

Vets Reminded Of Tax Exemption On Their Property

Elmer W. Donahoo, Jackson county veterans service officer, has issued a reminder to disabled war veterans and widows of war veterans that they must apply for their annual state property tax exemptions on or before April 1, the legal deadline.

The exemption amounts to $7,500 of the true cash value of the homestead or personal property of the person qualifying.

The application must be filed each year on or before the deadline with the county assessor of the county in which the property is located, Donahoo noted. Any supporting evidence required by law must be submitted before the deadline.

Persons entitled to the exemption include: Any war veterans with a 40 per cent disability or more, as certified by the Veterans Administration or by a branch of the armed forces.

The veteran receiving a total and permanent non-service connected pension from the VA also is entitled, under the law, the same as the veteran with a 40 per cent service connected disability. There is no limit on the amount of income a veteran in this category may receive to be entitled to the exemption.

Also Entitled

Also entitled is the unmarried widow of a war veteran. She must submit proof of her husband's military service and copies of the marriage and death certificates if she has not previously submitted them. There is no income limitation to be considered. Pensioned widows of Spanish American War veterans get an additional $500 exemption on their homesteads, based on taxable value, Donahoo said.

Any honorably discharged veteran of the Spanish American War, the Philippine Insurrection or the Boxer Rebellion, regardless of disability, also is eligible. There is no income limitations to be considered in these cases.

The Jackson county assessor's office is now accepting applications for the property tax exemption.

Any one wishing additional information regarding the tax exemption is advised to contact Donahoo in the Jackson county courthouse.

Concert Set By Lewis, Clark Choir

The Lewis and Clark college choir, Portland, will present a concert starting at 8 p.m. Friday, March 22, at the First Presbyterian church in Medford.

Medford will be the 13th stop in the choir's 15th annual tour of Oregon, California and Nevada.

The choir, which sings without accompaniment, is under the direction of L. Stanley Glarum, chairman of the music department of Lewis and Clark college. Glarum is well-known for his compositions and arrangements, many of which are sung throughout the United States.

The annual tour of the choir is a tradition of the college and audiences have asked return engagements. The repertoire of the choir is composed of outstanding choral compositions both sacred and secular.

As National Presbyterian Choir of the Year in 1962, the 60 singers appeared in concert at the National Assembly of the church last May in Denver.

Among members of the choir is Lynn Peterson, daughter of Harry Peterson, 737 Stevens st., Medford. She is a freshman, a member of the college band, and is one of the college's Singing Pioneers.

Program Will Deal With Rehabilitation

A program discussing problems faced by ex-convicts in finding and keeping jobs, and becoming good members of society, will be aired over KBES-TV at 11:15 p.m. Tuesday.

Appearing on the program will be Circuit Judge Edward C. Kelly, Medford Businessman Charles Bateman, and T. J. Holdt, who heads the rehabilitation program for the state penal institutions under the state board of control.

Many "repeaters" in crime come back to the penitentiary simply because as "ex-cons" they are unable to find work, Holdt explained. The program is designed to give an understanding of the rehabilitation of former offenders, and their needs for employment.

The state rehabilitation program is one year old.
