Candid Camera Boy

He snaps you when you're washing your hair,
Or wide agape in a yawn.
His shutter clicks as a folding chair
And you collapse on the lawn.

The pix he gets are really a scream,
Hilarious shots and grim,
So funny that some of his victims dream
Of taking a shot at him!

"The boss says I'll get a $5 raise next year; then we can set our wedding date."

"Maybe my folks will give us their old bedroom set. We can fill in with the relatives' extra pieces."

"Together we've saved $147. That'll give us a start."

"It's only one room, but we can fix it up cheerily."

"As long as we have each other, nothing else matters."

A Couple Today:

"Let's get married. We'll both get jobs as soon as we graduate!"

"I saw the most wonderful suite of Swedish imports—and available on credit!"

"I'm sure Dad will keep me on allowance for the first year or so."

"The folks have plenty of space. They can do over the extra room for us."

"As long as we have each other, nothing else matters."

A harried-looking gentleman entered the barbershop with his small son and sat waiting for an open chair. The boy immediately started asking questions: "Why is the man in a white apron? ... Why does that little machine buzz? ... What is that pretty smell? ..." and on and on.

Finally, the barber shook his head and looked at the pair. "Mister," he said, "I've met a lot of talkers, but that boy tops them all."

"Yes," replied the man, resignedly, "and he looks like his mother, too!"
