Kapers to Open on Wednesday

Two dentists, a veterinarian, an optometrist, a house trailer salesman and an insurance man—these are the men who give the spark to the second act in the 1963 version of the Kiwanis Kapers.

They are the end men for the minstrel show portion of the Medford Kiwanis club's 15th annual stage production. Drs. Billy Blackstone and Abner Clark are the dentists, Dr. Doug Phillips the veterinarian, Dr. Thomas Anderson the optometrist, Jack Walker the house trailer man and Russ Renner the insurance man.

The show, "Well Flip My Wig," will be presented Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights this week at Medford High school auditorium. Wednesday's show will have 7:30 p.m. curtain time. The others open at 8:15 p.m. Blackstone, Clark and Anderson, past Medford Kiwanis presidents, and Walker all have played Kapers end men in past productions. Renner, known for his abilities as a clown, is this year's vice president of the service club. Phillips is Kapers chairman.

Interlocutor

Frank Perl, funeral home proprietor, known for his past end man performances is the interlocutor for this year's second act.

"Well Flip My Wig," a John B. Rogers production using all local talent under the professional direction of L. Louis (Bob) Gregory is a skit, dance, song and gag-filled show. The first act has eight scenes. Theme is colonial and early-day United States with a modern twist. Such personages as George and Martha Washington, Benjamin Franklin, Betsy Ross, Dolly Madison and Daniel Webster are portrayed.

Vocalists include Mrs. Charles Champlin, Mrs. Truman Nelson, Mrs. A. L. Clay, Mrs. Dorell Huson, Mrs. Otto Emig, Mrs. Richard Jewett, Maynard Hadley, Dennis Barr and Karl Clinkinbeard.

There are dance and song choruses and specialty acts.

Tickets are on sale at Barker's Men's store, Dews' manstore, John Nuich jewelry and West Main barbershop in Medford, the Mark Anthony hotel in Ashland and Central Point pharmacy. Individual Kiwanians are selling tickets. Seats may be reserved at Barker's for Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

All seats are general admission on Wednesday, the only evening that there will be a special student price.

Funeral Services Set on Wednesday For E. H. Hedrick

Funeral services for E. H. Hedrick, 77, retired superintendent of the Medford schools, who died Monday, will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday at First Presbyterian church.

Dr. D. K. West, pastor of the church, will officiate. Interment at Siskiyou Memorial park will be private. Perl Funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Hedrick was born Oct. 24, 1888, near Merlin, Ore. He graduated from Monmouth Normal school in 1909 and began his many years in the field of education. He retired as Medford superintendent in 1953 after serving in that position for 30 years.

He was a member of the Medford Kiwanis club, Masonic lodge, Hillah Temple Shrine, Oregon Historical Society, Jacksonville Museum board of directors, American Legion and several educational organizations.

On June 11, 1923, in Medford, he was married to Helen E. Norcross, who survives.

Other survivors include one son, William N. Hedrick, Winston, Ore.; three daughters, Mrs. Eva E. Richardson, Medford, Mrs. Lola H. Work, Eagle Point, Mrs. Carolyn A. Norton, White City; one brother, Ray N. Hedrick, Drain, Ore.; one sister, Mrs. Mary Richard, Sacramento, Calif., and 10 grandchildren.

Honorary casket bearers will include Charlie Hoover, Herb Grey, Delbert Bergman, Dr. Billy Blackstone, Gene Thomas, Robert Keeney, Scott Brill, Hal Bishop, Glenn L. Jackson, Russell Brown, Sam Colton.

Active casket bearers will be Elliott Becken, Dr. Leonard Mayfield, Glenn Linn, Russ Acheson, Jack Sutton and Judge Edward Kelly.

Friends who wish to honor Mr. Hedrick may donate to the Kiwanis Foundation, a fund, the interest from which goes to child welfare.

Contributions can be mailed to Kiwanis Foundation, post office box 229, Medford.

Locals

Kohler, Gromyko Hold Meeting

Moscow—(UPI)—U.S. Ambassador Roy Kohler met for an hour Monday with Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in an apparent effort to probe Kremlin intentions regarding Russian troops in Cuba.

No immediate information was available on the substance of the discussion but the American Embassy said the talks concerned matters of "bilateral interest."

It described the talks as a "normal resumption of contacts" after Kohler's return here recently from consultations in Washington.

Kohler asked for Monday's meeting and it was known he was anxious to sound out the Russians and also to let them know the extent of Washington's concern about the troop question.

The Soviet is estimated to have 17,000 Russians still in Cuba, about 6,000 of them in combat units. But the Kremlin, in a note to Washington not yet published here, has agreed to remove "several thousand" of them by mid-March.

Ambassador Receives Appointment Today

Washington—(UPI)—Czechoslovakian Ambassador Miloslav Ruzek, who handles Cuban diplomatic affairs here, has requested and received an appointment at the State Department for 2 p.m. PST today.

It appeared he probably would deliver a reply to U.S. protests over last week's Cuban MIG attack on a Florida shrimp boat. Ruzek will see Sterling Cottrell, head of a State Department task force on Cuban policy.
