

Graduate Interning At Hospital

Miss Claudia Kay Hoover, who received a degree in occupational therapy from San Jose State college January 22, is now interning at the Alameda County Fairmont hospital, San Leandro, Calif. Miss Hoover is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claud W. Hoover, Vilas road.

Miss Hoover will remain at the Fairmont hospital until the end of March, and in April and May will intern at the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Rehabilitation center, Brighton, Mass.

In June and July she will be at the San Fernando Veterans hospital, San Fernando, Calif. Miss Hoover has already completed a three months' internship at the Twin Pines Psychiatric hospital at Belmont, Calif.

The first of August she will take her national test for registration as an occupational therapist at the University of Southern California. After registration, she will be qualified to work in the fields of psychiatry, physical disabilities, pediatrics, tuberculosis, and general medicine and surgery.

Miss Hoover plans then to return to Medford, and her wedding to Robert E. Allen is planned for the middle of August. Her fiancé is to graduate from Harvard university in June and will enter Temple University Medical School, Philadelphia, this fall. Miss Hoover will work in one of the hospitals in Philadelphia, starting the first of September.

Mr. Allen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Allen, 951 South Stage road.

Harper-Root Ceremony Held

Miss Margie Ann Root and Donnie Ray Harper were wed in February 8 rites in Park chapel, Reno, Nevada. The single ring ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace L. Root, 1029 Ellendale drive, Medford, and is a 1962 Phoenix High school graduate.

The bridegroom's parents are Mrs. John Funderburg of Hill, Calif., and Coy Harper, Sheridan, Ark.

Miss Elva Root, sister of the bride, was her only attendant, and the bride's father served as best man.

The bride wore a white lace street length dress and a short veil. Her bouquet was of white flowers.

The couple is living in Reno. The bridegroom has served in the Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ellet Foreman (Landis photo)

Methodist Ceremony Weds Medford Couple

Miss Sheila Noelle Franklin became the bride of David Ellet Foreman in a single-ring ceremony performed in Meeker chapel, First Methodist church, at 8 o'clock, February 14. Dr. George Roseberry officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale H. Franklin, 1470 Kings highway, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis M. Foreman, 42 Hawthorne avenue, also Medford.

About 60 guests attended the ceremony and the reception following.

The only attendant of the bride was Miss Judith Foreman, sister of the bridegroom. Little Miss Sherri Ann White was ring bearer.

Benjamin Darras was best man, and Larry Muir and Eugene Vincent seated the guests.

Wears Taffeta
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length gown of white taffeta in sheath style with matching cut-away overskirt. The neckline and skirt of the sheath were trimmed with white embroidered flowers. Her headress was a crown of brocade trimmed with pearls, and held a shoulder-length veil. She wore a heart-shaped opal pendant, a gift from the bridegroom. Her bouquet, which was also heart-shaped, was of white hyacinths and red rosebuds.

The honor attendant wore a white chiffon dress with a red lined lace bolero jacket. Her nosegay was heart-shaped, of red and white carnations.

The ring bearer wore a red velvet dress and red shoes. She carried a white satin pillow with a wedding band belonging to the bridegroom's mother. Both the ring bearer and the honor attendant wore red velvet pillboxes with brief red veils.

The chapel was decorated with altar baskets of white stock and red tulips.

Mrs. Leslie Boardman provided the organ music, and Mrs. D. G. MacDougall was soloist.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Franklin wore a gray silk sheath dress and print satin pillbox hat. Mrs. Foreman wore a red nylon lace dress with a white pillbox, and both wore corsages of white hyacinth petals.

The reception was held in the parlors of the church. Table decorations were red hearts and white candles, with red carnations surrounding the cake.

Mrs. Verne Shangle served the cake, and Miss Marlys Franklin, sister of the bride, poured coffee. The punch was poured by Mrs. Edgar Sims, aunt of the bride. Miss Judith Franklin, a cousin, was at the guest book, and Miss Susan Fox was in charge of the gift table.

