Townsend Club District Council Holds Meeting

Three officers of the Fourth district council of the Townsend club conducted a council meeting in Medford Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ida Kelly, 18 Quince street. The Mt. Pitt chapter of the club, recently reorganized here, meets Sundays in the homes of members.

Here were Bert Shaver, Lebanon, Ore., council president; Harlan Talbert, Albany, Ore., first vice-president and Mrs. Florence Boussum, Medford, fourth district secretary. Also here was Finis L. Snodgrass, Portland, state director.

Earl Barnes, Ashland, Mrs. Shaver, Lebanon, and A. W. Ellison served as council members.

A potluck luncheon followed the business meeting and Mr. Snodgrass spoke, stressing the importance of a national insurance plan bill now before the congress. Purpose of the plan is to abolish poverty in the United States, the sponsors state.

Other visitors at the meeting included Elva and Lloyd Shaver, Lebanon.

The next district meeting will be May 5 in Coos Bay.

Rules for Supermarket Carts Listed by Council

By PATRICIA MCGORMACK

New York - UP - Pushy personalities don't heed rules of the aisle in supermarkets. They cause upsetting situations - and sometimes skinshins. The problem of proper deportment while pushing a supermarket cart first was noticed only by poor injured fellow shoppers.

But the way the innocent pusher's being bumped and bruised by thoughtless cart pushers now has become a matter of public safety, as the Greater New York Safety Council sees it.

As a community service, the council has drawn up a code for supermarket characters. It applies nationwide.

Many rules of the road apply in piloting a cart through the produce, meat and sweets department.

Aisle Hogs

Aisle hogs, for example, are something like road hogs. Then there are the supermarket tailgaters. They cause rear-end collisions just as automotive tailgaters cause smash ups.

Ditto for unsettling conditions caused by cart pushers who pass without observing S.O.P. - simple, ordinary politeness.

Rules of the aisle suggested by the council include the following:

- Gentle that cart. The aisle isn't a drag race strip. And don't park the cart in the middle of a traffic lane while you shop elsewhere.

- Avoid cutting through the checkout lines. If in a hurry, try going around through less crowded aisles.

- If you want to pass, try a simple "excuse me." It gets better results than brute force.

- Keep both feet under you - not stretched behind - when you bend down for something on a low shelf or pause to meditate about selections.

Yreka PTA Observes Anniversary

Yreka - The Yreka Elementary Parent Teachers association observed the sixty-sixth anniversary of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, and the forty-third anniversary of the Yreka Elementary unit recently with a program in the multi-purpose room of the Jackson street school.

Fred Burton Sr. was awarded an honorary life membership in the association, presented by Mrs. William Brahs, honorary life chairman.

Mr. Burton, who will be 85 years old March 25, was born in Scott Valley and has always lived here with the exception of a short time in Alaska. He bought Forest house, which now is a landmark, 53 years ago and has lived there since. Forest house situated on Fort Jones road, was the stopping place for travelers in the early days.

Mr. Burton served on the Greenhorn district school board until the school closed. The building still is in use as a meeting place. At Forest house grounds, Mr. Burton in 1930 gave the Boy Scouts a camp site which they still use, and now the Girl Scouts also use it. The site is also used for church picnics and many other functions.

The flag ceremony was given by Pack 36 Cub Scouts under the leadership of Mrs. Jean Coates, den mother. Several selections were sung by the seventh and eighth grade Glee club, directed by Dan Soares.

Following a business meeting presided over by Mrs. Robert Jenott, president, Mrs. Karl Oloven, district president, was introduced and spoke on the meaning of Founders day. The National Congress of Parents and Teachers was founded in 1897 by a Mrs. Birney and a Mrs. Hearst. The Yreka Parent Teacher association, now called the Yreka Elementary Parent Teacher association, was organized May 14, 1920, with Mrs. Claude E. Gillis, Yreka, the first president. It became affiliated with the national, state and district Congress of Parents and Teachers in 1930.

Mrs. Fred Meamber, introduced some of the past presidents, and spoke of the early meetings of the Yreka unit taken from a history book compiled by Mrs. Helen Hitchcock. Mrs. Meamber told of the problems of those first members which were much the same as the present day problems, and their methods of fund raising.

Recipes Published In Magazine

The March issue of Sunset Magazine features recipes for two Mexican main dish sandwiches submitted by Mrs. Thomas N. Billings, 524 North Berkeley way, Medford.

