

ONC Scholarship Applications Are Available in Area

High school students who will graduate this spring from Jackson county schools have the opportunity to apply for the $500 "Step to Knowledge" scholarship sponsored by ONC Motor Freight System, according to the company's representative, C. C. Proctor, Medford.

The program is open to graduating students in more than 200 schools throughout California, Nevada, Oregon and Washington and will award 35 students who plan to attend a college or university next fall with $500 scholarship grants, Proctor said.

Information and applications for students in this area are in the hands of the principals at the participating schools.

Will Be Selected
The winning student will be selected by a judging committee comprised of local business men with Alf B. Mckvold, Jackson county school superintendent as chairman. Applications will be judged on scholastic standing and achievement, extra curricular activities and educational aptitude.

All applications must be submitted to the principal of the applicant's high school by May 1. The $500 educational grant will be made through ONC's Medford terminal.

Carroll J. Roush, president of ONC said that "1963 is the fifth year for the 'Step to Knowledge' scholarship program, and we are extremely pleased to be able to offer this educational assistance to young people just starting their college educations. We feel the security of the nation's future lies with today's youth, who are able to utilize our vast educational facilities. Private enterprise makes a sound investment in giving every encouragement to students wanting to attain higher educational levels."

Grant Issued for Wood Products

Washington—UPI—The Area Development Administration Monday issued a $10,000 grant for a forest and wood products study in 10 Oregon counties.

Rep. Walter Norblad (R-Ore.), said the study was for the purpose of attending better utilization of wood products.

Counties involved are Clatsop, Columbia, Yamhill, Clackamas, Marion, Polk, Tillamook, Washington, Hood River and Multnomah.

DIES—Dr. William Carlos Williams, 79, poet, novelist, and playwright, died at his home in Rutherford, N.J., Monday after suffering a stroke. Williams, a practicing physician until his retirement eight years ago, was recently nominated in West Germany for an award as one of the world's foremost modern poets. He won the National Book Award for Poetry in 1950 and many other awards. (UPI)

Ambulance Measure Virtually Repealed

Salem—UPI—An unpopular law providing for regulation of ambulances was virtually repealed today.

The Senate voted 29-1 to repeal the 1961 act. The bill, which passed the House earlier, went to the governor for his signature.

The 1961 law brought protests from numerous small communities, whose officials said it would eliminate the informal ambulance services they have had to rely on.

The House Highways committee, meanwhile, has been holding hearings in an effort to draft a more acceptable law.

Oregon Men Get Conservation Pins

Detroit, Mich.—UPI—Three Oregon men have been named as winners of American Motors Conservation Awards for 1962. It was announced Monday.

They are Rollin Bowles and John W. McKean of Portland and LaSelle Coles, Prineville. Both Bowles and McKean have served with the State Game Commission and Coles has been president of the National Reclamation association for the past three years. The firm said only 20 individual awards were made nationally each year. Awards go to those who perform outstanding services in the conservation field.

Annual Meeting Of United Fund Set on March 14

The United Crusade 10th annual meeting will be held March 14 at the Hedrick Junior High school cafeteria, according to Douglas F. Gordon, United Crusade president.

The meeting will start at 6:30 p.m. Dinner will be prepared by the public schools cafeteria service under the supervision of Mrs. Virginia Wait. The Medford High school sophomore choir, directed by Lynn Sjolund, will provide entertainment.

Dr. Arthur Kreisman, director of general studies, division of humanities at Southern Oregon college, will speak.

Business to be conducted includes election of five new members to the board of directors, and presentation to contributing members of the United Crusade a report covering the activities of the board and its stewardship of contributions for the preceding year.

The United Crusade is incorporated under the laws of Oregon as a non-profit corporation to organize and conduct one campaign each year to raise operating funds for health and welfare member agencies, and to relieve the community of the burden of independent campaigns by the agencies.

Members of the corporation are contributors, agency members, honorary members, and the corporation's directors, and its chapters. Each contributor to the United Crusade is a member from the date of his contribution to the close of the next campaign conducted by the Crusade. Everyone, whether a contributing member or an interested citizen, is welcome to attend the annual meeting.

Campaign awards will be given to more than 20 workers for outstanding achievement in the last campaign. At the conclusion, the board of directors will conduct a short meeting to elect new officers.

Reservations for the annual meeting may be made by writing the United Crusade, 405 Leverette building, or by telephoning 773-4287.

Church Equipment Gone After Sermon

Jacksonville, Fla.—UPI—Evangelist Don Chenoweth in his sermon at Berea Baptist church Sunday night quoted from St. Luke about the good man who would have kept watch if he had known what hour the thief would come.

Police Monday issued a three-state alarm for three men and five women who heard the sermon. They were wanted for returning to the church after the sermon and stealing $1,700 in equipment.

