Group Becomes Member of UN Chapter Here

At an executive committee meeting of the Eleanor Roosevelt League held Friday at the Medford hotel, the Democratic women's organization voted to become a group member of the United Nations.

A liaison representative to the Jackson County chapter, Oregon United Nations association, will be appointed by President Mrs. Frank Christian within the next week.

The league also voted to sponsor registration and luncheon fees for a delegation of ten members to the forthcoming Status of Women conference to be held at Salem, April 17. Senator Maurine Neuberger and Congresswoman Edith S. Green, members of President Kennedy's Status of Women committee will address the April conference.

Mrs. Ralph Poston, chairman for the rummage sale sponsored by the league, announced that the sale would be held all day Tuesday, March 12, at the Fehi building on North Ivy street. The funds will be applied toward the Democratic Party state quota. For pickup service donors may call either Mrs. Poston, at 773-4780 or Mrs. Jean A. Mills, 773-3949.

Shower Fetes Holland Couple; Wedding Set

News has been received here of the forthcoming wedding of Miss Susan Tucker and Craig Robison in Utrecht, Holland. The bride-elect is a daughter of Tech Sgt. and Mrs. Jack Tucker of Utrecht.

The bridegroom-elect, a Medford High school graduate, is stationed in the Holland city with the United States Air Force. He is a son of Mrs. Grace Robison, 612 West Fourth street, Medford, and Aaron Robison, Chandler, Ariz.

The wedding date has been set for April 15.

Friends and relatives of the bridegroom in Medford held a bridal shower March 1 in the Rogue room of the Medford hotel. Because of the problem of shipping usual shower gifts, the group instead chose to give them a money tree. Mrs. Melvin Saltmarsh, a sister of the bridegroom, devised the tree from manzanita, sprayed it pink and decorated it with items in the bridal theme. Each guest then placed cards with money enclosed, on the tree.

The group completed the evening with dinner and cards.

Attending were the Mesdames Ben Todd, Harold Sander, Hugh Wright, George Miller, James Smith, John Russell, Price Shafer, Glenn Logan, Dixon Kenner, and the bridegroom-elect's mother, Mrs. Robison.

Class Members Hold Reunion

The visit here of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schneider, former Medford resident now of San Pedro, Calif., was the occasion for a reunion of young women of the area who were members of the 1951 Medford High school graduation class. She was the guest of honor at a luncheon attended by the group at the Colony restaurant.

Mrs. Schneider left Wednesday after being the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Atterbury, 1002 West Eleventh street.

Others at the reunion luncheon were Mrs. Robert L. Bosworth, Mrs. Gary Boshears, Mrs. Richard Card, Mrs. Crocker Hunter, Mrs. Richard Mann, Mrs. Donald Hale, Mrs. Martha Johnson, Mrs. LaRue Smith, all Medford; Mrs. Raoul Maddox, Ashland, and Mrs. David Shearer, Klamath Falls.

Group To Hear AFS Students

Jens Hasfeldt of Denmark and Nik Yahya from Malaya, American Field Service exchange students at Medford High school, will speak at a meeting of Jackson County Retired Teachers association March 11. The meeting will open at 1:30 p.m., in the Girls Community club.

Grandmothers, Children To Be Models for Show

Grandmothers will share the spotlight with little children and teenagers at the style show and luncheon to be given by the auxiliary to the Jackson County Medical society on Monday, April 1. The annual event will be held in the Starlight room of the Rogue Valley Country club. Luncheon will be served at noon, and cards will be available for bridge and canasta during the afternoon.

Grandmothers who will model are auxiliary members and the young models are the children of physicians. They will wear fashions from five Medford stores: Jean Hart's, Mann's, Robinson's, Burleson's and the Big Y.

Easter bonnets will be featured as the theme of the benefit, and Easter egg pastels will be used in the decorations. Mrs. E. Lee Harlow is in charge of table decorations, and Mrs. N. James Wilson will provide room decorations. Mrs. Mario Campagna and Mrs. Robert Riechers have arranged for models.

Mrs. Thomas Upton and Mrs. Theodore Bars are preparing the program, and Mrs. Ted Sickels will be the commentator. Mrs. Richard

Relief Society Plans Program On Arts, Crafts

Mrs. Bruce Rawlins will direct the Arts and Crafts lesson at the Tuesday, March 12, meeting of the Relief society of the Second ward, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The meeting will begin at 10 a.m. at the church, 648 South Ivy street. A short lesson will be given. It will be the second part of "A Latter Day Saints Home is Clean." The objective is to show that a well-cared for home enhances its beauty and uplifts the soul.

After the lesson, Mrs. Rawlins will give a demonstration on making ribbon corsages. Each woman attending has been asked to take three or four yards of florist type ribbon either satin or taffeta for the flowers and one and one-half yards of ribbon for the bow. Wire and florist tape may be purchased at the meeting.

Those attending will also take a potluck dish and her own table service for the noon luncheon and a sack lunch for her children. District 11 is in charge of setting tables, it was noted.

A nursery is provided and all interested women are invited to attend the meeting.

Founders Day Is Observed At Elk-Trail

Elk-Trail—Past presidents of the Elk-Trail Parent Teacher association were honored at the annual Founders day meeting held recently at the school. The unit was organized in 1926.

James Collier, audio visual coordinator for the school and the teaching staff presented a program on the use of audio visual equipment. Show were flannel board, arithmetic charts, tape recorder, opaque projector, a sight and sound program, overhead projector, micro-projector and various life form models.

This equipment and many more are available to schools through the county curriculum center. Women of the unit are attending a cake decorating class instructed by Kenneth Lacy. Mrs. Marie Harper, one of the class members, presented a decorated Founders day cake for the meeting.
