

Dog Owners Throng To Clerk's Office

Jackson county dog owners were rushing the county clerk's office Thursday and again Friday until closing time, many with late thoughts of Fido, who had to be licensed by 5 p.m. Friday or pay a penalty.

Thursday's dog license business topped $1,273 and shortly before 5 p.m. Friday more than 300 licenses had been sold for the day. The money had not been counted. Since the licenses were still $2 and $3, ($2 for males and $3 for females) the take was at least $600.

The applications mailed in had not been processed so the total would run far beyond the $1,800 represented in over - the - counter sales.

Urge Trash Burning Prior To April 1

Burning permits will be required in all areas protected by the Oregon State Forestry department after April 1, the local office announced Saturday.

"This is the time to clean up and burn the winter accumulation of debris," the State Forestry reminder stated.

Weather conditions are ideal for burning trash without endangering property. After April 1, the law specifies, no one will be allowed to set fires without a burning permit.

Moustache Group Forms in Valley

Organization of a Southern Oregon Moustache association with a membership of 17 was reported in Medford Saturday. The meeting for election of officers was held last week at the Holland hotel.

Wayne Johnson was elected leader of the association and will be known as the Grand Loma, leader of the moustache association, a spokesman said.

The purpose of the association, which will be known by the initials, SOMA, is to encourage the growth of "hirsute adornment of the upper lip," members reported. The association theme song is "Soma These Days." The next meeting will be held Thursday, March 7, at 8 p.m.

ROSS DICKINSON Essay Contest Winner

McLoughlin Student Winner of Contest

Ross Dickinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dickinson, 506 South Peach st., Medford, has been named winner in the local American Legion auxiliary essay contest.

Ross, a ninth grade student at McLoughlin Junior High school, will have his name engraved on the plaque which will remain in his school for another year. With his parents, he will be a guest at the American Legion Birthday dinner March 16, at which time he will read his essay and be presented a medallion and cash prize.

The winning essay by the Medford student will be entered in state competition. Mrs. Leon Haskins is chairman of the contest for auxiliary. The topic for this year is "Americanism, TNT-Today, not Tomorrow." About 350 junior high school students entered essays on the subject and 41 were selected by their teachers to be considered by the judges.

The judges were Mrs. Thelda Bevens and Riley Winchell of the Medford High school faculty.

Twice in the past three years, the winning essay in Medford has been the first place winner in the state contest.
