Kemmerer-Santee Rites Held at Medford Church

Jacksonville—Mr. and Mrs. Dale Kemmerer are living in Jacksonville following their wedding which was an event of Sunday, February 24 in the Valley View Seventh-day Adventist church in Medford.

The bride, the former Miss Karen Ann Santee is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Santee of South Slage road, Medford. Mr. Kemmerer's parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Kemmerer, Blachly, Ore. Elder Arvin Winkle, minister of the Valley View Seventh-day Adventist church, officiated at the 7:30 o'clock evening rites. About 300 guests attended the candle-light ceremony. White chrysanthemums and pink stock decorated the church, and Mrs. Clifford Fellows was organist. Elder Paul Gordon of Milo, Ore., and Elder Arvin Winkle were soloists.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white peau de soie and Chantilly lace with long sleeves and Sabrina neckline. The bodice was accented by sequins and seed pearls. Her elbow length veil of silk illusion was held by a crown of Chantilly lace and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations, pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

Miss Irita Snyder, Medford, was maid of honor; Miss Carolyn Kemmerer, a sister of the bridegroom and Miss Nadine Parker, a cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. Judy Yost and Milton Bernheisel were candlelighters. Flower girl was Laura Winkle and Bible boy, Greg Winkle.

The attendants and Judy Yost wore frocks of silver and pink brocade fashioned with matching headbands which held sheer veils. They carried bouquets of pink carnations. The flower girl wore a pink nylon frock with headband and veil.

Glenn Gingery of Walla Walla college, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Gary and Kenneth Kemmerer, brothers of the bridegroom. Ushers were Gene Yost and Monte Swanberg of Milo academy. Mrs. Gingery sister of bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

Susana y Jose do not represent themselves as Andalusian gypsies for both are highly cultivated cosmopolites, with the finest training in both the classical ballet as well as the ancient dance techniques of Spain.

Susana Audoud, a dramatic Spanish beauty, and Jose Udaeta, son of an aristocratic Basque family, met by chance in a dance studio in Barcelona. Their partnership is strictly artistic and professional. Each is happily married, Jose to the attractive and gifted Marta, who designs the brilliant and intricate costumes. Susana is wife of the distinguished concert pianist Armin Janssen, who also often accompanies them on ours and does so again on the present tour, furnishing the piano music for the dancing.

Other members of this pocket-size dance company are the renowned flamenco guitarist, Pedro Sevilla, and the exciting flamenco singer, Naranjito de Triana.

Concerning the 1963-64 season, already booked are the Vienna Choir boys who will appear in February, 1964. Renewals and advance membership tickets have been coming in rapidly, according to association officers.

The drive will open with a luncheon for all volunteer workers at the Rogue Valley Country club, Saturday, March 30 at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. R. D. Ford is chairman and Mrs. Raymond Wise has charge of table decorations.

Captains for the campaign are Mrs. W. E. Hercher, Mrs. Lerling Loveness, Mrs. Frank

Ceremony In Ashland Weds Pair

Miss Cherry Ann McCleary was wed to James Garry McCurdy in a civil ceremony performed at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, March 9. Mrs. Frances I. Gallatin, Ashland justice of the peace, read the rites in her offices at 314 East Main street, Ashland.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. McCleary Jr., 255 Beatty street, Medford and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Drury R. McCurdy, 320 West Clark street, Medford.

Miss Linda Bowen was the honor attendant and Andrew J. McCleary III, a brother of the bride, was best man.

For her marriage the bride chose a white cotton sheath dress in street length and with long sleeves. Her flowers were pink carnations.

The honor attendant wore a black sheath frock with white accessories.

The bridegroom's parents gave a reception in their home. About 30 guests attended. Mrs. Bruce Snelson, Talent, an aunt of the bridegroom, served the cake and Mrs. Joe Hudron poured punch. The reception table was decorated with a centerpiece of jonquils and pansies.

The couple is living at 403 Clark street, Medford.

The bride is a student at Medford High school, and the bridegroom, a graduate from there, is employed at Cascade Wood Products company.

Mrs. Walter Sykes modeled this silk Peasanti costume in the annual style show given at Rogue Valley manor Tuesday afternoon. The suit, of electric blue with figured blouse, is from Burelison's store.
