

New Organ Chimes To Be Dedicated At Zion Lutheran

The new organ chimes at Zion Lutheran church, Fourth st. and Oakdale ave., will be dedicated in services Sunday at 11 a.m.

Jesus' Parables Are Theme for Lenten Sermons

The Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the Medford Congregational church, will begin a series of Lenten sermons Sunday. The series, which is entitled "The Parables of Jesus' Last Days," is based on the fact that during the last week or so of his life, Jesus told a number of parables, which were an attempt to interpret to his disciples the significance and meaning of the events that were leading him to the cross.

The chimes were a gift to the church by the late Arthur Scarseth in memory of his wife, Lydia. The dedication had been scheduled last Sunday, but was postponed due to the sudden death of Mr. Scarseth. The chimes will be a memorial to Mr. and Mrs. Scarseth.

Organist for the dedication will be Mrs. Paul Evensen. The 21 note tubular chimes range in size from 1 3/4 inches in diameter and 76 feet long to 1 1/2 inches in diameter and 34 1/2 inches long. They are installed in the pipe organ chamber and are played from the organ manual. Installation was made by Alex Guenther, Portland, official with the M. P. Moller Pipe Organ company of Hagerstown, Md.

During the Sunday service the Rev. Harvey C. Covert will speak on "The Last Mile in Spiritual Fitness." The senior choir will sing the anthem "Thee God We Praise."

Sunday at 4 p.m. the first of a series of instruction classes will be held. These classes are for persons interested in church membership and are conducted by the pastor.

The Senior Luther League will meet at the church at 5:30 p.m. Sunday and will go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Mattson, 1424 South Ivy st., for devotions and their first course of a progressive dinner. From there they will go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard House, 15 Corning ct., for the main course. Dessert will be served to the League members at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arvel Nash, 2075 South Pacific highway.

JOHN T. BURKE From Divinity School

Men's Chorus to Sing at Eastwood

The men's chorus of Berkeley Baptist Divinity School, under the direction of John T. Burke, will give a concert at Eastwood Baptist church Sunday, March 3, at 11 a.m. One of the members of the chorus will also give the Sunday morning message.

Burke is minister of music, including organist and choir director, in the First Baptist church, Oakland, Calif. He is active in the Choral Conductors guild, and has given musical leadership to the American Baptist convention. He is a graduate of Westminster Choir college of Princeton, N. J.

The Eastwood Baptist School of Missions will highlight a study of handicapped children, and a study of aging, entitled "Handicap or Opportunity?" at its 5:30 p.m. session Sunday.

The mid-week service group will take the first half of I Corinthians 15 as a study base Wednesday night.

St. Peter's Events Are Announced

"God Wants New People—Not Just Nice People!" is the sermon topic chosen for Sunday's services at St. Peter's Lutheran church, 1020 East Main st., by the pastor of the church, the Rev. John E. Simon. The services begin at 8:15 and 11 a.m.

The Wednesday evening mid-week Lenten service at 7:30 p.m. will feature a meditation on the hymn, "Rock of Ages," based on I Corinthians 10:4. It will be the second of a series of meditations on great hymns for Lent. During this service the second installment of the Lenten story, as compiled from the four Evangelists, will be read to the congregation.

The young married couples will meet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the church's basement auditorium to organize a Young Married Couples club. Plans for the future will be made and a mutually acceptable time for the future meetings will be set.

During the Sunday school hour at 10 a.m. the adult group will discuss the doctrine of the Trinity. At 7:30 p.m. the adults will continue a study of Mark 13, "The Olivet Discourse." There are classes for all ages at the 10 a.m. hour.

Trinity Baptist church is located at Griffin Creek and South Stage roads. Infants and pre-school children will be cared for during the Sunday school and morning worship services.

Cradle Role To Be Stressed in March By 1st Nazarenes

With the approach of Easter, the Sunday schools of the Church of the Nazarene throughout the denomination are emphasizing the cradle roll. The program is called "Baby of the Week," and will be held from March 3 to April 7.

Mrs. A. F. Stewart, cradle roll supervisor in the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st., has announced that instead of a baby a week secured for the cradle roll during these days, the goal for the Sunday school of First Church is a baby a day. The theme locally will be "Babies of the Week."

New babies added to the cradle roll during the course of each week will be recognized during the Sunday school hour at 9:45 a.m. The baby having the greatest number of relatives present on that Sunday will be called the "Baby of the Week."

At 10:45 a.m. Sunday the pastor, the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, will hold a service of dedication for babies and children.

