Ashland Woman Named Queen of Sorority Ball

Ashland — Chosen to reign as queen of the Beta Sigma Phi valentine dinner dance was Mrs. Carroll Anderson, representing Alpha Sigma chapter. The annual event was held Saturday, February 16, in the Caesar room of the Mark Antony hotel.

The 1963 sorority queen was elected during the evening by husbands and escorts of members from the three chapter princesses named several weeks earlier. In addition to Mrs. Anderson of Alpha Sigma chapter, Mrs. Jim Conklin was chosen princess of Gamma Zeta chapter, and Mrs. Leo Zupan was Xi Alpha Kappa princess.

Mrs. Jack Williams, 1962 queen, assisted by Mrs. Gene Litwiller, a princess of last year, conducted the coronation. Mrs. Martel Peters, mistress of ceremonies, sang a queen's song for which she had composed words as introduction to the queen's waltz.

Room and table decorations followed a valentine motif of hearts and cupids and the royal throne had for background an enormous red heart. Pictures of the royal court were displayed against another large heart.

Mrs. Anderson wore an azure organza frock in ballerina length. Mrs. Conklin's gown was of floral blue and Mrs. Zupan wore a shell pink net. To each was given the silver bracelet emblem signifying her royal status. Beta Sigma Phi council of Ashland sponsors the annual Valentine dinner dance.

Music for dancing was furnished by a three-piece orchestra composed of Frank Koch, Carroll Anderson and Mrs. Peters.

Visitors — Recent valley visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bolliger and their three children from San Mateo, Calif. They were guests of Mr. Bolliger's mother, Mrs. Violet M. Bolliger, Talent.

You Should Buy Your Aspirin Here -- Where You Get DRUGTAX

This may come as news to you, but aspirin is one of those drugs that may be of a deductible nature on your federal income tax return.

But to claim it, you must be able to offer proof you bought it.

When you buy it from us, you get that proof. But when you buy it at the corner grocery, or in a department store, or in a restaurant, you are likely to forget about it.

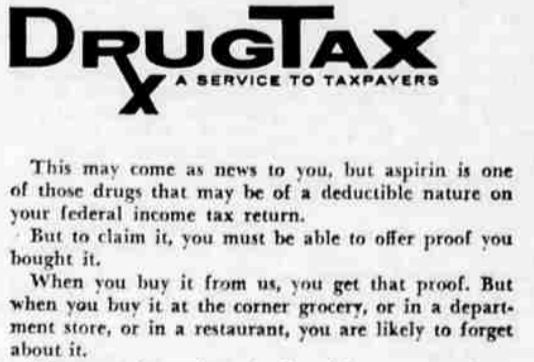

That goes for a lot of other things, too—such as antiseptics, cough and cold preparations, laxatives, and so on.

Our customers like to buy all of their drug supplies from us, because they know they will get the benefit of a complete record of all purchases of a deductible nature.

Our customers get an annual statement (mailed in February) which tells them how much they spent on drugs of a deductible nature. It's called a DrugTax record, and we offer it to our customers free of charge.

Next time you buy aspirin (or any drug item), be sure you're in a store that gives you a DrugTax record. Come income tax time, it can save you money.

Nuptial Mass Is Read For Couple in Yreka

Yreka — A nuptial mass at St. Joseph's Catholic church, Yreka, married Miss Gale Ellen Soule and Peter Robustellini Jr., on Saturday afternoon, February 9. Father John Carroll officiated at the 12 o'clock double-ring rites in the presence of approximately 125 relatives and friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Andrew Soule, Little Shasta, and the late Andrew Soule, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Robustellini Sr., Montague.

Baskets of white stock and chrysanthemums, and lighted white tapers flanked the altar, and arrangements of the same flowers were on the altar.

Alan Soule, Crescent City, escorted his sister down the aisle. The bride was gowned in white Chantilly lace over taffeta, the floor-length full skirt being designed with a chapel length train with a bustle bow at the back of the waist. The Sabrina neckline of the fitted bodice was trimmed with sequins and seed pearls. The bride's elbow length veil of illusion net was edged in lace and held by a half halo crown of sequins and pearls. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, gift of the bride groom. For something old, she carried a handkerchief that had belonged to her great-grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rigdon, and her flowers were a cascade bouquet of white roses.

Miss Jane Mathews, Yreka, and Miss Nancy Robustellini, sister of the bridegroom, served as maid of honor and bridesmaid. They wore identical pink brocade street-length dresses, fashioned with bell-shaped skirts, fitted bodices, and three-quarter length sleeves. They wore matching shoes, and pink whimsy veils in their hair. Each carried a Colonial bouquet of pale yellow carnations.

Best man was Robert Pastega, Weed, cousin of the bridegroom, and guests were seated by David and Phillip Robustellini, brothers of the bridegroom.

Guests gathered at the Yreka Elks club for the wedding reception which followed immediately after the ceremony. The wedding cake was baked by Mrs. Walter Planka, Yreka, and decorated by her daughter, Jeanine, as a gift to the couple. It was cut and served by Mrs. Robert Wilson, a life-long friend of the bride, and Mrs. Oliver Cooley, a cousin. Punch was poured by Mrs. Louise Fasoletti, Yreka, and Mrs. Alan Soule, Crescent City, sister-in-law of the bride. Guests were registered by Miss Mary Ellen Wilson of Copco. In charge of the gift table was Mrs. Ernest Ramirez, Palo Alto, another cousin of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Soule chose a Copenhagen blue sheath crepe dress with matching jacket and accessories, and a pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore an afternoon frock of green print, complemented with bone-white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

For the honeymoon trip to Southern California the new Mrs. Robustellini changed to an apricot sheath dress with matching full length coat, bone accessories and a rose corsage.

The bride, granddaughter of a Little Shasta Valley pioneer couple, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Soule, was born in Yreka and was graduated in 1961 from Yreka High school. She is employed at the Yreka branch of the Bank of America, and will continue her work at the bank until she joins her husband at a later date at an United States Air Force base. Her husband, also a native of Yreka, was graduated from Yreka High school in 1958, and entered the Air Force in January, 1962. He is an airman second class and was stationed at Keesler Air Force base at Biloxi, Miss., until his recent transfer to Vandenberg A.F.B.
