

Senior Activity Center Classes Are Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Neptune, formerly of Burlingame, Calif., now of the Rogue Valley Manor, will show colored slides Monday, March 4, of a trip through southern California.

The event will be the Arm Chair Travelers and will be held at the Senior Activity center beginning at 1 p.m.

The pictures will include scenes taken of Death Valley, Palm Springs, and San Simon castle and grounds.

Last week Mrs. Clarence Miller showed the group pictures of castles of Europe.

Mrs. Karl J. Knutson has consented to assist Mrs. Lillian Greenman as hostess for the Arm Chair Travelers. Dr. Frank Roberts, leader, is now convalescing after surgery.

Knitting Class
Various men in the group are helping to put the room in order for the knitting class which meets at 3 p.m. This class, taught by Mrs. Edward Barnett, has increased 100 per cent since it started in October.

More than half of the group had never knitted before, but have already finished sweaters, children's muff and cap sets, booties, bedroom slippers, knitting bags, stoles, pot holders, and are starting hats. Newcomers and beginners can still enter the group, according to Mrs. Barnett.

The Spanish class, which meets regularly each Monday morning, will have available some Spanish language records to use tomorrow as an aid to better pronunciation and practice in understanding the spoken language. This is now possible because a phonograph has been given the center.

Tuesday, March 4, the mosaic class will reconvene from 10 a.m. until noon with the teacher, Mrs. Laura Whitchee.

All the arts and crafts classes have been asked to take part in a Hobby show in the Talent City hall on March 16 and both the mosaic and copper tooling classes expect to have entries.

Four Planned
Mrs. Wanda Williams, oil painting class teacher, will be present Tuesday, March 4, for the 1 to 3 p.m. session. She has suggested that the group make a tour during the afternoon of the present exhibit of old masters at the Rogue Gallery.

Any persons using the center, who wish to accompany the group to the art gallery, are welcome to do so. They may find out the time by calling the center, 772-4163, Tuesday after 1 p.m.

The square dancing class ended last week and will resume in the fall with Mrs. Gene Chamberlain as teacher. The group has learned a number of square, singing, and circle dances during the weekly sessions from October to February.

This period will be open for some new activity and suggestions for new classes may be left at the center desk. All other classes—shuffleboard, copper tooling, orchestra, bridge and singing—will continue.

The Singing Seniors welcome new members and every one who likes to sing may drop in at the center this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.