Sermon Announced
This first Sunday of the Lenten season, Mr. Sanner will give a message at 11 a.m. on the subject "Look to Jesus." Music will be by the sanctuary choir singing "There'll Be One Song," and a soprano solo by Mrs. Rex Vowell, Dean von Stein, and Mel Johnson, and a girls' trio composed of Carolyn Cole, Susan Myers and Cheryl Stewart.

The pastor's subject for the 7 p.m. evangelistic service will be "House of Mercy." Music for the service will be a clarinet solo by Judy Arnold, a vocal solo by Velma Myers, a mixed trio by Mrs. Rex Vowell, Dean von Stein, and Mel Johnson, and a girls' trio composed of Carolyn Cole, Susan Myers and Cheryl Stewart.

Speaker for the Junior church worship will be John Bodenstab, Douglas Delmonte will present a solo.

Next Wednesday the Caravans, which is the boys and girls week day club, will hold a potluck dinner at 6 p.m. for all Caravans and their parents. Following the dinner the potluck ceremony will be held with achievement awards being presented to the eligible children.

Around 30 boys and girls are now members of the Caravan club of First Nazarene. This club is open to all junior age boys and girls who are members of a Nazarene Sunday school.

RLDS Schedules All Day Work Session
An all-day work day is called for Saturday, March 2, beginning at 10 a.m. at the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Tenth and Ivy sts. Plans are to give the classrooms a fresh coat of paint and make necessary repairs. This is to be the first of a planned Spring cleaning program for this year.

Sunday, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the 11 a.m. service. Priest William Gregory will speak on "Sacrifice: A Day of Faith." The serving of communion will be followed by a prayer and testimonial service.

The church follows the practice of close communion, but, while this is true, anyone may attend the service.

The Zion League will hold a study class at the home of their Leader Tom Schuyler, 1014 West Fourth st., Sunday at 5:30 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Gary Sahlgren will conduct the class.

Christian Science Lesson Topic Noted
"Christ Jesus" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon Sunday at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 100 Windsor ave., at 11 a.m.

The text will be from John 14:6 and passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be from Page 37.

Young people up to the age of 20 are invited to attend Sunday school. All are welcome to the services.

Public Lectures Set for Central Point, Shady Cove

"From Palestine to Palomar" will be the first in a series of public lectures to be presented by Duane M. Corwin at the American Legion hall in Central Point, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

Preceding the lecture, which will outline discoveries in archeology and astronomy concerning events mentioned in the Bible, a color film entitled "The Dead Sea Scrolls" will be shown.

Directing the music for the meetings will be Sidney Nelson. Mr. Corwin and Mr. Nelson are associated with the "It is Written" program conducted by George Vandeman which appeared locally on television last year, and they recently concluded a series of lectures in the Medford Armory.

Three Churches List Activities

Central Point—"John Mark, The Man Who Came Back" is the sermon topic at the 11 a.m. service Sunday by Dr. Earl William Benbow, interim pastor at the Central Point Presbyterian church. Nursery care is available during this hour. A get-acquainted fellowship over coffee will follow.

At 8 a.m. Sunday, the men's group will meet for breakfast, which is prepared and served by a committee of men.

The session has scheduled an all-church dinner and meeting for Thursday, March 7. Members and friends are invited to take a covered dish and their own table service at 6:30 p.m.

Jacksonville—"Ancient and Modern Man: A Contrast in Attitudes" will be the title of the sermon to be preached by the Rev. King K. Jones in the First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville, Sunday.

This sermon, drawn from Psalm 8, is a continuation of a series based on the Psalms.

At the 11 a.m. worship service, the choir will sing an anthem entitled "O Lord, How Excellent Thy Name."

A coffee hour will be held following the worship service in the Fellowship hall.

At 7 p.m. in the church, the Men's Study group will meet to study the fifteenth chapter of Acts.

The session will meet on Thursday at 8 p.m.

Phoenix—"Life and Death" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. William Saladin at the Phoenix Presbyterian church at the Sunday worship service. Steve Flixin will play an accordion solo.

Mrs. Jess Sanders will lead the adult discussion group Sunday in the absence of Mr. Saladin who will be conducting services at the Rogue Valley Manor at 7 p.m.

Campaign Ends at Free Methodist

The Junior department of the Free Methodist Sunday school, under the direction of Mrs. Arlene Smith, climaxed a month long attendance campaign with the theme "Jewels for the Lord" last Sunday.

A princess was chosen to represent each class with Frances Willoughby, fourth; Nadine Grimes, fifth; and Linda Steward, sixth grade. The fifth grade class, taught by Roland Johnson, earned the most points during the campaign and their candidate, Nadine Grimes, was crowned queen during ceremonies conducted by the general superintendent, LeRoy Calkins.