Both the bride and bridegroom have attended Medford schools. The bride is a student at Medford High school, and the bridegroom was graduated from that school in 1962.

Gallery Events Are Announced

Three events are on the calendar in coming days for members of Rogue Valley Art association and others interested in the current show at Rogue gallery, 220 West Main street.

Tuesday, February 26, association members are invited to hear Lloyd Halverson, art dealer and collector, speak concerning works from his collection on display at the gallery. The topic is "The Role of the Collector" and the talk is planned for 8 p.m.

Wednesday, February 27, Mr. Halverson will speak on the same subject at the gallery for members of Xi Mu chapter, Beta Sigma Phi. Association members unable to attend the Tuesday night lecture may attend Wednesday evening.

On Sunday, March 3, the collector will lead a gallery tour and speak concerning the historical background of the works. The tour will begin at 3 p.m. and the public is invited to attend.

In the show are works by several world-known masters. Included are paintings and drawings by Van Dyke, Goya, Poussin, Modigliani, Turner and others. The Halverson collection is said by some authorities to be the most valuable private art collection in Oregon and association officers have stated that they feel most fortunate to be able to have the exhibit open to the public.

Miss Pamela Bettes, Southern Oregon college student from Kailua, Oahu, Hawaii, has been selected as princess for the annual skiasta, a winter sports carnival sponsored by the college. The event will be March 1-2 at the Mt. Shasta Ski Bowl. Nine other princesses, representing either Oregon or California colleges, will also vie for the title of Skiasta Queen. She will be chosen at the Friday night dance.

Lt. and Mrs. Robert John Gee (Yuen Lin photo)

Lieutenant and Bride Leave for Ft. Benning

Lt. and Mrs. Robert John Gee left this week end for Ft. Benning, Ga., to make their home after being guests the past week of Lieutenant Gee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Gee, 2618 Syringa drive, Medford. The couple's wedding was an event of February 4 in Peace Lutheran church, Seattle.

The bride, the former Miss Karen Louise Nelson, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Nelson, Seattle. The bridegroom attended Medford High school and both attended Washington State university, where the bridegroom recently was graduated as a second lieutenant in the Army after completion of advanced ROTC training.

Of the seven men commissioned at the time, Lieutenant Gee was one of three designated as a distinguished military graduate because of his outstanding scholastic and military work. He completed his work in pre-law and was graduated from the university at the same time.

The bride also attended Whitman college.

The wedding ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock in the evening by the Rev. John F. Paulson. About 75 guests attended the ceremony and about 65 attended the reception.

Miss Paula Kay Nelson was honor attendant for her sister, and the bridegroom's sister, Debbie Gee, was candlelighter. Best man was James Funston, Medford. Ushers were Virgil Taylor, Anacortes, Wash., Lewis Nelson, a brother of the bride, and Ron Scott, both of Seattle.

The bride's gown was fashioned with a full length bell skirt and brush train. The bodice was trimmed with lace and pearl applique and designed with a high neckline. The bridal bouquet was of yellow baby rosebuds with stephanotis. Her short veil was held from a pearl crown.

The honor attendant's gown was of yellow organza with bell skirt and scoop neckline and she carried white flowers. The candlelighter also wore a yellow organza frock, trimmed with white lace and her wristlet was of yellow rosebuds.

The church was decorated with yellow and white flowers.

The reception was held in the home of the bride's parents on Marine View drive in Seattle.

The couple traveled to Hood's canal for their wedding trip.

Lieutenant Gee is to report for duty in Ft. Benning on March 11.

Local Woman On World Tour

Miss Marie Eicher, 18 Hawthorne avenue, sailed from San Francisco Saturday, February 23, aboard the SS Monroe, passenger freighter of the American President Lines, on a round-the-world cruise. She plans to return to New York City in May.

Miss Eicher will visit Japan, Okinawa, Hong Kong, British Crown Colony; Vietnam, Singapore, Malaya, India, Pakistan, Egypt, Italy, and France prior to her return.

