Plans for Timber Harvest on BLM Noted by Manager

Plans for the harvest of 288 million board feet of timber during the fiscal year starting July 1 have been announced by Donald J. Schofield, Medford district manager for the bureau of land management.

An agency of the United States Department of the Interior, BLM is charged with the coordinated management of timber, forage, minerals, recreation, wildlife, water, and other resources on 466 million acres of public land. The Medford district includes 910,000 acres intermingled with other ownerships in a 50-mile-wide band between Klamath Falls and Cave Junction.

The timber sale plan for fiscal year 1964 includes 63 tracts which will be advertised for competitive bidding at monthly oral auctions. The timber to be offered for sale will be harvested in accordance with sustained yield principles, with its maturity, condition, location, and provisions for regeneration having been taken into consideration, as well as the need to salvage damaged timber, Schofield pointed out.

Described at Hearing

Tracts of timber tentatively included in the sale plan were described by BLM foresters at a public meeting for that purpose last Dec. 14. Concurrence with the plan was expressed by the Medford District Advisory board Feb. 19, and it was approved by the BLM state director prior to its publication.

Copies of the plan have been sent to all persons whose names are on the district's mailing list, and additional copies are available for distribution at the Medford district office, 1133 South Riverside ave.

Distribution of the timber sale plan this year has been several months earlier than formerly, thus giving prospective purchasers a better opportunity to schedule timber acquisition, according to Robert D. Hostetter, Medford district resource management specialist. This is the 14th successive year that the bureau of land management has published advance plans for timber harvest, he said.

CAMPUS HUMOR: 1. "Hey, little boy, can you direct me to the best movie in town?" "Yeah. For fifty cents." "Isn't that pretty high?" "Not for a movie director."

2. Sailor: "Are you nautical?"

Pretty young thing: "No, I'm niceical."

3. "I owe all I have to one woman."

"Your mother?"

"No, my landlady."

4. Aboard a Mediterranean cruise ship:

"What's that white stuff on yonder hill, Captain?"

"That is snow, Miss."

"I thought so, but that creep at the railing told it was Greece."

When the late advertising genius, Albert Lasker, was running the Lord and Thomas agency, he hired, at $9,000 a year, an up-and-coming young copy writer named William Benton. In a few years' time Benton had upped his take-home pay to $25,000—and then Lasker called him in to his private office to announce magnanimously, "Bill, you've become so important to me around here, I'm going to double your salary."

"Why, Mr. Lasker!" was Benton's unexpected reaction. "Do you mean to say that I have been worth 50 thousand a year during all this time you've been paying me only 25? You've been taking my money!"

Lasker was furious at the time—but when Benton entered politics, Lasker was one of his biggest backers.

Two Americans Stabbed in Mexico

Mexico City—(UPI)—Police said Thursday a California man was stabbed to death and a Texas student was stabbed and robbed late Wednesday by apparent pro-Castro terrorists.

The man was identified as Fred Plumley, about 65, who was a Republican party volunteer worker in the San Francisco area in 1960 and 1962. The student was Philip Bennett Jr., 24, a Negro, San Antonio, Tex.

Bennett said he and Plumley were attacked by two unidentified armed men when they arrived at their apartment. Bennett had been studying sociology here for the past four months. Plumley, who arrived a week ago, was staying with him.

Average per square foot cost of the 7 milion square feet of construction at the U.S. Air Force academy was just $10—less than the cost of ordinary buildings.