Sunday marks the beginning of a nationwide March to Sunday School in March attendance campaign in the Free Methodist Sunday schools. The Medford Sunday school is emphasizing perfect attendance during the month of March and also telephone visitation.

During the morning worship service Pastor Roland Stewart will give a message on the subject "Confessing Christ."

Churches Join For Seminars

A series of Lenten Study seminars will be offered cooperatively by St. Luke's Methodist church and the Medford Congregational church on four Thursday nights, March 7, 14, 21 and 28, during the Lenten season. The study seminars will meet at St. Luke's Methodist church, 2940 Siskiyou Blvd.

Two courses of study will be offered each evening. The first on prayer and devotional life will be led by the Rev. Charles R. McDonald, minister of St. Luke's church, using as a study guide the book "Dimensions of Prayer," by Dr. Douglas Steere. The second course on "The Task and Testing of the Church in Our Time" will be led by the Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the Congregational church, using as a study guide the book by Dr. Oliver Powell, "The Household of Power."

Each evening will begin with a brief vesper service at 7:20 o'clock. The seminars will meet simultaneously from 8:00 to 9:15 p.m., to be followed by a fellowship coffee hour and adjournment at 9:30 p.m.

The Lenten study is open to all interested persons.

Unitarian Group To Hear Sermon

The Rogue Valley Unitarian Fellowship will hear a sermon Sunday by Betty Baker of the New York Community church. It will be read to the group by Carl George, vice chairman. The title is "A Fireplace, a Clock and a Bit of Sky." It deals with religious education in the Unitarian church school.

Mrs. Jean S. Skirvin has announced that she is forming a discussion group which will meet each Sunday from 10:30 to 11 a.m. before the regular service. All members and friends are invited to participate. The fellowship meets at the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne ave., at 11 a.m.

Bethel Assembly Events Are Slated

"The Law and End of Spiritual Progress," the sixth in a series of messages from the Epistle to the Philippians, will be the sermon topic for the 11 a.m. service Sunday at Bethel Assembly of God, 1225 East McAndrews rd. The title of the message for the 7:30 p.m. evangelistic service will be, "The Nature and Necessity of Repentance." The Rev. Lawrence D. Krause, pastor of the church, will speak.

ASHLAND SERMON
Ashland—Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond, minister of First Methodist church, North Main and Laurel sts., Ashland, will speak Sunday at 11 a.m. on "Living With Our Ideals." A coffee hour will follow the service.

Presbyterians to Hear Series at Local Churches

Continuing his series of sermons on Luke, Dr. D. Kirkland West will preach on "Who Is My Neighbor?" at the First Presbyterian church Sunday.

The Senior High choir will sing, "Go Not Far From Me, O God" at the 9:30 a.m. service and the chancel choir will present the anthem at the second service.

At 5 p.m. Sunday a class in church membership for adults will be held. All persons who are planning to unite with the church are invited to attend as well as any visitors. A communicants class for Junior High age, which has been meeting for the last few months will hold a makeup period Monday at 4 p.m. and a final examination Saturday, March 9, from 9 a.m. to noon.

Senior High Fellowship will hear a program on family prayer, conducted by the W. J. Kess commission. Sue Kagy, chairman, Sunday at 7 p.m. They also hold a mid-week potluck dinner each Wednesday at 5:30 p.m.

Junior High Fellowship meets each Tuesday after school at the church for dinner, church school and fellowship.

Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the church there will be a re-run of the talk given by Gov. Mark Hatfield for the Presbyterian Men's club dinner on Feb. 18.

Westminster

The Christian education program of the Westminster Presbyterian church includes classes for all ages of children, youth, and adults. "The Christian Church" is the current study theme.

This week the adult group will continue its study of the doctrinal formulation of the Reformation under John Calvin. Parents taking children to church school are invited to attend the class which is led by the pastor, the Rev. John O. Reynolds.

At the 11 a.m. worship service Mr. Reynolds will continue his series on men of the Old Testament with a sermon entitled "David—Qualities of Greatness." Dick Bates will serve as lay assistant and the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Harvey Field, will sing "Holy Spirit, Truth Divine." Parents may put pre-school children in the church nursery or children from 5 to 10 years in Children's church.

Testimonial Held For Missionary

A farewell testimonial honoring George Larry McDowell son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. McDowell, Antelope rd., Eagle Point, was held last Sunday in the Medford chapel of the Second ward of Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 848 South Ivy st.

McDowell will begin a two year term today in the Southern California mission field which also includes portions of Nevada and Arizona.

He recently completed three semesters at Brigham Young university, Provo, Utah, majoring in psychology and secondary education. During the past semester he was fencing champion at the university's fencing club. He plans to complete his studies there upon the completion of his mission.

