Russia May Be Stalling for Time

Moscow — UPI — The Soviet Union may be maneuvering to gain time in its ideological and political dispute with Communist China, informed Western observers said here today.

They said this may be the meaning of the public admission that behind-the-scenes ef-orts are being made to find a compromise with Peking. The official government newspaper Izvestia Monday printed a front-page report that the powerful Communist party Central Committee has reiterated to the Chinese that there is a need for a meeting to discuss differences.

Observers said it now appeared that both Moscow and Peking have agreed in principle on the need for such a meeting.

There was no indication when such a meeting would take place.

We've always been a little dubious about the expression, "as sure as you're a foot high."

If you're sure you're only a foot high, you've got real problems like for instance your stockings coming up around your neck.

Lowell Thomas has traveled more than five million miles — by every known mode of transport — for the CBS Radio Network. He's a living legend, an author-reporter-explorer whose feats make modern history. Weekday evenings Lowell Thomas comes on with his unique reports of the day's news. This kind of alert, distinguished coverage fills our broadcast day. We tell what's happening here in town, across the nation, everywhere. We tell it first and best, paced by CBS Radio News on the hour and CBS Radio NetAlert around the clock.