GRINS WHILE READING—Bertram Powers, head of Local 6, International Typographical Union, grins as he reads copy of New York Post, which went back on the newsstands Monday. The Post broke off with the New York Publishers association Feb. 28 to get back into business. Powers and other ITU representatives were to continue negotiations with the eight other members of the association, which are still not publishing in the 87-day-old strike of printers. (UPI)

Poet-Doctor Dies Of Stroke Monday

Rutherford, N.J.—UPI—The world of letters paid homage today to the memory of Dr. William Carlos Williams as one of the century's great poets, while this quiet New Jersey community remembered him as a skilled physician.

He was both. Williams, 79, who died of a stroke Monday, retired as a practicing doctor eight years ago, but never stopped writing poetry.

He was the fifth major American literary figure to die within two years, the others being novelists Ernest Hemingway and William Faulkner and poets Robert Frost and e.e. cummings. Williams' first book of poems, published in 1909, sold only four copies. But in 1946 he was recognized as a major poet with the publication of the first volume of the five-book epic, "Paterson," which celebrated the life and history of the New Jersey city. "Paterson" won the National Book Award in 1950.

ENTRY INEVITABLE
Washington—UPI—Common Market President Walter Hallstein said Monday he has assured President Kennedy that Britain's entry into the European Common Market is inevitable. "We start from the assumption that Britain will enter it," Hallstein said.

Attempt to Kill Hussein Stopped

Beirut, Lebanon—UPI—Jordanian authorities have nipped a plot by "pro-Nasser elements" to assassinate King Hussein of Jordan, authoritative reports reaching here said Monday.

The king, 27, was to have been shot last week while attending public prayers in connection with the Moslem Feast of Ramadan in a mosque in the Jordanian capital of Amman, according to the reports.

Hussein's grandfather, King Abdullah, was killed in the same way in a Jerusalem mosque July 20, 1951. Abdullah's assassins were described as a pro-Egyptian band. Two of them fled to Cairo.

The reports said that Hussein was to have been shot Sunday morning, Feb. 24, in the wake of the revolution in neighboring Iraq. Premier Abdel Karim Kassem was overthrown and executed in the Iraq revolution.

Following Hussein's assassination, rebel military elements were to occupy key points in the capital, chiefly Radio Amman, and announce a new regime in the classic pattern of the Middle East. But authorities had been expecting trouble following the Iraq revolt and learned details of the plot 24 hours before it was to have been executed, according to the reports.

Brown Re-elected as Metro YMCA President

Russell F. McNeill, former president, was re-elected chairman of the board of directors.

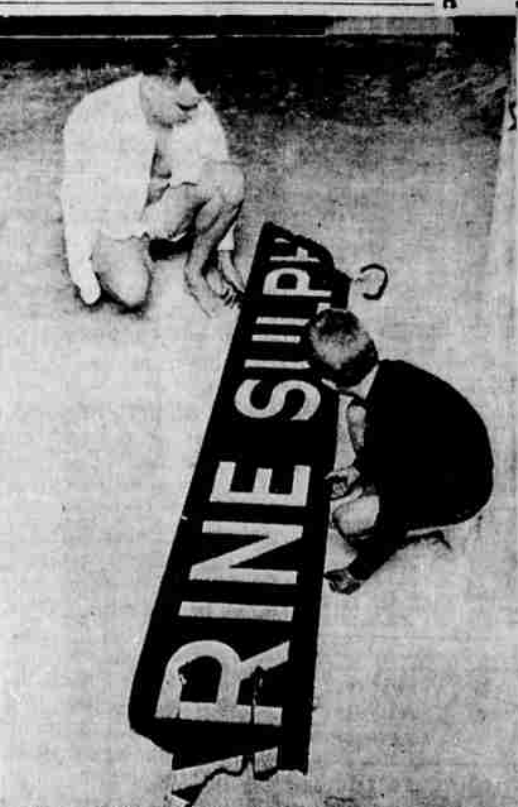

Washington House Passes Daylight Bill

Olympia—UPI—Gov. Albert D. Rosellini Monday could add another month to daylight saving time each summer with a stroke of his pen.

The House Saturday passed by a 72-18 vote and sent to the governor a bill extending daylight time through the last Sunday in October.

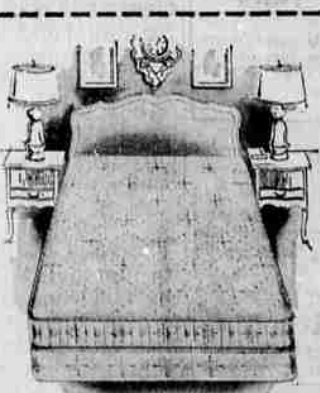

Rep. Alfred E. Ireland, (R-Kirkland) said the measure would bring Washington law into conformity with most other states.

All suspects were rounded up quietly on the night of Feb. 23-24. The number arrested was not disclosed.

BOARD FOUND—John Allmand and his son, John, Jr., found a board thought to be from the bridge of the missing tanker, Marine Sulphur Queen. The Miamians on a Sunday stroll found the board washed up on the beach. The tanker has been missing since Feb. 2. (UPI)