McDowell is a graduate of Medford High school.

There are currently seven other members of the Second ward serving in missionary fields.

First Christians Schedule Events

"Disciples of Christ" is the title of the sermon which the Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans will preach Sunday morning at the First Christian church.

At the first service the youth choir will sing "Hear Us, Our Father." The chancel choir will sing "In Sweet Communion" at the 10:55 a.m. service.

Mrs. W. A. Hastain and Mrs. A. W. Denney will be hostesses at the coffee hour.

The fourth session of the Schools of World Outreach will begin at 6 p.m. Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Purdy will have charge of the program at the general assembly with Miss Marilyn Jo Conner giving the devotions. The subject for study in all the classes will be "How We Reach Out in Specialized Services."

A State Christian Youth Fellowship commission is being held at Lebanon today and Saturday. Youth leaders from both the state and national level will take part. Thirteen delegates from the Middlers and CYF groups and four adults will attend from the local church. The Rev. Wendell Wagler of the Medford church will be one of the discussion group leaders.

Tomorrow an activities workshop for all teachers of children and youth will be held at the Grants Pass Christian church from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Mrs. Grover C. Corum will be the leader for the workshop. Those attending are to meet at the church at 8:45 a.m.

Return

The Rev. and Mrs. Benoy Ivey have returned to their home after spending two weeks in California conducting a revival. Mr. Ivey is pastor of Gibbon Acres Pentecostal Church of God, 139 Gibbon rd.

Visitors' Service Scheduled Sunday

Ashland—The Church of Christ, meeting across from Lithia park in Ashland, will have a service for visitors Sunday evening, March 3. The sermon will be: "Restoring New Testament Christianity."

The sermon will be the first in a series of sermons dealing with basic Bible teachings which will be presented the first Sunday evening of each month.

An opportunity will be given the audience to ask questions concerning the Church of Christ and the doctrines taught in it at these particular services.

The sermon for Sunday morning will be, "Are You A Soul Winner?"

Several cottage meetings are now being held by the congregation. The meetings are so arranged that a member of the congregation will go to the home of one who wishes to study the Bible or see films on Bible teachings at a time convenient to the learner. If anyone wishes to arrange for such studies in his home, he may call 482-0424.

GEORGE L. McDOWELL Honored by Church

Methodists to Hear Dr. Crane Sunday Morning

Dr. Gertrude Boyd Crane, former head of the School of Religion at Pacific University, Forest Grove, will preach on "The Saving Choice" at both morning worship services at First Methodist church Sunday.

She has been teaching the Lenten study on "The Dimensions of Prayer" this past week at the church. Her final session will be at 5 p.m. Sunday.

At 9:30 a.m. Gary Frame will sing "He Shall Be Like A Tree" and the youth choir will sing an anthem "Now Let Us All Praise God and Sing."

The altar choir will sing "I Sing the Mighty Power of God" at 11 a.m. The chancel choir will sing "Holy Lord God," by Noble Cain.

Dr. and Mrs. George Roseberry will be in Portland this week end. Dr. Roseberry will preach Sunday at Rose City Park Methodist church for its 50th anniversary celebration. He is a former pastor of the church.

The Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at 6 p.m. with their parents for a potluck and installation of new officers.

The Senior High MYF will meet at 8:30 p.m. with Frank Williams in charge of the program. A fire drill will follow the meeting at the home of Janice Larimer, 925 Mt. Pitt ave.

Monday, March 4, at 7:30 p.m. a church school worshiper's conference will be here. There will be three classes to choose from: "Easter and Children" led by the Rev. Charles McDonald of St. Luke's Methodist church; "Youth and Worship" led by the Rev. Gerald Nelson, associate pastor; and "Understanding Ourselves as Teachers," by Robert Hostetter.

The Methodist Men will have their annual clean-up day at the church Saturday beginning at 7 a.m. and continuing all day.

Rehearsals for the Palm Sunday evening Oratorio "The Holy City," will begin March 3 and continue each Sunday at 3 p.m. They will also rehearse from 8 to 8:45 p.m. on Wednesdays. Any singer who has sung this work, or would like to learn it, is welcome and may contact Mrs. C. R. Adamson, director of music.

Church of Brethren Sermon Topic Noted

The sermon topic for the Rev. William Wash, pastor of the Medford church of the Brethren, 345 North Mary st., for Sunday will be, "The Family at Worship in the Home and Church." The choir will sing, "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee."

Today at 5 o'clock the youth cabinet will leave for Union Creek for youth retreat to continue through Saturday.

Reese Creek Church Sets Youth Revival
