Kahnert-Thompson Rites

Phoenix—Miss Lorna Gay Thompson became the bride of Otto Carl Kahnert, 129 Kenwood avenue, Medford, in three o'clock afternoon rites Saturday, February 23. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. John E. Simon in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Medford.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Thompson, 410 Rose street, Phoenix, and the late Howard Thompson. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kahnert, New Wells, Mo.

About 120 guests attended the ceremony and reception given by the bride's mother in the church rooms.

Mrs. Keith Thompson, Corvallis, was matron of honor, and Mrs. Raymond Thompson, was a bridesmaid. Both are sisters-in-law of the bride.

Mrs. Ernest Hinkle, Medford, was another bridesmaid.

Deborah Gee, Medford, was the flower girl. Candelights were the Misses Marvis and Janice Franks.

Serving as best man was John Gee and seating the guests were Edwin Froehlich, Medford, and Raymond Thompson.

Brother Escorts Bride

Keith Thompson gave his sister in marriage. Her full length gown was of embossed taffeta with short train and rounded neckline. Her elbow length veil was held from a crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and rosebuds centered with a white orchid.

The attendants' streetlength frocks were of matching embossed taffeta in pink. They wore float veils and carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

The flower girl wore a pink dress with pink hat trimmed with a white velvet bow. The basket which she carried was filled with white chrysanthemums. The candlelighters' ballerina length dresses were white and their wrist corsages pink.

White chrysanthemums and white stock decorated the church.

Friend Sings

Harry Fagg, Fair Oaks, Calif., lifelong friend of the bridegroom, sang the wedding songs accompanied by Mrs. Richard Smith.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Thompson wore a pink dress with lace jacket and light blue accessories. Her corsage was of orchids.

At the reception, Mrs. Gladys Bonner and Mrs. Larry Konkel cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Lillian Hoekstra poured punch and Mrs. Frank Koch served the coffee. Mrs. Ted Franks had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Frank Hunter had made the bride's gown.

The bride is a graduate of Phoenix schools and is a member of the circulation department staff for the Medford Mail Tribune. The bridegroom received his education at New Wells, Mo. He is a builder.

For their wedding trip the couple traveled to the coast. The bride's suit was of blue and tan tweed which she wore with matching hat and black accessories.

The couple is living at the Kenwood street address.

Others from out of town were Elmer Kahnert, Bremerton, Wash., a cousin of the bridegroom; Mrs. Fagg; Mrs. John R. Townsley, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Ethel Koenig, great aunt of the bride; Ray Townsley, her uncle, and Melvin Noakes, a cousin, all of Milwaukee, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Walker, Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dunham, Eugene; and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Griess, Eureka, Calif., former Medford residents.
