Chinese Deliver Harsh Attack on Russian Leaders

Tokyo - (UPI) - Communist China, in one of its harshest attacks, Wednesday accused Russia of imposing economic and political pressures in an effort to force the Peking regime to submit in their rivalry for leadership of the Communist world. The Chinese charged the Russians with "malicious acts" and gross violations of Communist doctrine, and said they would never surrender to the peaceful coexistence policies of Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev. They accused the Russians of "great-nation chauvinism" and of "perfidiously" tearing up hundreds of agreements with the Peking regime because of the ideological dispute. Guilty of "Adventurism" The Chinese said Russia was guilty of "both the error of adventurism and the error of capitulationism" in Cuba and was betraying communism by giving political and material support to India in its border conflict with Red China. They blamed Khrushchev and the Kremlin for the widening rift in the Communist camp, but they agreed with a Soviet call for bilateral and multilateral talks aimed at coordinating policy for the struggle against capitalism. The Chinese argued that the Cuban crisis and the Sino-Indian border dispute proved the correctness of Peking's hard line as opposed to Khrushchev's peaceful coexistence with the capitalist West. Delivered in Editorial The attack was delivered in a 9,000-word editorial in the Peking People's Daily, official newspaper of the Chinese Communist party. Brief excerpts of the editorial were reported by the New China News Agency Tuesday and the full text was broadcast Wednesday. The Moscow-Peking rift has been developing for the past several years, but only in recent months has it reached the point where some Western foreign affairs experts have predicted a possible break in the Communist camp.

Idaho Officials To Pick Up Youths

Authorities from Idaho are expected here today to return to Weiser two juveniles arrested by state police Wednesday morning and charged with escape from the Washington county jail, theft of six cars and two burglaries in Oregon. The two, David Dennis Clark and Mike Gottham, are held in Jackson county jail. Since they are juveniles, both 17 years of age, there will probably be no prosecution of the Oregon offenses, officials here indicated. No warrants had been received from the counties in which the cars were stolen and all had been recovered Thursday. An electric razor, a movie camera and beer were taken from a residence at The Dalles, officers said. The youths admitted robbing a place of business near Hermiston but did not say what they took from it.

They signed papers of extradition Wednesday, and District Attorney Alan Holmes contacted the Washington county sheriff in Idaho, who said authorities would leave there this morning for Medford.

4-H Club News

Fun to Sew The Central Point Fun to Sew 4-H club prepared a display for the library window at the meeting recently. The display will be a street scene of litterbugs with dolls and model cars and will be on display at the Central Point library window during 4-H week March 2 to 10. At our next meeting March 9 a trash can will be painted green and placed near the elementary school. In the near future, a model meeting will be presented for the PTA meeting. The next meeting will be March 9 at 813 Cherry st. at 2 p.m. Jane Ayres, Acting Reporter.

Buzzen Duzzen

The second home meeting of the Buzzen Duzzen 4-H club was held at the home of Christina Yawn recently. The meeting was called to order by the president and roll call was answered with rules of the good manners by each girl. The club decided that they would have a Mothers Tea in May and also a swimming party this summer but no definite plans were made at this time. After the business meeting, the girls worked on their projects. Our next meeting will be held at the Evans Valley school March 4. Judy Gilmore, Reporter.

Goody Cookers

The February meeting of the Jacksonville Goody Cookers 4-H club was held at the home of our leader, Mrs. Dunlap. The main purpose of the meeting was to judge something that each of us baked. We all learned how to correct the mistakes. Many general baking problems were cleared up. We also received some information on the fair. Next meeting our record books will be checked. Our next meeting will be March 9.

Westside Blockers

The February meeting of the Westside Blockers 4-H Sheep club was held at Mrs. Gibson's home in Central Point. The meeting was called to order by President Carolyn Barnes. Flag rolls were led by Janet Lee. Roll call was answered by if we had any lambs yet. There were 13 members and one visitor. The visitor was Mrs. Williamson. New members this year were Georgina Hatfield, Wayne Debrick, Mary Williamson, and Linda Faber. Our community project was discussed. We decided to wait until the spring lamb show to put in a window instead of a window for 4-H week. Reports were given by Susan Truly and Connie Moore. It was moved and seconded that our secretary, Jan Main write a letter of thanks to Jackson County Federal Savings and Loan association and thank them for the 4-H calendars. Clint Gibson gave a report on the feeding program. Carolyn Barnes gave a report on judging sheep in various breeds. Our next meeting will be held at Donna Hammond's March 21. There will also be a day for judging and showmanship at Linda Faber's March 2. The meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served. Janet Lee, Reporter.

Livestock Club

A recent meeting of the Antelope Livestock 4-H club was called to order by Jerry Hansen. Pledges were led by Mike Lehman. Roll was called and minutes were read by Secretary Cheryl Swaim.
