Fisher, Skowron Impressions Good

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

First impressions can be deceiving but the San Francisco Giants and Los Angeles Dodgers think their relations with Jack Fisher and Bill Skowron are going to be long and profitable.

Fisher and Skowron were involved in major winter deals—the Giants acquiring the pudgy pitcher from the Baltimore Orioles and the Dodgers obtaining the rugged first-baseman from the New York Yankees.

Fisher made his competitive debut for the Giants Tuesday with four shutout innings in a 4-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox while Skowron ran his hitting streak to five straight hits in two games in a 4-3 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Fisher and Billy Pierce shut out the Red Sox with three hits for eight innings before Boston scored a run off rookie Bob Bishop. Joe Amalfitano singled in the fifth and seventh innings and went on to score the Giants' first two runs.

Skowron starts rally
Skowron, 5-for-5 in his last two games, touched off the Dodgers' winning two-run seventh-inning rally with a single. Frank Howard's single, a wild pitch, two walks by rookie Harry Fanok and an error by Dick Groat completed the rally. Bill White had three hits for the Cardinals.

The Yankees could have used Skowron's bat Tuesday when Frank Funk, Claude Raymond and rookie Larry Maxie combined to limit them to one hit in pitching the Milwaukee Braves to a 5-0 victory. Raymond allowed the only hit—a scratch single by Tom Tresh. The world champions now have lost three of four exhibition games.

Don Lee, 8-8 last season, yielded a triple and a double to the first two hitters he faced and then didn't permit another hit for four innings as the Los Angeles Angels defeated the Cleveland Indians, 12-6. There were 24 hits, including homers by the Reds' Jerry Lynch and Gordy Coleman and the Phillies' Don Demeter. Bay Culp pitched three hitless innings and struck out four for the Phillies.

Dave Nicholson drove in two runs with a double and scored another after a single to lead the Chicago White Sox to a 3-1 win over the New York Mets. Nicholson also bruised his knees and the heel of his right hand trying to make a catch against the outfield wall in the ninth inning but his injuries are not believed serious.

The Pittsburgh Pirates went 10 innings to win their first exhibition game of the spring, 7-6, over the Washington Senators. Pitcher Frank Bork won the game with a run-producing 10th-inning single. Gene Alley had three hits for the Pirates.

Pitcher Norman Bass homered in the eighth inning to snap a 4-4 tie and pave the way for the Kansas City Athletics' 7-4 triumph over the Minnesota Twins. Chuck Essagian, acquired recently from the Cleveland Indians, doubled with the bases filled for the Athletics.

Dave Roberts' double and a single by Bob Lillis paced the Houston Colts from behind to a 6-5 decision over the Chicago Cubs. Jim Schaffer hit a two-run homer and Ken Hubbs a triple for the Cubs. The teams split their two-game series.

The Baltimore Orioles scored their fourth straight victory of the spring when they beat the Detroit Tigers, 7-2, in a night game at Miami, Fla. Luis Aparicio homered and stole two bases for the Orioles and Jerry Adair also homered. Al Kaline homered for the Tigers. Rookie fireballer Steve Dalkowski pitched hitless ball over the middle three innings for Baltimore.

Lewis and Clark Nicks Oshkosh in NAIA Tourney

Kansas City — UPI — Jim Boutin's layin with one second to play gave Lewis and Clark of Portland a 75-74 victory over Oshkosh State of Wisconsin Tuesday in an opening-round NAIA tournament game.

Lewis and Clark, seeded 14th, missed three shots in the last 11 seconds before Boutin scored the winner.

Boutin led the Oregon team with 23 points and Dean Austin had 27 for the losers. Oshkosh led 34-32 at the half.

Another Pacific Northwest team was eliminated. Rockhurst, Mo., defeated Pacific Lutheran 83-77.

Lewis and Clark was to play Transylvania, Ky., today.

Kansas City, Mo. — UPI — The hotly-contested National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics NAIA basketball tournament today moved in the second round minus five seeded teams.

Today's action featured first-seeded Grambling vs. Athens, Carson Newman vs. Indiana State, Stetson vs. Pan American, Michigan vs. Central Ohio, Transylvania vs. Lewis and Clark, Weston Carolina vs. Miles, Rockhurst vs. Alliance and Fort Hays vs. second-seeded Augsburg.

The five heralded teams that fell included third-ranked Winston-Salem (N.C.) beaten 84-60 Tuesday by unseeded Transylvania of Kentucky.

Fourth-seeded Oklahoma Baptist was beaten 84-81 Monday by Central Ohio.

Miles College of Alabama pulled an 84-81 upset from seventh-seeded Western Illinois, fired by four last-minute points by Tom Hamner. Seeded Howard Payne of Texas and Central Connecticut fell Monday.

Charles Anderson poured in 34 points to lead second-seeded Augsburg Minn. to a 67-57 win over West Virginia State. Sixth-ranked Rockhurst College of Kansas City rolled past Pacific Lutheran of Washington 83-77.

Eight games were slated today in the 28th annual tournament and quarterfinals are scheduled Thursday. The meet ends Saturday after semifinals Friday.

Good Steelheading In Klamath Reported

Happy Camp, Calif. — UPI — Good fishing in the Klamath River was being reported by many fishermen during the past two weeks.

"Bud" Mitchell, Medford, Ore., owner of a truck line hauling for a plywood mill here, spent about two hours fishing with roe and night crawlers and made a nice catch of steelhead last week.

Fishing with Mitchell were Lawrence G. Sprunt, a plywood representative of North Carolina, and Jim Roads and Ted Jensen, both from Happy Camps, who are known to know the best spots for the various times of the year.

L. A. Bright, also of Happy Camp, reported that he had been using "lures" and had been catching a number of fish near his house just above the Elk Creek bridge.

Fish, Game Council To Convene

The Oregon Fish and Game Council will hold a public meeting at the Jackson county courthouse Saturday, March 16, at 8 p.m., Walter Craig, president of the Jackson county chapter, has announced.

C. E. (Red) Milhorn, state president, will attend, as will Bob Fyle, Klamath county chapter president; Chauncey Florey, vice president of the Jackson county chapter, and Craig.

ZEPHYR OWNERS MEET

Chicago — UPI — The owners of the Chicago Zephyrs were to meet today to discuss and vote on a proposal to move the National Basketball association team to Baltimore. Club President Dave Trager said a news conference would be held at noon (EST) Thursday to announce the result of the meeting. Trager said he expected the meeting to last "a long time."

House Bill 1458 comes up for public hearing Monday, March 18, at 3 p.m. in the House chambers and members of the council will discuss this measure here Saturday night. A large group will attend the hearing and plans will be laid here for that participation, Craig explained, in announcing the Medford session.

There are many provisions in House Bill 1458 of interest to sportsmen but it is commonly known as the "Doe bill." It seeks a three year moratorium in the shooting

In local advertising there's just one Champ—the daily newspaper. It's the retailer's own ad medium, and local advertisers back up their belief in this power-packed medium with a $2.7-billion-a-year investment — more than in all other media combined. The flexibility of newspapers makes it easy for retailers to tie-in with national advertising, adding to their own local selling effectiveness. Put more power in your advertising punch.
