

Heyman, Bonham, Thacker Top Choices on UPI All-American

By NORMAN MILLER
New York (UPI)—Art Heyman of Duke, the No. 1 prospect in college basketball, and Ron Bonham and Tom Thacker, standouts on top ranked Cincinnati, are the leading choices on the 1963 United Press International All-American team announced today.

Jerry Harkness of Loyola (Ill.) and Gary Bradds of Ohio State are the two other collegians honored in the UPI's annual poll of 247 sports writers and broadcasters throughout the country.

Heyman, regarded a cinch to be the first collegian drafted by the professionals in April, was the most popular choice on the team. The 21-year-old New York youth who migrated to the Carolinas for his education was a first-team choice of 201 voters and a second-team selection of 12 others. His name thus appeared on 86.2 per cent of the ballots cast.

Bonham and Thacker were next in popularity, followed by Harkness and Bradds, in that order.

Drew Five Wins Tilt

Drew's manstore defeated Sambo's restaurant 90 to 71 last night in a Southern Oregon Independent Basketball league game.

George Clearwater of Sambo's was high scorer with 25 points and his teammates Sam Battistone and Fuz McGay each got 16.

John McKinley had 20 points and John Payne for the manstore which had six men in double figures. Only

Stengel Has Hope for Mets Club

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor
St. Petersburg, Fla. (UPI)—Casey Stengel has only one aim this year and that is to keep the New York Mets from becoming "a fraud."

"And that's just what we'll be if we don't do better than last year," claims Stengel, who will be 73 in July. Old Case, after a long and brilliant stint as manager of the Yankees, took over the newly formed Mets at their inception last year and found the going "awfully rough."

They won only 40 games while losing 120, finishing 60½ games behind the pennant winning Giants.

"I can't see how things can be tougher," Stengel sighed. "On the other hand, I'm not kidding myself. We're a long way from becoming a representative major league team."

He isn't giving up hope, however.

Dozen Major Leaguers
"Last year at this time we did not know how many, if any, major league players we had on our roster," he pointed out. "At least we're ahead of the game in that respect this year for we know we have a dozen players who belong."

He didn't name them all but as he rambled on for a few thousand words he said that other clubs were bidding for pitchers Al Jackson, Jay Hook and Roger Craig, outfielders Frank Thomas and Jim Hickman and infielder Charlie Neal.

"The clubs that let those players go in the player draft to stock our new club now want 'em back," Stengel explained. "So it turns out they let them go. But they didn't make enough so far as we are concerned for most of the others we got didn't turn out so good."

Stengel still is hopeful of making some deals. He and President George Weiss are on the phone almost every day talking with other clubs.

NIT Field Completed

New York (UPI)—Officials of the National Invitation tournament have completed the 12-team lineup for the 26th renewal of the college basketball classic.

"Hometown" representation was assured Wednesday when Fordham and St. Francis college of New York accepted bids to close out the field for the March 14-23 tournament at Madison Square Garden.

Previously invited were Wichita, Providence, Canisius, Villanova, Memphis State, St. Louis, Marquette, Miami (Fla.), DePaul and LaSalle.

Rifle League Practice Sunday

Southern Oregon Center Fire Rifle league will hold its first high-power practice shoot Sunday, March 3 at 9 a.m. at the White City Rifle Range.

This shoot is slated as orientation day. All newcomers and interested persons are welcome as the shoot is being held for their benefit.

Range gate is located on Kershaw rd., half-way between Antelope rd. and Corey rd. and will open at 8:30 a.m.

League members are Medford Rifle and Pistol club, VFW Rifle and Pistol clubs, Ashland Gun club, Central Point Sportsmen's club and Medford Marksmen's club.

Further information may be obtained from officials of the above clubs.

Bowling Classic Opens

Houston (UPI)—Defending champion Don Carter will face the field today when 96 bowlers begin rolling in the Professional Bowlers association $20,500 All-Charity classic.

Tomlinson Maintains Score Lead

Howard Tomlinson, Crater high, put in 39 points last week end to retain his Southern Oregon conference basketball scoring lead and become the first league player this season to pass the 300-point total.

Tomlinson has 304 counters. He leads also in free throws with 112 and in per game average with 16 points.

Medford's Jack Forde with 32 points last week remained in second position with 286. Lou Alvarez and Mike Glines, Crater, kept third and fourth positions, respectively. Alvarez has 277 after 36 last week end. Glines added 24 for 260 aggregate.

Forde has 15 points per game mark and Alvarez 14.6. Alvarez has a slim edge in field goals with 114 to 113 by Glines and 112 by Forde. Tabulations are made by Jerry Acklen, sports editor of the Grants Pass Daily Courier.

Represent Top Teams
The All-Americans also come from among the six highest ranking college teams. Cincinnati, Duke and Loyola are rated 1-2-3 by the UPI Board of Coaches and Ohio State is sixth.

Barry Kramer of New York University heads the second team which includes Nate Thurmond of Bowling Green, Rod Thorn of West Virginia, Bill Bradley of Princeton and Cotton Nash of Kentucky. They received votes in that order.

A third team is made up of: Wall Hazzard, UCLA; Dave Stallworth, Wichita; Nick Werkman of Seton Hall, the major college scoring leader; Eddie Miles, Seattle, and Bill Green, Colorado State University.

1962 Deer, Elk Kills Under 1961

Portland (UPI)—A total of 139,700 deer and 10,200 elk were reported killed by hunters last year. Both figures were under 1961 totals.

Phil Schneider, state game director, said the deer total was 24,000 less than the record reported taken by hunters in 1961. He said it was the fourth highest deer kill on record.

