Co-chairmen for the show are Mrs. Ruth Boyd, Mrs. George Hartley and Mrs. Carl Norris. Advertising and printing chairmen are Mrs. Richard Travis and Eldred Peyton; entries, Mrs. Ronald Axtell and Mrs. Gaston Floux; educational table, Roy Arthur; hospitality and registration, Clarence Miller and Mrs. Jesse Wilson. Show judges will be arranged for by Mrs. Edith Updike; music will be under direction of Mrs. H. U. Walters. The old rose division will be headed by Mrs. H. E. Peyton and publicity is to be done by Dr. Earl Benbow. Placements will be directed by W. R. Peabody and Mrs. Elton Waldron. Properties and staging will be handled by Mr. Axtell and Mrs. Peabody; posters will be done by Mrs. George Renaker; the silver tea arranged by Mrs. Clarence Miller, and the show schedule will be planned by Mrs. George Hartley and Mrs. Norris. Trophies and awards will be obtained by Mrs. Vaughn Quackenbush and Mrs. Olin V. Poe. Further show plans are to be announced. Guests at the recent meeting were Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Snook, John Wisely, H. E. Peyton and Mrs. C. L. Morehouse, all Medford, and Ralph Edwards and Mr. Floux, Central Point.

During the program Mrs. Peabody gave identifying characteristics of three roses highly favored by growers in the area, Pink Favorite, Tanya and First Love. John McLoughlin, main speaker, gave an illustrated talk on pruning. Eldred Peyton gave tips on pruning for exhibition and suggested pruning canes at different lengths to give the exhibitor a better chance of having a rose at the proper stage of development at show time.

Gold Hill Club Anniversary Is Observed

Gold Hill - Charter members of Amethyst Rebekah Friendship club were honored recently in observance of the 10th anniversary of the group. At the annual dinner meeting held at North's Chuck Wagon restaurant, in Medford, Mrs. Evert Jennings, 1963 president paid them a surprise tribute she had arranged. Corsages she had made for the occasion were presented to Mrs. Donald Morrow, Mrs. Paul Molloy, Mrs. C. Clyde Kell, Mrs. Clarence Parsley, and Mrs. Harry Quinn, all past presidents of the club.

Mrs. Cassie Johnson, vice president for 1963, assisted Mrs. Jennings with table decorations. Other new officers of the club are Mrs. L. L. Martin, secretary and Mrs. Molloy, treasurer. Also present for the occasion were Mrs. William Gossman, retiring president; Mrs. Herchel Robertson, and Mrs. Charles Whitlock.

The first meeting of Amethyst Rebekah Friendship club was held at the home of Mrs. John Cogswell, on January 22, 1953. On that date Mrs. C. Clyde Kell was elected president of the new club. Other elective officers were Mrs. Delos Walker, vice president; Mrs. Donald Hodges, secretary; Mrs. Harry Quinn, treasurer; and Mrs. Donald Morrow, financial secretary. Mrs. Kell's appointive officers for that year were Mrs. Ferd Jones, chaplain; Mrs. Roy Centers, cards and flowers; Mrs. Blanche Merriman, secret pal chairman; and Mrs. Cogswell, good of the order chairman.

There were 24 original charter members. Nine of those members have moved away from Gold Hill. Mrs. Jennings will be hostess for the club at the home of Mrs. Clarence Parsley on Monday, March 18 at 8 p.m.

Packing Tips for Air Travelers To Be Given

The perplexing problems facing every woman who plans a trip by air as to what she should wear and how to pack to meet airline weight limitations will be answered by Miss Mary Gordon, TWA's Travel advisor Wednesday. She will appear before the Medford branch of the American Association of University Women at the Red Cross building March 6 at 8 p.m. In a talk entitled "44 Pounds to Anywhere" Miss Gordon will demonstrate the ease of packing for a trip of from two to six weeks to anywhere in the world in actually under 40 pounds of luggage.

A world traveler who has experienced more than a million miles of air travel to Europe, Asia and Africa, Miss Gordon emphasizes basic wardrobes and the subtle use of accessories to make a woman feel at home whether sipping fine wines at a sidewalk cafe or visiting a reception in the home of an American ambassador. Because this subject is of such general interest, AAUW invites all potential travelers who would like to hear Miss Gordon to attend the meeting, and members may take guests.

There will be a short business meeting with election of officers.

The International Relations interest group sponsored by the Medford branch, American Association of University Women will meet Monday, March 4, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ray Castlerline, 45 South Modoc drive, Miss Nik Yahya, an exchange student from Malaya, will be the guest speaker. Anyone interested may attend the meeting and take guests. Further information about the meeting may be obtained by contacting the Study Group Coordinator, Mrs. Alan S. Markee, 773-3046.

Miss Mary Gordon, TWA's Travel advisor, will demonstrate how to pack for a trip taking less than 40 pounds of luggage at a meeting in Medford Wednesday evening.

Art of Bonsai Will Be Subject

Bonsai, an old art used in a new way, will be the subject of a talk by Delmar Smith before members of the Medford Garden club Thursday, March 7 at 1:30 p.m. in the Jackson County courthouse. Mrs. Mary O. Weber will give the horticulture lesson on sweet gum or liquid amber trees. How to achieve balance in flower arrangements will be the topic of Mrs. L. P. Rentchler.

Tea chairman will be Mrs. Herbert A. Sims. No board meeting is planned for the month.

Conduct Ceremony At Lodge Meeting

Central Point - Ashland Rebekah lodge women conducted a friendship ceremony during a recent meeting of the Mt. Pitt Rebekah lodge. Mrs. William P. Wheeler and Miss Edith Vier were initiated into the lodge and Mrs. Grace Stafford of Nebraska was a guest.

The Mt. Pitt Rebekahs will entertain Crater basketball team members at a banquet March 14. Mr. and Mrs. Edward McKinstry, formerly of Medford and now of Hillsboro, Ore., spent last week end in the valley as guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Walker, Central Point. Mr. McKinstry is now engineer for Washington county, and Mrs. McKinstry teaches part-time in the Hillsboro public school system.
