

Five Extension Units Plan Meetings This Week

During March most of the Home Extension units in Jackson county will learn how to make custom made draperies. Mrs. Gilbert Munden, owner of a local drapery shop, instructed the project leaders on the proper methods of measuring, cutting, and the various steps of sewing draperies.

Miss Joan Beasley, home extension agent, will continue visiting some of the units this month to present the information on wills and estates. The units who received this information last month will have the program on "When Widowhood Comes."

Five units have scheduled meetings in Jackson county this week.

Griffin Creek
The Griffin Creek Home Extension unit will meet Wednesday, March 6, at the Griffin Creek Grange hall, at 10:30 a.m. The meeting date for the unit has been changed from the first Friday of the month to the first Wednesday.

Mrs. Oral T. Harshman and Mrs. Arthur D. Savage will present the lesson on "When Widowhood Comes."

At the morning business session final plans will be made for a rummage sale which will be March 19. All proceeds will go to 4-H scholarships and the grant-in-aid fund for home economic students at Oregon State University.

A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon. Hostesses for the day are Mrs. Paul Doe and Mrs. Blanche Powell.

Lake Creek
Lake Creek Extension unit will meet on Wednesday, March 6, at the home of Mrs. Edmond Armitage, Brownsboro. The lesson, "Wills and Estates" will be given by Miss Beasley. The meeting opens at 10:30 a.m.

For information concerning the menu contact Mrs. Henry Meyer. Table service is required for each person attending.

A kaffeeklatsch was recently held at the home of Mrs. Fred Osterman. Mrs. Karl Goshorn showed pictures that were taken of the ceramic tile workshop. Much interest was expressed and several women are making articles to be shown at the Spring Festival, it was stated. Mrs. Meyer displayed a picture of seeds made by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Leland Meyer, Eagle Point.

Upper Applegate Extension unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Rolland Smith Wednesday, March 6, at 10:30 a.m. Mrs. Wilfred Pearson and Mrs. Edna Sawyer will give the project, "When Widowhood Comes." Projects will be a month behind schedule until the end of the club year owing to the agent having presented a topic last month which had been scheduled for May.

Those attending are to take a sack lunch, and child care will be provided.

Reese Creek
"Wills and Estates" will be the project lesson for the Thursday, March 7, meeting of the Reese Creek Home Extension unit. Miss Beasley will give the lesson at 10 a.m. Members are reminded of the change to morning for this month's lesson, rather than afternoon.

The home of Mrs. W. E. Hammel, on Hammel road, is the meeting place. Luncheon hostesses will be Mrs. Hammel and Mrs. Earle E. McGraw. Luncheon is served at a nominal charge.

Child care will be available for a small fee, by calling Mrs. Willis Morrison, 826-2031, no later than Monday, March 4.

Sixty-Fifth Anniversary Observed at Open House

Jacksonville—Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Brown, Knowles road, were honored February 24 on the occasion of their sixty-fifth wedding anniversary. Their daughters, Mrs. James Smith, Talenti, and Mrs. Thomas Feris, Brush Prairie, Wash., entertained at open house for their parents, held in the Pathfinder hall at Rogue River academy.

A dinner was served for the family preceding the open house program which was given by members of the family, members of the Seventh-day Adventist church and others. Included on the program were songs by the church's pastor, Elder Arvin Winkle.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Brown and daughter, Farmington, Wash.; Mr. Feris, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown, Lake Creek, Ore.; Mrs. Guy Campbell, Gaston, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown and daughter and her children, Edwin Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Verner Stratton and daughter, Mrs. Lyle Schaer, all Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Farrell Brown and son, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown and children, Madras,

Ore.; and Mrs. Jerry Myer and daughter from Boring, Ore. A son, Glen Brown, Keene, Tex., could not be here but talked with his parents by long distance telephone.

The hall was decorated with flowers arranged in vases of India brass and Holland china. Decorations also included a silver washed bowl from Egypt.

