Horseman's Group Board Will Elect New President

A new president was not elected at the Feb. 13 meeting of the Jackson County Horseman's association, (JCHA.)

John Belknap, vice president of the club, conducted the meeting, read the by-laws and explained to the group that the law associated with the resignation of any officer provides that the vacancy be filled by the board of directors, at the next board meeting, which in this case in March 6, at 7:30 p.m. at North's Chuck Wagon.

Also at this meeting, the board will elect two other committees, one for membership and one for club activities. Board members are Slim Hardin, Delbert Terry and Joe Burrows.

Larry Perry, although having resigned as president of JCHA, stated he would continue to serve with Mac McClurg, Mel Barron, Grady Mankins and Del Terry, on the Fair Planning committee. The previous meeting of this committee was cancelled because of unfavorable weather, but another will be called the latter part of the month.

Grady Mankins reported that the outlook for bridle paths along the Bear Creek is favorable. The Medford parks and recreation commission informed him that a plan was already under way to include the bridle paths, Mankin said. The plan for Bear creek is being drawn up by the San Francisco firm of Royston, Hanamoto, Moyes and Beck.

Larry Perry reported that Jerry Brog, Jackson County 4-H Extension agent, requests a working committee from JCHA to meet with the 4-H club leaders in the district and to work on a policy for the 4-H clubs in the area.

A request was made by Miss Linda Hillman for a leader for a 4-H club, the club now has an existing membership of 35. Anyone knowing of an eligible leader may contact Miss Hillman at the Westerner, 807 South Central ave, in Medford.

An invitation was extended to the members by Mel Barron, president of the Ashland Wranglers, to visit the Ashland club at its next meeting, March 1, at 7:30 p.m. in Ashland.

Cliff Ayers, Central Point, is the scheduled guest speaker for the next meeting of JCHA, March 13, location to be announced later. Ayers will speak to the club on the recent horse events he has attended.

All meetings conducted by JCHA are open to anyone interested in the future advancement of sports related to either ponies or horses.

The main purpose of the Jackson County Horseman's association is to promote the interests of horse and pony activities in general, with emphasis on 4-H activities.

Classic Spoof Set For Art Association

The classic spoof of American Western films, "My Little Chickadee," will be shown for Rogue Valley association members at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 19, in the Seminar auditorium of Medford High school. The film stars the late W. C. Fields and Mae West.

Mr. Fields is regarded by many theater fans as the most outstanding comedian ever to be on the American stage. His many vaudeville acts, stage roles and movies are remembered by millions. Miss West, known as the "why don't you come up and see me some time" actress, is still being featured in stage productions and is currently playing in a Las Vegas night club.

The film was made in the late 1930s.

The association has booked the French thriller film of a bank robbery entitled "Rafifi" for March 19.

4-H NEWS

Smart Cookies

The Smart Cookies 4-H club had a Valentine party recently at the home of Mrs. Chester Ricks.

The members exchanged Valentines, had refreshments and played games. A skating party was held recently at the Rollarena.

Teresa Barnard will give a demonstration at the next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. W. R. Florey, Feb. 18.

Youth Accidentally Shoots Self In Leg

A 19-year-old Central Point youth accidentally shot himself in the leg with his .22 caliber pistol Friday, the sheriff's office said.

The victim, Billy Wayne Kropp, Pine Tree Market, Blackwell rd., Central Point, was hiking along Table Rock rd. near Sams Valley and carrying a .22 caliber pistol in his holster. He tripped, fell and the gun discharged wounding him 10 inches above the knee, it was reported.

Central Point Men Arrested by Officers

Two Central Point men were lodged in the Jackson county jail Friday by state police on charges of taking antique automobile parts from a Cave Junction residence.

Arrested were William Darrell Williamson, 21, of route 1, box 292, Central Point, and Willie German, 20, of 1694 Scenic ave., Central point. They are charged in connection with the theft of parts from the garage of Wayne Petsch in Cave Junction, state police said.

Accident Reported To State Police

An accident involving two Ashland cars Friday night near Ashland was reported by state police. No injuries and only minor damage resulted.

A car driven by Charles Edward Blocker, 66, of 720 Indiana ave., Ashland, had stopped on Highway 99 to push a disabled car, state police said, when a car driven by Josephine Haubert Fries, 806 Harmony lane, Ashland struck it.