Schneider said the elk total was 2,000 less than the record reported taken in 1961. He said 263,800 deer hunters and 53,000 elk hunters went out last year.

Baker, Counts Gain Mention

New York (UPI)—Terry Baker of Oregon State, who won the Heisman Trophy award as the nation's outstanding college football player, won honorable mention honors today on the United Press International All-American basketball team.

Although Baker did not join the Oregon State basketball team until Dec. 21, just one week after he played in the Liberty Bowl football game, he was mentioned on 12 ballots in the UPI All-American poll.

Terry's ball teammate, Mel Counts, also made honorable mention. They were the only two players from Oregon named.

ABC Action Slow on Wednesday

Buffalo, N.Y. (UPI)—Action was slow in both the classic and regular divisions of the American Bowling Congress tournament, Wednesday, as Boonville Bow of Boonville, N.Y., proved to be the only team to move into the high standings.

The Boonville bowlers placed 10th in the regular team division with 2,964.

Still leading the regular division is Saratoga Lanes of Maplewood, Mo., with 3,031 compiled last Saturday.

In the classic division, Minn's Pro Shop of St. Paul, Minn., added 2,812 to the 2,829 rolled Tuesday which gave it a six-game total of 5,661. This places it fourth among the five teams in the classic division.

Far ahead in this category is Helin Tackle from Detroit with 6,157.

Missed Spare
In the minor events, Charles Conti of Akron, Ohio, missed a spare in the singles and had to settle for second place in the regular all-events. With a nine game total of 1,933, Ken Barber of Rogo Park, N.Y., led first with 1,040.

Joe Meszaros of Barborton, Ohio moved into second in the classic singles with 660. The veteran of 20 ABC tournaments had games of 234, 202 and 224. Still leading in that category is Bob Leap of Bedford, Ind., who rolled 672 last Sunday.

In the regular singles, Dan Holtz of Cheektowaga, N.Y., rolled a 699 series to take third place. In first place is Jack Bullis of Bay City, Mich., with 705 rolled Monday.

Joe Joseph of Detroit held the lead in the classic all events with 1,925. Joseph and Billy Golembewski, also of Detroit, too kibe lead in the classic doubles Tuesday with 1,378.

Kart Races On Sunday

Trophy races are scheduled next Sunday, March 3, at Medford Kart ways at the city limits of Medford on Highway 99. All new kart owners are invited to participate in the competition.

Class divisions are determined by time trials. Gates open at 11 a.m. and time trials commence at 1 p.m.

Spectators are welcome. Hot coffee and chocolate at the concession stand.

Tornado Cagers Entertain GP; Crater Slates Ashland Jaunt

With Southern Oregon conference basketball down to that "very crucial" stage of the next to last week end of the regular season, the five conference members take a look at this week's objectives.

Grants Pass fights to hold or stretch its leadership. Medford seeks the lead or a share of it for the first time this season. Crater eyes frontrunner opportunity again. Klamath Falls makes a desperate effort to stay in content. Ashland will try to be a spoiler.

Friday's fare has Grants Pass (8-4) at Medford (8-5) and Ashland (2-11) at Klamath Falls (6-7). On Saturday it will be Crater (8-5) at Ashland and Klamath Falls at Grants Pass.

The championship of the conference is not the only issue of the struggle. In the sights of Crater, Medford, Grants Pass and Klamath Falls are the league's two berths in Oregon's Class A-1 titular tourney.

Single Games
Medford and Crater will make that effort this week to do the most with the least since each has just a single game. Grants Pass has the opportunity to make the most of it — the chance to all but clinch a return trip to Eugene to defend their 1962 state championship.

And, Klamath Falls — The Pelicans, defending league titlists, are hanging on the edge of elimination.

Medford's Black Tornado, riding on a five game winning streak can take a half-game lead in the circuit by defeating Grants Pass tomorrow. The fact that the Hurricane is on a victory surge and that Grants Pass has been showing some of the poise that won the Cavenen last year's state crown is expected to make for a terrific battle here on Friday.

Medford will aim to make it a break even season against the Cavenen who are 2-1 against them this season. Crater seeks a fourth straight verdict over Ashland's Grizzlies.

The Comets of Crater go into the week end with the best full season mark among conference schools. They are 14-5. Medford is next best for all games with 13-6 and GP has a 12-6 mark.

Medford's Black Tornado has been "adding a little more basketball to our repertoire" in preparing for the Grants Pass Cavenen, according to Coach Frank Roelandt. He said that the Tornado is trying to get a couple of new wrinkles in its offense and working at some defensive surprises.

"Gibb Mitchell is looking good in there," Roelandt said. "And, Mike Neathamer is coming along again."

At Central Point, the Crater Comets "started all over again" yesterday after taking Monday off and working lightly on Tuesday. Coach Lloyd Hoffine said. Another good hard practice was planned for today. "Everybody is there and healthy and ready to go," Hoffine said.

Listed starting times for varsity games this week end are 8:15 p.m. at Medford and 8 p.m. at the other locations.

All conflicts will be preceded by sophomore and junior games. Jayvees vie at 6:30 p.m. at Medford on Friday and at Grants Pass on Saturday. Sophomores will mix at 6:30 on other courts. At Ashland and Klamath Falls soph frays will be at 5 p.m.

St. Mary's Holds First

United Press International Sharpshooting Steve Gray had St. Mary's in first place in the tangled West Coast Athletic conference basketball race today.

Gray bucketed 30 points as the Gaels breezed past University of Pacific 78-69 Wednesday night at Stockton. The score is misleading since St. Mary's built up an 18-point lead and coasted home with every man on the squad seeing action.

St. Mary's is now 8-2, while Santa Clara and USF are 7-2 each. St. Mary's is at USF Saturday night.
