

Henley Hornets Down Eagle Point 55-48 for District 6 A-2 Title

Ashland — Henley high's Hornets, a participant two years ago, will return to the Oregon Class A-2 basketball tournament next Monday.

The Hornets, No. 1 rated in the state in their class, captured the District 6 championship here Saturday night by clipping a cold Eagle Point aggregation 55 to 48.

It was the 22nd victory without a loss this season for Henley. Myrtle Creek took third place in the playoff in the Southern Oregon college gym by beating Douglas 65 to 44.

The Hornets out-averaged the Eagles from the field 52 to 246 but Eagle Point had one more field bucket, 17 to 16, and it was free throws which made the scoring difference.

Henley put in 23 of 32 tries and Eagle Point 14 of 23. The Rogue league champions got the lead for keeps on the Eagles in the third period and built a 12 point spread in the early fourth but Eagle Point pulled to within four points in the final minutes.

Pomeroy Has 26 After a 16-11 quarter knot, Henley headed 28 to 25 at the half and 44 to 34 at the third quarter pause. Eagle Point's Charles Pomeroy was high scorer in the fray with 26 points and top rebounder with 19 retrievals.

Kent Gooding had 20 markers for the Buzzers and made 15 snares. Henley had a slight edge of 45 to 42 on rebounds.

The Eagle field goals came on 69 tries at the hoop. EP limited Henley to 48 shots.

Henley broke a 26-all tie in the third quarter with a six-point spurt to go in front for good. Gooding put in a free toss and a layup. Earl Allbritton another gifter and Mike Beymer a gifter for 35 to 29.

Pomeroy's free shot and goal and Bill Hoelt's jumper, while Beymer also hit a jump, got the Eagles to within three points at 37 to 34 but Beymer netter two more buckets. Gooding a free heave and Charley Thompson a basket for the 10-point gap at the quarter's end. LeVoy Young hit at the foul line as the fourth quarter began. Hoelt gifted and goaled for EP but a basket by Gooding and his two free shots ran the count to 49 to 37.

Cut To Four Hoelt got four points, Pomeroy five and Richard Short two while the Hornets picked up just three tallies. That narrowed the Henley edge to 52 to 48 with just 2:22 left on the clock.

Gooding got one charity chance and Steve Reiling two to pad out the Buzzer total. Two field baskets by Pomeroy had brought the Eagles even with Henley in the third quarter after Reiling started out the second half with a Hornet free point.

Last time Eagle Point held a lead in the tussle was at 14 to 13. Myrtle Creek had 15 to 13 and 27 to 26 quarter and half spreads on Douglas as well as upped to 45 to 33 in the third quarter. The Vikings outscored the Trojans 20 to 11 in the final period.

Bob Fuller had 25 points and Ron Salmon 16 for MC. Archie had 17 and Dan Withers 13 for Douglas. Salmon had 18 rebounds and Fuller 11. Bob Reed cleared 11 for the Trojans.

Clay, Jones Conclude Training

New York —UPI— Broadway scalpers were getting $50 each for choice seats today as Cassius Clay and Doug Jones finished training for their heavyweight contenders' fight at Madison Square Garden Wednesday night.

The demand for tickets to the first sellout fight at the Garden in 13 years has become so intense that some of the better $12 ringside tickets may bring $75 to $100 before fight time, the speculators say.

Unbeaten Clay, the "Louisville Lip" whose successful predictions of knockout rounds for his bouts have inspired the sellout, added zest to the situation Sunday night by announcing: "I'm changing the pick I made before."

"Instead of six, Doug goes in four."

That announcement committed 21-year-old Clay to the task of knocking out in exacting the fourth round New Yorker Jones, who achieved the major boxing upset of 1962 by flattening the then third-ranked Zor Folley in the seventh round at the Garden, Dec. 15.
