

WRESTLES FOR DUCKS — Dave White, above shown applying a hold to a teammate, competes as the 130-pound regular for the University of Oregon wrestling team. He is ex-Crater high. White, who will be with the Ducks in the Pacific Coast tourney next week end at Ashland, was said to have given the spark necessary to enable the Webfoots to defeat the San Francisco Olympic club recently. He won 1-0 from Joe Gomes, 1962 national AAU champion. White also won matches against San Jose State and University of California on the three-match trip to the Golden State. Top collegians of the west will contend at Southern Oregon college next Friday and Saturday. Titles will be at stake in 10 weight classes. (U of O photo)

Henley high, surviving a sparkling challenge by the St. Mary's high Crusaders, completed its Rogue league basketball season unblemished Friday night while the Illinois Valley Cougars choked off Eagle Point's bid to tuck away second place in the conference.

The Hornets trimmed St. Mary's in Medford 78 to 70 as IV clipped Eagle Point at Cave Junction 56 to 51. Lakeview stayed in running for deadlock for second place by romping over Sacred Heart 82 to 48 at Klamath Falls. And Phoenix, playing at home, took sixth position in the standings by beating Rogue River 59 to 56.

Friday's games also completed the regular Rogue slates of Lakeview, Rogue River and Phoenix.

Kent Gooding, 6-7 Hornet, tallied 37 points, 21 in the first half, to head the Hornet offense. However, St. Mary's was ahead 18 to 12 and 38 to 32 at the half and quarter.

In the third period, St. Mary's cooled and Henley got some easy scores against the Crusader press. The Hornets picked up 22 points in the stanza to lead 54 to 46.

With one minute to play in the final chukkar, St. Mary's came with in two points at 68 to 70. Lost balls and missed SM shots gave Henley opportunity to reach its final margin.

The Crusaders had five players in double point figures. They were Pete Naumes with 18, John Batzer with 14 and Jim Cathoun, Randy Corlies and Ron Roberts each with 12. Tom Sanders had 13 for Henley to go with Gooding's 37.

The Hornets edged SM 33 to 32 in field goals and had 12 to six margin at the gift line. Henley had control of the boards.

Free Shots Difference
Illinois Valley went in front 43 to 36 in the third period after a 15 to 13 Eagle Point quarter lead. And 28-all midway count. Ron Thornhill in a reserve role had 17 points for IV and Darryl Gellert 13. Bill Hoeft scored 17 for Eagle Point and Wilbur Boatwright 14.

Free shots made the scoring difference for the Cougars. They put in 26 of 38 and EP nine of 17. IV capitalized on 23 infractions called against the Eagles. Thirteen were whistled on IV. Eagle Point shot 313 from the field on 21 of 67 and the Cougars 319 on 15 of 47.

Eagle Point dominated rebounding 59 to 41 with Hoeft getting 15 shares. Charles Pomeroy 14 and Richard Short 12. Gellert had 10 for Illinois Valley.

Rogue River Leads Long
Boatwright did some fine defensive work again on Gellert, whose ball handling and feeding of Thornhill, nevertheless, spurred IV.

The Eagles came up to within four points of IV at 53 to 49 in the closing moments.

Phoenix tabulated the first bucket in its game but Rogue River quickly went in front and stayed there until a 23-point third quarter climb put the Pirates on top for good. Phoenix collected nine points while RR went scoreless at this stage for a 52 to 44 gap. This bolstered the Buccaneers for the final session. They went into the quarter ahead 52 to 46, stalled and were outscored 10 to 7.

Phoenix had 56 to 50 edge with 3:46 to go but Mike O'Brien and Tom Davidson cut it to 56 to 54 with jump-rumping over Sacred Heart 82 to 48 at Klamath Falls. And Phoenix, playing at home, took sixth position in the standings by beating Rogue River 59 to 56.

Barker had 25 points for Phoenix and Davidson 22 for RR.

Chieftain quarter and half-way leads were 17 to 10 and 30 to 29. Rogue River's widest leads were nine points. The Pirates fought back into contention in the third quarter after lagging 29 to 36.

Rogue River had a 375 game field shooting mark on 23 of 40 and was 648 in the first half. Phoenix hit 20 of 51 for 392.

Henley, Phoenix and Eagle Point won junior varsity tilts. Henley's score was 42 to 39 and Phoenix's 61 to 39. Eagle Point was not reported. Elton Schiro had 12 points for Henley and Ted Scott 10 for SM. Dan Bellamy put in 16 for Rogue River and Tim Fayingler 12 for Phoenix.

