Mrs. Jerome Roberts, one of the models for a style show to be given by The Welcome Wagon club March 21 at Girls Community club, will wear these grey white-stitched pants with striped blouse during the event. Mrs. Roberts posed at The Carriage House, which will provide part of the clothing.

Mrs. James Kilgore was refreshments and decorations chairman for the annual style show given at Rogue Valley Manor Tuesday afternoon.

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE

MEDFORD, OREGON, SUNDAY, MARCH 17, 1963

Spring Brings Fashion Shows

Swim time is several weeks away, but Mrs. Vernon Craft modeled a bathing suit in the style show given by Alpha Rho chapter, Beta Sigma Phi.

Mrs. Alvin Hopper, Beta Sigma Phi member, modeled one of the fashionable long Hawaiian print cotton shifts from Burelson's for the show.

An Italian knit suit of platinum grey and a blue silk blouse with huge white dots was modeled by Mrs. William Tycer for the Alpha Rho-Burelson's show.

Mrs. Beverly Morris, Mann's store clerk (at left), helped Mrs. William Mansfield choose clothing to be modeled in the style revue which the Welcome Wagon club plans Thursday night, March 21, at Girls Community club. Mrs. Mansfield is wearing a pink silk linen sheath dress and three-quarter-length matching coat, white straw hat and white shoes. The public is invited to attend the show.