She plans to take several side trips by plane from Yokohama, Hong Kong, Bombay, and Suez, returning to the ship at a later port.

Miss Eicher left Medford Wednesday for San Francisco where she visited relatives prior to sailing.

Return

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Bash have returned to their home on Bundy avenue after a trip east. Mr. Bash made the trip on business, and Mrs. Bash spent her time with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Bash, and their year-old daughter, Katie, Green Bank, West Va. The young Mr. Bash is one of nine scientists on the staff of the national radio astronomy observatory at Green Bank.

Medford Couple To Wed; Bride-Elect Is Vocalist

Mr. and Mrs. John Thrun, 121 Kenwood avenue, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Frances Lorraine Thrun, to Arthur Olaf Aas, 225 1/2 South Holly street, Medford.

Mr. Aas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Trygve Aas, Everett, Wash., and is employed as loading and shipping foreman at Fir Ply corporation, White City. He is an active member of both the Loyal Order of the Moose and Fraternal Order of Eagles lodges.

Miss Thrun, known in the Rogue Valley for her singing, recently returned to Medford from Portland where she had been employed the past year as a bookkeeper by Oregon Pacific Forest Products corporation. While there she was a member of the Portland Symphonic choir and sang in the chorus for a production of the opera, "Aida." Previously she had been employed by the W. H. Daugherty Lumber company, the Medford Corporation and Jorgensen's Dairy.

The wedding has been set for May 11 at the Sacred Heart Catholic church.

Miss Thrun is a member of the All Christian Assembly church, officiated at the candlelight service held in a chapel in Las Vegas. White gladioli decorated the chapel. The couple was attended by William L. Thompson and James L. Champbell, friends of the bridegroom.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are graduates of Medford High school. She attended LaVerne college, LaVerne, Calif., and Southern Oregon college. Mr. Richardson attended Southern Oregon college and was employed by the Medford Mail Tribune prior to joining the U.S. Marine Corps.

Musician Gives Concerts Abroad

Ashland—Miss Betsy Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham M. Dean, Porterville, Calif., writes that she has given concerts this winter in West Berlin, Amsterdam and Copenhagen and will later appear in Zurich. The former Ashland musician, a flutist, has been living abroad for the past several years and is now residing in London.

Until 1960 the Deans were owners and publishers of the Ashland Daily Tidings and Siskiyou (Yreka) Daily News. They presently own the Porterville Evening Recorder, as well as other dailies in New Mexico.

Grandmothers Give Party

Central Point—The annual sweetheart's dinner for grandmothers was given by Crater chapter, of Grandmother Clubs of America, at the Central Point Grange hall February 18. The president, Mrs. Richard Larson, was given a birthday cake.

Pictures of a trip to Washington, D. C. were shown by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoover.

Don Milligan presented the club a large flag prior to showing interesting pictures of a transcontinental flight across Canada from east to west.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. J. Gebhard, 4978 Gebhard road, March 8.

Newlyweds Make Home In Nevada

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Earl Richardson are making their home in Las Vegas, Nevada, following their marriage there February 7.

The bride is the former Karen Gay Christensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Christensen, 2722 East McAndrews road, Mr. Richardson's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Richardson, 2133 Crater Lake avenue.

The Rev. Charles A. Cady, of All Christian Assembly church, officiated at the candlelight service held in a chapel in Las Vegas. White gladioli decorated the chapel. The couple was attended by William L. Thompson and James L. Champbell, friends of the bridegroom.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are graduates of Medford High school. She attended LaVerne college, LaVerne, Calif., and Southern Oregon college. Mr. Richardson attended Southern Oregon college and was employed by the Medford Mail Tribune prior to joining the U.S. Marine Corps.

Miss Frances Thrun

Names Pledge

Corvallis—Miss Karen Morland, Medford, is one of eight Oregon State university students named to membership in Sigma Delta Pi, national Spanish honor society.

The eight were chosen for their scholarship and leadership in language programs.

Miss Morland is a junior in the school of education. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morland, 1625 Stratford Way.

