flock.

Serving punch was the couple's daughter.

Cards and congratulatory messages were received by the couple who also were presented a silver money tree. Decorations were in the silver theme and the reception table was centered with a bouquet of pink carnations with silver candles.

Mrs. Ruth Rider, aunt of Mrs. Flock, furnished background piano music during the afternoon and accompanied singing.

Other guests were George Flock, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eiler, Mr. and Mrs. James Eiler, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Spangle, Mr. and Mrs. James Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Foulk Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Everett Peabody, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Schwagerl, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Richter, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Shelley, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Campbell, Joe Burch, Jr., Mrs. Hilda Cooley and Mrs. Hazel Rider.

The married couple was honored February 4, 1938 in Medford, and moved to Chico, Calif. Later they moved to Yreka and fourteen years ago they came to Gazelle to make their home.

Annual Dinner Set By Gold Hill Club

Gold Hill-Amethyst Rebekah Friendship club will hold the annual dinner meeting of the group Monday, February 18 at North's Chuck Wagon restaurant in Medford. The occasion will mark the 10th anniversary of its organization. The event is held each year to honor new officers. This year they are Mrs. Evert Jennings, president; Mrs. Cassie Johnson, vice president; Mrs. Leonard L. Martin, secretary; and Mrs. Paul Molloy, treasurer.

Those who attend are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. Paul Molloy by 6:45 p.m. on that date.

Gem, Mineral Exhibit Plans Are Discussed

Roxy Ann Gem and Mineral club members further discussed plans for the Southern Oregon Gem and Mineral show to be held May 11 and 12 in the Medford armory, when they met February 8. The session was held in the Girls Community club and Rolf Pederson, president, presided.

Officers have stated that some of the finest collections of cut and polished gem stones and fluorescent materials ever assembled in southern Oregon will be shown. Samples of the materials can be seen daily at the Medford downtown branch, United States Bank of Portland.

Jack Teeters introduced John Peterson, geologist, speaker for the evening, and Gerald Smith, president of the Grants Pass Rock club, both of Grants Pass. Mr. Smith operated a slide projector while Mr. Peterson spoke on geological formations of eastern Oregon.

Security Club To Decide on Insurance Plan

Provisions of an insurance plan for Security Project club members will be read for the last time during the Wednesday, February 20 meeting of the club in the Pythian building. Officers have requested a full membership at the meeting as a decision will be made in regard to adopting the plan.

The group gathers at 11 a.m., at the hall with luncheon served at 12 noon, prepared by Mrs. Enos Naffziger. The business session gets underway at 1 p.m., and from 2 to 4 p.m., dancing is conducted.

Senior Center Activities Include Council Meeting

The week at the Senior Activity center will open with a trip to New Zealand and Australia as a feature of the Arm Chair Travel group program starting at 1 p.m. Monday.

Jesse Anderson, Ashland, will continue showing slides of his recent tour. Last week, Mr. Anderson showed the start of his tour through visits to the small island chains.

Artists in the group asked if any of the island scenes could be obtained and pictures painted from them.

Because of the illness of Dr. Frank Roberts, leader of the group, and the death of William Jones, who has assisted him in the program for four years, members of the Spanish class which meets Monday morning, set up the room for the showing and others of the group acted as hosts.

Mrs. Judd Greenman, who has also helped with the program since it was organized, will arrange for future showings until Dr. Roberts can return.

Any one who has pictures available for Monday, February 25, may call Mrs. Greenman at the Rogue Valley Manor.

Active Worker
Mr. Jones had been an active volunteer worker at the Senior center since it was opened, was chairman of the house committee, and leader of the shuffleboard games held on Wednesday mornings.

The 50 Plus club commu-

ity service group, which each year met at the center to mail out over 7,000 Christmas seals for the Tuberculosis and Health association, was organized by Mr. Jones, who also helped in the staff work mailing out council and center brochures and notices.

All the craft and art classes are finishing articles to be shown Thursday, February 21, at the Center Art exhibit preceding the annual meeting of the Rogue Valley Council on Aging at the Red Cross chapter house, 60 Hawthorne avenue.

The exhibit will be placed in the auditorium, between 10 and 11 a.m. Thursday and will be on exhibit from 11 a.m. until noon with craftsmen and artists as hosts. The exhibit can also be viewed after the luncheon meeting which will start at noon.

Members of the oil painting, mosaic, and the copper tooling classes are to take their exhibits to the center during their class hours this week where they can be labeled prior to taking them from the center at 10 a.m. Thursday.

Orchestra Practice

The center orchestra will meet at the Red Cross building Thursday at 10 a.m. where they will practice an hour before their concert at 11 a.m.

The square dancing group will meet as usual Thursday from 10 a.m. to noon at the center.

All members of all the classes at the center are invited to attend the meeting of the council as well as the exhibit and concert. A talk will be given by Mrs. Hale Praggoff of the Oregon State Board of Health.

Last Wednesday John Gribble, secretary and treasurer of the council, met at the center with a volunteer staff group which mailed out 300 notices of the annual meeting.

This Wednesday a group including Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cummings, Mrs. Bernice Brahs, Mrs. F. E. Stevens, Mrs. Greenman, Mrs. Chester Guehes and Mrs. Fred Rinking, will assemble the an-

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Knoll were especially interested in the gay decorations which made Rogue Valley Country club colorful for the annual Valentine dance of Beta Sigma Phi sorority, held February 9, for Mrs. Knoll was chairman of the decorations committee. Lavender and old lace was the theme, and the topiary trees which the committee made held dozens of lavender paper orchids. In the Starlight room the traditional red and white hearts and cupids were used on the walls and tables. (Knackstedt photo)