Until her marriage to Mr. Billings, she lived in southern California where she early acquired a taste for Mexican food. Native Mexican foods were commonly served in her family's home, prepared by Mexican women employed there.

Her recipe for Chile Relleno Sandwiches is an adaptation from a more complete entree recipe for Chile Relleno, the sandwich version furnished by Mrs. Billings being much more easily and quickly prepared. The original recipe is one which she had clipped from a newspaper when she was a young girl and has kept during the years. The Billings have lived in Medford for the past 15 years.

Chile Relleno sandwiches are dipped in batter, may be served for supper or lunch and are eaten with knife and fork. The other sandwich, Golden Chile-Cheese Sandwich, can be served as finger food if the tomato sauce is omitted.

Doctor Bequeathed Legacy of Coffee

Until the 1700's, most English physicians regarded coffee mainly as a medicine, at an earlier British doctor foresaw coffee's future, not in the medical kit but on the dining table.

Doctor William Harvey, who discovered the circulation of the blood, left a legacy of coffee when he died in 1657. With the statement, "This little bean is the source of happiness and wit!", he bequeathed fifty-six pounds of coffee to the London College of Physicians, directing that his friends gather once a month to drink coffee in his memory.

Couple Returns From California

Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Glutsch, 624 Valley View drive, have just returned home, following a two month vacation to Southern California.

They first visited at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Preston in San Jose. Mrs. Preston is the former De Maris Glutsch of this city. Later they were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Pitts in Palm Desert. The balance of their vacation was spent in Palm Springs, and they were joined there by Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Loeffler, Shady Cove, who were en route home from Hawaii.

Spokane Woman Visits Parents; Is Commissioned

Applegate-Mrs. E. W. Warford, Spokane, Wash., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Clute, Applegate, recently received a 3-year commission as grand representative to New Hampshire from Washington Grand chapter, Order of Eastern Star. She and her husband plan to make a trip to New Hampshire next year where she will attend the OES Grand assembly. They will also visit the World's fair in New York while they are in the East.

Mrs. Warford is visiting her parents at present. She spent her early life at Applegate, was graduated from the Applegate Valley High school and later attended the University of California at Berkeley and Southern Oregon college, Ashland.

Conference Set For March 30

Ashland - The eleventh annual American Association of University Women and Rotary club family life conference for young adults will be held on the Southern Oregon college campus, March 30. "Achieving Emotional Maturity - Meeting Rapid Changes Today" will be the conference theme.

Mrs. Buena Steinmetz, president-elect of the Oregon State Home Economics association and former dean of women and teacher of family relations at Oregon State university, will be guest speaker at the event.

All high school students, their parents, and faculty members are invited to attend the conference. In cases where the high school cannot sponsor a group delegation, a student or his parent wishing to attend, may write directly to the general chairman, Mrs. Mabel W. Winston, dean of women at SOC, Ashland.

"Never use self-polishing wax on wood floors!"

... says Henry M. Tobey, Research Director of the world's largest hardwood floor maker

"Those self-polishing waxes that work wonders in your kitchen can be the ruin of wood floors. Most are made primarily of synthetic plastics and cannot be removed from wood floors without damaging the wood or the finish.

As the layers of old self-polishing wax pile up, your wood floor gradually darkens and discolors.

The best wood floor care we can recommend is Bruce Cleaning Wax or Bruce Floor Cleaner. Both contain a removable liquid paste wax and waterless wood floor cleaner. They clean; remove the old wax; and leave a rich, new coat of paste wax protection—all at the same time.

When a heavy coat of wax is desired, Bruce Cleaning Wax is best. For badly soiled floors or lighter waxing, use Bruce Floor Cleaner. It's the right way to keep wood floors bright."

Teasing Days Gone for Hair

United Press International

The "teasing days" are over in hair styles. Elaborate coiffures are going out of style. A simple style can dramatize the face.

Look for sunglasses to be worn on a year-round basis, with color matching the costume.

For infants in the spring: Knits that look like wovens. The spotlight will be on cotton, dacron and polyester knits in topper sets and separates.

An Italian designer (Falconetti) offers draped and sired Moorish pants. They come in printed silks and are worn with cowl-shaped matching tops.

Carol Lawrence on hats: "Every time I go out to buy one hat I wind up with six; it's like having just one sated peasant; I have more hats than clothes."