Dick Tiger Keeps Title In Draw

Las Vegas — UPI — Dick Tiger and Gene Fullmer fought 13 blood-drenched rounds to a draw Saturday night as Tiger, the Nigerian stalker, retained his world middleweight championship.

In a decision wildly booed by a sellout crowd of 8,000 in the Las Vegas convention center, referee Vern Bybee voted it 69-69; judge Pat Diskin had it 71-67 for Tiger and judge John Romero had it 70-68 for Fullmer.

Fullmer, turned fancy dan and darting in and out to land a single blow at a time, piled up an early lead. But Tiger, stalking his prey all over the ring, finally caught up in the final two rounds to earn the draw on Bybee's card.

Both camps thought they had won it easily. But it was close. United Press International scored it 70-66 for Fullmer.

It was a heart-breaking decision for Fullmer, the Mormon elder from West Jordan, Utah, who had announced he would retire unless he won. However, he may reconsider in view of the draw.

Barnett Leads Lakers To Big Win Over Boston

By United Press International
Dick Barnett, the much publicized "sixth man" of the Los Angeles Lakers, sometimes shoots a basketball as if he were making a final gesture just before falling backward off a gangplank.

But the way Barnett dazzled the Boston Celtics in a 113-105 Laker triumph Friday night, no one is about to change his style — nor is anyone likely to keep him out of the starting lineup for the Western division leaders.

Barnett earned his place as acting "quarterback" at least until Jerry West returns from sick call with a 36-point performance that gave Los Angeles a key victory before a record Los Angeles Sports Arena basketball crowd of 15,195.

The defeat snapped a six-game Boston win streak. In other games Friday night Detroit downed Syracuse 126-117, behind the 31-point scoring of Bailey Howell; the New York Knicks beat the Boston Celtics 106-93, despite Wilt Chamberlain's 3,000th point of the season, and St. Louis banged away for a 115-98 triumph over Chicago.

21 Giants Show Up For Work

Casa Grande, Ariz. — UPI — Twenty-one members of the National league champion San Francisco Giants were on hand for Friday's first day of full workouts of spring training.

The first step toward what the Giants hope will be another flag was routinely industrious as a warm desert breeze swept across the practice diamond.

Although the first practice was for pitchers and catchers, a few interlopers were around.

Infielder Joey Amalfitano, back from the Houston Colts, Willie McCovey, Chuck Hiller, and rookie infielder Jerry Robinson took their cuts against a row of pitchers.

There were a few notable no shows, including pitchers Billy O'Dell, Juan Marichal, Jack Sanford and catcher Ed Bailey. O'Dell and Bailey are known to be on their way.

Mysterious Geyser Spouts Salt Water In Rural Kansas

Attica, Kan. — UPI — A mysterious salt water geyser that sprung up in the middle of a county road started its third week today of spitting gas and water from the earth.

From 350 to 400 barrels of saline water gush hourly from the 50-foot-deep crater. It tests about 56 per cent salt saturation and has contaminated nearby Bluff creek.

The hole started spewing gas Feb. 7, then fuming muddy water started flowing. Soon, the liquid became salty and other smaller holes within a mile south opened. The hole grew rapidly.

Spout Grew Shorter
Water squirted up to 100 feet the first days. As the hole grew larger, the spout grew shorter. Now the gas forces the fountain some three to 15 feet high, varying from time to time.

"It just keeps going," said Don Parr, editor of the Attica Independent, a weekly newspaper. "It has become a serious problem."

Parr said the spout has attracted thousands. This is a gas-rich section of Kansas and numerous wells are in the area. Investigations have failed to disclose the exact cause of the salty gusher.

A meeting was called today in Wichita to determine a course of action to stop the flow. Parr said "there doesn't seem to be a simple solution to the problem." He said all inexpensive means have been tried. Now "there is going to have to be some finances."

Ralph O'Connor, district geologist for the state Board of Health, said a sand bag levee may be formed around the hole to create an artificial head of pressure. Parr said many believed this would only cause the some 20 or 30 other smaller holes to spout additional water.

Livestock Fenced
Parr said one of the minor hole's natural gas had caught fire but fire at the main geyser had been averted. The danger that somebody would ignite the gas flow remained a hazard.