Also on the club dinner program was Mrs. Marion Downs, guest of Dr. and Mrs. P. Malcolm Hammond. Mrs. Downs sang several numbers. She recently presented three concerts in the valley, one at Southern Oregon college and the others at the First Methodist churches in Ashland and Medford.

The club's regular meeting was held February 25 at the home of Mrs. William Beagle, 475 Nevada street, with Mrs. Alice Willis presiding and Mrs. Frank Davis giving the book review.

"My Land and My People" by the fourteenth Dalai Lama of Tibet, is the story of a people faced with Communist invasion and their struggle to keep some vestige of independence. The young Buddhist priest was called upon to lead the Tibetans when Red China forces threatened. Although opposed to violence, feeling ran so high that the Dalai Lama fled from the palace to prevent a possible massacre and traveled across the Himalayas to asylum in India.

A study by an international committee of jurists of the Communist atrocities in Tibet has revealed unbelievable horrors that the author says should serve as a grim warning to the world. Despite its sombre tone the book is written in a gentle forgiving spirit, Mrs. Davis said.

Registrations for the August event are being accepted and 12 callers have selected to call for the three major dances.

MANOR-ISMS . . . .

By ETHELYN EVANS

The Manor club and lecture rooms were used for a large meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary teachers' sorority. The teachers came from all over Jackson county and several from Grants Pass.

Manor members of this sorority who entertained are Miss Ina Smith, Miss Annette Gray, Miss Ruth Nye and Mrs. Percy Wells. Also, Mrs. Myrtle Murdock, Mrs. W. K. Fisher, Miss Beth Olson and Miss Kathryn Hornbrook attended as guests. They belong to chapters in their home states.

Invitations to several Manor parties reminds me that, indubitably, many Manor members love to cook. After considerable practice and experience, they have become excellent cooks—and know it. Consequently, it would be misjudging human nature to place such people in an apartment with a modern, well-equipped kitchen and expect them not to cook. Add to the devotees of the hobby the women who are born party-givers and there one does have a combination.

I offer this as an explanation to a number of valley friends who so often remark that they always find crowds of "Manorites" buying food in all the produce markets; or they watch us filling our parked cars with provisions; or they see us waiting for the Manor bus with laden arms.

In the limited space of a column, I can, of course, mention only a very few of my friends who excess in this cooking and party giving. There is, also, the lady of the "yummy" jams and jellies—Mrs. Augusta Hayden. All summer long she hauled in full crates of berries and other fruit, and now has at least 150 jars of the preserved product stored for future use. All these in addition to the many pints she has served to more than 100 guests, and she serves them with hot, homemade bread.

Newcomers Join Medford Club

Four newcomers became members of the Medford Sojourners club during the February 28 meeting in the Girls Community club. They are Mrs. Clara Kirsch, Mrs. Russell Barry, Mrs. L. Peter Soots and Mrs. Elver Stultz.

Attending for the first time were Mrs. Al Bishop, Mrs. Charles Cooley and Mrs. J. Hughes.

The afternoon was spent playing cards. Prizes were won by Mrs. William Wertz, Mrs. C. W. Booth, Mrs. Clara Donelson, Mrs. Soots, Mrs. Carrie Walters, and Mrs. W. R. Wood; and Mrs. Alfred Costello, who won a special prize.

Hostesses were Mrs. Grace Todd, Mrs. Walter Hatch and Mrs. Ethian Fordyce. A topiary tree was used as a centerpiece. Fifty-two women attended.

Lesson on Doctrine Scheduled Tuesday For Relief Society

Mrs. Dwaine E. Nelson will give the theology lesson Tuesday, March 5, at the Relief society meeting of the Second ward, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The meeting will begin at 10 a.m. at the church, 648 South Ivy street.

The lesson will be from the Doctrine and Covenants "The Waters and the Land." She will discuss the belief that while one of the signs of the last days is destruction on the waters, the Lord warns and protects the faithful.

All women of the area are invited to attend. A nursery is provided.