"No, Yours Is Backwards!"

No matter how you wear it... the year's smartest look is Petti and you can only get it at...

OPEN Every Friday Night 'til 9 THE CARRIAGE HOUSE Use Your Approved Charge or Lay-A-Way! 15 SOUTH CENTRAL

A perfect wedding! The bride sent Art Point wedding invitations. Make your wedding a success too—send Art Point wedding invitations; you will be so glad you did. Come in and see the complete selection of wedding invitations and wedding accessories styled for you by Art Point Studios, "The House of Weddings." $14.95 for 100 and up; double envelopes; footnotes no extra charge. Free! with our compliments, Virginia Courtenay's etiquette booklet. Ask for your copy.

We've Everything for Your WEDDING.... Announcements Imprinted Wedding Napkins Punch Bowl Rentals Shop All Three Floors Swem's BOOKS · GIFTS · RECORDS 217 EAST MAIN MEDFORD, OREGON

Medical Auxiliary Plans Benefit Luncheon, Show

March and April usually means a quickening of social activity in the Rogue Valley, even though it is the Lenten season.

Among coming events is a pre-Easter luncheon and style show planned by the auxiliary to the Jackson County Medical society on Monday, April 1. It will be held at Rogue Valley Country club.

Luncheon will be served at noon, and spring fashions will be modeled by auxiliary members and their children. Cards will be available to guests who wish to play bridge or canasta during the afternoon.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Charles McAdams, 773-6336.

Mrs. Donald McGeary and Mrs. John Watson are co-chairmen of the benefit luncheon, and proceeds will be given to the auxiliary fund for the post-graduate education of registered nurses. In 1962, $500 from this fund was given to three Jackson county hospitals to help pay the expenses of six nurses who attended a course in new

Among the 25 candidates initiated into Sigma Epsilon Pi, a women's scholastic honorary society at Southern Oregon college, were a number of young women from the Rogue valley and northern California area.

From Medford were the Misses Mary Jo Batzer, Lois Beardsley, Vivian Wiegand, Jacqueline Graber and LaRue Reese.

Those from Ashland were the Misses Danausia Bell, Peggy Parsons, Janet Covington, Karen Culp, Gerry Miller, Marilyn Mobley and Susan Thompson.

Others were Miss Alta Grimes, Talent; Miss Dorothy Hessig, Montague, Calif., and the Misses Pegi Hodge, Gwen LaHaie and Janet Lund, all Grants Pass.

Chapter to Meet At Lorch Home

Chapter AA, PEO, will meet Wednesday, February 27, at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. F. C. Lorch, 830 Minnesota avenue. Assisting her will be Mrs. Alfred McDonald and Mrs. R. L. Casterline.

Two American Field service students will present the program.

Designed for Young Moderns Artcarved WEDDING RINGS Not only the loveliest, but the most modern styles in town! Hundreds to choose from, all in excellent taste. Prices start at $8.00. LAWRENCE'S 21 N. CENTRAL Est. 1908

Newberries Sunday and Monday Only PRICE BUSTERS

SOLID COLOR... TERRY CLOTH New! First quality Terry in this Spring's delightful shades. Soft, firmly woven all cotton that machine washes so beautifully. 11 pastels and white. 36" wide, in lengths up to 6 yards. 99¢ Yd. if on Bolts. 63¢ yd.

SERRENTO New for Spring! Firm bodied, heavy textured fabric, for suits, skirts or sports wear. 74% rayon—26% cotton... wrinkle resistant... machine washable! 45 in. wide in 7 popular pastels, plus black and white. 98¢ yd.

PETTIPOINT New for Spring! Pettipoint is a Fashion Favorite for dresses and sportswear. Solids and exciting prints! Guaranteed washable, little or no ironing. 36" wide. Compare Newberry's quality and price! On bolts. 79¢ yd.

SHOPPING CENTER STORE 635 East Jackson, Medford Store Hours, Sun. 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.; Mon. 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m.